

IN MEMORIAM

MR JOHN CUNNINGHAM

At Kinkora on the morning of March 19th last, there passed to his eternal reward an old faithful member of the Catholic Church in the person of John Cunningham at the advanced age of 79 years.

During his illness he was attended and comforted by the frequent visits of his beloved pastor Rev. M. J. Smith and died fortified by last rites of Holy Mother Church.

He leaves to cherish his memory a devoted wife who was in constant attention at his bedside and spared no pains to soothe and comfort him during his prolonged sickness; also and exemplary family of four sons and four daughters and Brother Ambrose of N. Y., Patrick N. Y., John and Francis at home, Mrs. P. Kelly, Mt. Rocket, Mrs. Miss Margaret of N. Y., Mrs. J. Fitzpatrick of Manchester, N. H., and Mrs. J. Kenny of Morell P. E. I.

The funeral to Kinkora on Saturday afternoon was very largely attended and the services at the Church and grave were conducted by the pastor assisted by Rev. W. Monaghan.

The pall bearers were Owen G. McCarroll, J. Patrick Farmer, Michael Farmer, Michael Milligan, Thomas Gallagher. May his soul rest in peace.

CHRISTINA McNEIL

The angel of death again visited the McNeil home at Rockbarra and snatched from earth the second member of the family Miss Christina, after a short illness brought on by the long continued care and nursing of her late brother, Daniel.

Miss McNeil at the time of her death, March 24th was in her 70th year. Only one member of the family, Mary Ann, is now living and to her the heartfelt sympathy of all true friends of the family goes out in her sad and sore bereavement.

The deceased was attended by her pastor and by kind neighbors and friends. Her burial took place on Friday afternoon to St. Margaret's cemetery, the funeral obsequies being performed by Rev. Father Kenneth MacPherson, pastor of the church. The funeral cortege was quite large and representative, indicating the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held by the community.

For many years Miss McNeill lived with the late Ex-Lieut. Governor Dr. McIntyre but for the past twenty-five years resided at the family residence, Rockbarra. She was a lady of very fine attainments and of many good qualities of heart and mind and had a host of friends and acquaintances, who will rejoice that she is transferred to a higher and happier life of eternal bliss in the great beyond.

JAMES REID

Many friends will learn with regret of the death of James Reid which occurred at his home in Bay View, on Thursday morning, March 31st, at his seventy-first year after an illness following an attack of la grippe. Bright hopes were entertained for his recovery and everything that loving hands could do was done for him but Divine Providence decreed otherwise. He was frequently visited by his pastor, Rev. J. Gaudet, who also administered to him the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which he was always a faithful member.

He was kind-hearted and jovial and as a neighbour his equal would be hard to find so that the community has sustained a distinct loss in his passing. The large number of friends who attended his funeral was a fitting tribute to his sterling qualities. The late Mr. Reid spent his life in the pursuit of farming and was very successful. He is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Harry Hughes, of Northport; Marion, teacher of St. Patrick's School; Teresa, Laura, Agnes and Kathleen at home, also three sons, Leo of Hope River, Walter and James at home, all of whom were with the deceased at the end. His wife predeceased him a little over a year ago.

The funeral took place the following Saturday morning to St. Anne's Church, Hope River, where the services were celebrated by Rev. J. Gaudet. The pall bearers were Clarence, Joseph, Lauder and Thomas Reids, John Trainor and Joseph Stewart.

MR. D. MacPHERSON

The following is a copy from the Yorkton Enterprise, Saskatchewan, dated March 1st, Yorkton, Saskatchewan: "The sudden death from heart failure of Mr. D. MacPherson, manager of the Massey-Harris Co. of this Branch, deceased was apparently in good health, remaining in his office until 3 P. M. He enjoyed his evening meal with his family and was in the library with Mrs. MacPherson and their son, Stewart, when he complained in one brief sentence of the pain which he felt in his chest and before medical aid could be obtained death ensued. He was but a young man in his thirtieth year having been born in Valleyfield, Prince Edward Island, in 1881. He started his career as teacher in the public schools of P. E. I. and afterwards went west where he joined with the Massey-Harris Co. being in their employ exactly sixteen years, from March 1st, 1905 to March 1st, 1921. He was first employed in the Yorkton Branch and received his appointment as chief accountant in 1909. He became office manager in 1913 and in 1919 was transferred to Toronto as Assistant Manager in the Ontario Branch. The appointment as manager of the Yorkton Branch came as a well merited promotion last November and the deceased gentleman had already taken a good grip of his new duties. He was of a genial nature and beloved by all who knew him. Besides his widow and three children Mr. MacPherson leaves an aged mother in Valleyfield, P. E. I., also two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Nicholson, Mrs. Hope, P. E. I., and Miss Katie at home in Valleyfield, also three brothers, John A., at home and John and Angus in Kaslo, B. C. Many telegrams expressing sympathy to the bereaved family have been received including one from head office stating that Mr. MacPherson was an officer highly esteemed for his personal worth as well as for his valuable experience. The remains were taken to Winnipeg for burial. Local office was closed at noon as a mark of respect for the deceased gentleman."

MRS JOSEPH McDONALD

Laura Stewart, wife of Joseph MacDonald, died at her home Kingsboro P. E. I., Mar 1, 1921 aged 45 years. Early in the winter season, friends began with deep regret that Mr. MacDonald was ill. Soon the regret became fear lest the illness should be more serious than at first supposed. Several doctors ministered to her—striving to stay the progress of the disease—treatment and an operation in the Prince Edward Island Hospital gave her temporary relief and until within two days of her death loved ones, and friends entertained bright hopes of at least a prolonging for some months of the earthly life. Then a sudden relapse into physical weakness shattered the hopes if those who so anxiously watched for every sign of progress.

Mrs. MacDonald was by the common consent of the community "a good woman." Like the ideal woman mentioned in the Book of Proverbs, she "looked well to the ways of her household" so that her children arise up and call her blessed, her husband also and he praiseth her. Hospital life was to her delight and even until the last hours of her earthly life her thoughts

McPhee, New Harmony are selling out their live stock and effects by private sale, and moving to Boston."

"The friends who visited her to say farewell."

"In her religious life she was practical. A member of the Baptist Church, she was a regular and devout worshiper; and her profession found ample expression in her deeds, and many are left to testify to the kindness of her heart and of the readiness of her hand to assist others in time of need, narrowness had no place in her creed; but 'good' was frankly appreciated and sympathetically encouraged wherever found. Her leave-taking of this world was most beautiful. There was the desire to remain with the loved ones; but this desire was smoothed into the second place by devotion to the will of God. Calling the loved ones to her bedside she offered them words of comfort, assuring them that her heart was at peace with God and that soon she would be 'forever with Him.' To the pastor of the church she gave a beautiful testimony, bearing not that her sins would meet her as her Savior had cancelled them, claiming no personal righteousness, but resting in the love of God."

"The funeral services were conducted at her home and at the grave side by Rev. W. R. MacWalker of the Baptist and Christian churches. The hymns 'O think of the Home over There,' 'Some Day the Silver Chord will break' and 'Sweet Rest and By' were sung by the united choir, Mrs. B. Baker of Boston, Mass., and a brother, Edson Stewart of Souris, her husband and three small children, who left to mourn. To them a so sorrowing community extends heartfelt sympathy."

WOMAN SICK

FOUR YEARS

Was Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Steen's, Miss.—"I was all run down and nervous with female trouble and my sides pained at times that I could hardly walk. I suffered for four years with it. Then I saw your advertisement in the papers and I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel stronger and am able to do most of my housework now. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use this letter if you care to do so."—Mrs. W. H. BLAKE, Route 1, Steen's, Miss.

How many women, overworked, tired and ailing, keep up the ceaseless treadmill of their daily duties until they are afflicted with female troubles as Mrs. Blake was, and are run down, weak and nervous. But every such woman should be convinced by the many letters like hers which we are constantly publishing, proving beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will overcome such troubles, and write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., in regard to their health.

Have You Insured Your Partner?

If your partner should die to-morrow, how would it affect your business? Would your credit tighten while awaiting developments?

If his heirs called for an immediate settlement of their claims against the business, could you meet them without tremendous inconvenience? If not, or even if you could, you should hold an Imperial Partnership Policy upon your partner's life.

Many business men realize that Imperial Partnership Insurance upon the lives of partners and executive officers in their business is the surest way to protect themselves against losses that may occur through unforeseen accident or death. It is an interesting phase of the insurance business; one that—if a partner—you should know about.

Our booklet, "Personality in Business," thoroughly explains the operation of "Partnership Insurance." It's very interesting and it's free. Why not write for a copy—now—while you have the matter in mind.

GRAY DORT FACTS

Here are a few FACTS to think over when you are deciding the kind of car you are going to buy this spring

Gray Dort cars are extra strongly made—have over-size strength at every point—that is why you seldom see a Gray Dort in a repair garage.

They stand up to the work, bad roads have no terrors for the man who drives a Gray Dort.

The engine is so simple that a mechanic is very seldom needed.

Gray Dort cars have proven by actual test to be most economical on gas and oil. 20 to 25 miles per gallon is the usual mileage.

Very few cars can equal this and none exceed it.

Gray Dort owners are given a perfect service. There are Gray Dort dealers and service stations at every important point in the Province, add we have a fully equipped service car and competent mechanics ready for any emergency.

Gray Dort cars are NEVER tied up for parts—we have a complete stock on hand at all times.

Gray Dort cars are medium weight cars—just the right kind for the roads we have on Prince Edward Island.

They are roomy-comfortable and efficient. In a word Gray Dort cars LOOK GOOD, ARE GOOD, and STAY GOOD.

Look them over—we are proud to show them.
