

NAZIM PASHA WILL NEGOTIATE

For Armistice With Representatives. Peace Bulks Large in Fore-ground

(Canadian Press) KINGSTON, Nov. 20.—The latest reports now are to the effect that the great tidal wave has swept the north and south coasts practically wiping out the towns of Savannah, La Mar and Lucia both towns of considerable importance.

The reports brought in by the steamer say that 42 were killed at Montego Bay the centre of destruction will be cut off from communication for a week at least. The entire wharf front at Montego Bay was wrecked.

(Canadian Press) CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 20.—Nazim Pasha the commander in chief of the Turkish Army is set Pasha commander of the general staff of the war office and the late commander in chief Yemen and Chaden Bey the councillor of state have been appointed Ottoman plenipotentiaries for the negotiations of the armistice with the Bulgarian representatives.

The question of peace bulks large in the foreground. The fact that the official communications with regard to the Bulgarian reply issued at both Constantinople and Sofia make no mention of the preliminary considerations has given rise to the comment as it was generally expected that Bulgaria would insist upon fixing the basis before consenting to enter upon negotiations.

The belief is very general that Bulgaria would demand capitulation of Adrianople and other fortified places. Turkey would refuse to entertain any such stipulation.

There was no serious fighting today. Slight cannonade and fusillade were exchanged at night and left wings. It is generally believed that the object of the authorities in quartering nearly 2,000 cholera patients in the Mosque of St. Sophia is to deter enemies from setting foot within the building.

The talk in the Sofia papers regarding the celebration of the Deutsches in that historic pile undoubtedly produced the impression on the Turkish government which resorted to this truly Oriental the expedient thwarting such a design.

(VHNNNA, Nov. 20.—It is believed that an ultimatum will be sent by Austria to Serbia within 24 hours giving three days for reply.

(LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Chronicle's correspondent in the front at Hadzink has wired that the battle there proved the bloodiest of the war and both sides had a fearful loss of life.

(LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Times Sofia despatch says there is reason to believe that the Porte has been informed that Constantinople and the shores of Marmora and the Dardanelles with the small adjacent territories will remain under Turkish rule. Even under these terms, if accepted, the Bulgarian Government will find it hard to keep the troops from Constantinople. Officers and men are turning with a desire to dictate peace from the capital of hereditary foes.

(LONDON, Nov. 19.—The occupation of Alessio by the combined Serbian and Montenegrin armies, giving them another foothold on the Adriatic Sea, is considered in diplomatic circles likely to add fuel to the flames of the Austro-Serbian dispute which have again blazed up in a critical way.

Emperor Francis Joseph is reported to have remarked:—We are in favor of peace, but not peace at any price. We cannot stand everything.

The Austro-Hungarian cabinet has sent a sharp note to the Serbian government at Belgrade, demanding a precise reply to all the questions at issue. According to the Zeit, the note was distinctly threatening in tone, and it adds:

Vigorous military measures will give emphasis to the diplomatic de-

CHANGES IN CIVIL SERVICE

(Special to the Guardian)

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—It is understood from well informed circles here that there will be radical changes in the Dominion civil service very soon. Sir Geo Murray the English expert, who has been appointed to reorganize service, has the report about completed. It is understood he advocates considerable change.

Some papers assert that Serbia is preparing to concentrate her main forces on the Austrian frontier.

Diplomatists do not exclude the possibility that the Servians, relying on the sympathy of Slavs in Austria-Hungary and on the support of her Balkan allies, may challenge an issue.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 19.—Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander in chief, sent the following dispatch at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon.

A desperate artillery engagement began this morning and it is being continued with success. The Bulgarian infantry operating in front of the center of our line of defense, was repulsed by our artillery fire. Part of the enemy's batteries were silenced. We ordered a detachment of troops to advance. They attacked the enemy's entrenchments and forced them to flee.

CINEMATOGRAPH IN BALKAN WAR

(LONDON, Nov. 20.—With the outbreak of hostilities in the Balkans Lloyd's insurance rates on cinematograph operators proceeding to the front went up from eight guineas to fifty guineas per cent. There was considerable excitement over the practically new industry as a war risk, both at Lloyds and amongst the film service firms in Charing Cross road and Long-acre that are sending operators out on the dangerous work of securing pictures of the fighting in the Near East.

Over fifty men have already left London for their perilous work, and these, added to the Continental operators already on the spot, are being covered by their employers against the risk of death by "accident." The period to be embraced by the premiums paid for this insurance is the next six months.

A HALIFAX MAN LOST LIFE IN FIRE

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—Five-year-old Fred Dolan carried a four-months old child down two flights of smoke-filled and flame-lighted stairs to safety last night in a fire in a house in the Charlestown district, which cost one man his life, and caused probably fatal injuries to two other persons. Half a dozen other children dropped out of windows on the first and second floors to the arms of people below. None were injured. The dead man is Patrick Hawes, 45 years of age, Halifax, N. S. Morris Power, the 18-year-old son of the proprietor of the lodging house, and Ellis Ellenburg, a lodger, are seriously injured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Joseph Pulitzer, late proprietor of the New York World, who came to America practically penniless and who at the close of the Civil War, in which he served as a Union soldier, was still in reduced circumstances, left a gross estate, taxable in New York state, of $18,200,000. E. Halsey Malone, representing the estate, will make public a portion of the official appraisal of Mr. Pulitzer's estate under the New York state inheritance laws on Wednesday.

OPENING OF PANAMA CANAL PLANNED FOR NEXT SUMMER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Some time next summer or fall, no exact date being specified, a vessel will pass from the Atlantic to the Pacific across what is now the Isthmus of Panama, which consequently must disappear from the world's geography and by the same human agency the western hemisphere will be divided into two continents.

The vessel will not be the Oregon nor any of the many small water craft in daily use by the canal builders, and probably the only passengers will be Col. George W. Goethals and the staff of American engineers who for the past eight years have been carrying on the greatest engineering work the world has ever seen.

It will be later than that, anywhere from six months to a year perhaps, before the formal opening of the waterway will take place and the fleet, headed by the famous old Oregon, will pass through into the western ocean, and the canal may be fairly said to be open to trade.

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.—To encourage immigration from the Old Country during the slack season, the Government has suspended until December 1st, the requirement that each immigrant must have $50 in cash. The suspension of this restriction applies only to British citizens.

ITALY'S FINANCES AFTER THE WAR

(Special to the Guardian)

ROME, Nov. 20.—Not many days have elapsed since the conclusion of peace between Italy and Turkey, and although naturally at the present stage it cannot be stated with certainty that further war expenditure will be avoided by the victorious Italians, apart from the expense of repatriation of the bulk of their army from Tripoli, the cost of the complete pacification of the new North African colonies cannot at the worst represent an insignificant addition to the known outlay upon the 12 months' campaign. The ease with which Italy has been able to bear the additional burden of the war has caused no little surprise at all leading monetary centres, and has confounded not a few prophets who had ventured to predict that quite a brief campaign would expose weak spots in the financial armor of the country. It is therefore intelligible that Italian official circles should claim credit at the early close of the war for the sanguine prognostications, and at the same time call attention to the strong fiscal and general economic situation at the conclusion of a struggle which partook not by any means merely of the character of a colonial expedition.

Some advance particulars are available from an interview with Signor Tedesco, Italian Minister of Finance, and it appears from his statement that the amounts placed at the disposal of the Italian War Office and Admiralty during the 12 months' campaign reached 458 million lire ($91,250,000), of which 386 were for the army and 72 millions for the navy.

The interview contains no reference to the stipulated annual payment of at least two million lire representing the loss of the Ottoman Treasury of the revenue from Tripoli, to which Turkey is entitled under Article X of the Treaty of Lausanne. Semi-official statements have already appeared intimating that in view of the heavy financial requirements of the Porte, the latter will avail itself of its right to the capitalization on a 4 per cent basis of this annual contribution, converting it into a single payment of, say, 50 million lire. Allowing for this probable outlay, and also for the expenses of the repatriation and disbandment of the major portion of the Italian army now in Libya, the total cost of the war of annexation will scarcely fall short of 450 million lire or $90,000,000.

The floating debt of Italy at the end of September, exceeded 500 million lire. Most of this debt is held in Italy itself. The Minister dwells at considerable length on the striking increases in the yield of taxation; the improvement during the 12 months covering the war was actually greater than the average advance the preceding quinquennium.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 20.—William Heck sat in a cell in the Wanamie jail, friends battered in the door and removed the lock, but Heck refused to flee.

ATHLETIC FEDERATION WANTED TO BE INTERNATIONAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—An international athletic federation congress for the interest of Olympic games is proposed in resolutions recommended at the 25th annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic union here to-day. It was voted to appoint a committee of five to meet in 1913 with representatives of foreign countries for the purpose of organizing such a federation if possible. The trouble over the water polo championship at Pittsburgh last March, led to the adoption of a resolution declaring that the water polo championship for 1912 be cancelled and recommending that the rules governing water polo be abolished and those of the International Swimming association be substituted.

MURDER MAY BE CHARGE IN HOUSE NEAR ST. JOHN.

ST. JOHN, November 18.—The body of James Gleson, aged thirty, was found dead this afternoon in the residence of a French family named Mallet in Milford village, a village on the outskirts of this city, and it is believed by many that the man came to his death as the result of foul play. The matter will probably be cleared up tomorrow, when the evidence of Dr. McCarthy, who made a post-mortem examination, is given. Gleson is claimed to be a stranger to the Mallets, altho Mrs. Mallet informed the coroner that Gleson entered her house by the rear door on Sunday evening and had been drinking. He claimed to be ill and laid down in a front room. She states that she was trying to rouse him from eight o'clock this morning until two this afternoon, when she found that he was dead. When the coroner visited the remains he found a tin bottle lying near the body and also a discolored patch behind the left ear of the corpse which might have been made by a blow with a blunt instrument or by strangulation. The village is very much worked up over the case and startling developments are looked for.

EXAGGERATED STORIES OF COLLISION ON THE SOO LINE.

MOOSE JAW, Sask., November 19.—Wild rumors spread through the city this morning to the effect that 18 people had been killed in a wreck on the Canadian Pacific railway at Rush Lake. Officials of the C. P. R. admitted that such information had been received from Swift Current, but tonight it was learned that apart from damage to the rolling stock, eight Chinamen and two of their guards had been injured on a Chinese extra running east and all were taken to the hospital at Swift Current. During the afternoon, a special train left for the scene of the wreck. At eight o'clock tonight officials of the company stated that no one was killed but were unable to issue any official statement.

SAID MONEY WAS OFFERED FOR VOTES.

SOREL, Que., Nov. 19.—That barrels of whiskey grips full of money were distributed in Richelieu before the last election, was the statement made by P. J. A. Cardin, the new Liberal member for that county, in an address to the Club Caribou. The occasion was the inauguration of the club's new quarters. Mr. Cardin made an analysis of the methods employed by the Conservatives in their attempt to win the bye-election. They talked patronage, he said they threatened the workmen, and one of the organizers came saying "I was the personal representative of Borden, Rogers and other ministers. He could be seen everywhere, day and night, and when the roads were too bad for automobile, he had special trains at his disposal. In one parish where a church was being built, he told the people, that if they would vote for Mr. Morgan, not only would he give them a magnificent gift for their church but a bell as well. However, he found that if he had been able to buy their consciences, Richelieu was not for sale."

MORNING POST ON NAVAL PROGRAMME

Policy Not Liable to be Reversed By Future Government

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Morning Post, discussing the Canadian Naval programme, says Premier Borden ought to insure a policy that is not liable to be reversed by a future government. He should also enforce the view that a Canadian contribution is in addition to, not in substitution of, a British contribution.

The question of preserving a Dominion Naval unit should be left an open question.

FIVE DEAD AND INJURED IN SOUTHERN RAILWAY WRECK

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 19.—Five are known to be dead and many injured as the result of a head-on collision early to-day near Granite, N. C., between the north and south bound Florida-Cuba special trains on the Seaboard Air Line railway. The trains met shortly after 2 o'clock. Telegraph wires were torn down and communication with the outside world entirely cut off for many hours. The known dead are:—C. H. Beckham, engineer, Raleigh, N. C.; W. A. Faison, engineer, Raleigh, N. C.; R. J. Gray, colored fireman; James Ruffin, colored fireman; O. V. Priddy, express messenger, Boykins, Va.

STILL RAFTING LOGS IN MAINE

BANGOR, Nov. 19.—With about 40,000 logs yet to be rafted at the Bangor boom and with conditions anything but favorable for carrying on the work with despatch, there is some doubt as to whether or not the rafting crew will be able to complete the work before the cold weather sets in and the logs are frozen in the boom.

A full crew is being worked extra time and every endeavor is being made to get the logs to the mills before the weather forces a halt. There is a crew of forty-five men, all that can be accommodated, on the boom and they are hurrying the work as fast as the high water and current will allow. It is figured that the work to be done will take at least two weeks, providing there are no more lay offs and if the cold weather will hold off for that length of time the boom can probably be cleared of its logs.

Manuel Pardinias drew the lot to execute the design. Apparently he was most unwilling, and knowing that he was watched by other anarchists, he did his utmost to have himself arrested. Finding that this was vain, he decided to kill the Spaniard, premier, so as not to be killed by his comrades, and failing to escape, he committed suicide.

HOME RULE BILL IS DISCUSSED

CRUSADE AGAINST PICTURE HOUSES

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.—The Lord's Day Alliance of the province of Quebec, will proceed under the federal law to close all moving picture houses on Sunday in this province.

Forty-nine picture houses are affected. Rev. J. A. Gordon, D. D., formerly of Charlottetown, is president of the Montreal branch of the Alliance and a leader in the present crusade.

digging field rocks near the Pinchot cottage, unaccountably stolen from the cottage of George W. Vanderbilt was recovered to-day.

A workman, Simon Viote, while digging field rocks near the Pinchot cottage, unaccountably stolen from the cottage of George W. Vanderbilt was recovered to-day.

When Vanderbilt's cottage was broken into in the night in 1894 a large amount of valuable jewelry and silverware was stolen. Detectives worked on the case for several years, but no clue to the robbers was ever discovered. The robbers evidently hid the most valuable part of their plunder and did not consider it worth returning for.

COMMERCIAL VICE IS NOT A NECESSARY EVIL.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18.—A war for the eradication of the social evil of St. Louis was formally begun with the issuance of the first report of the Joint Committee of Public Morals, representing thirty of the largest civic, social, religious and medical organizations of the city. The report is the fruit of a year's investigation and is based on three fundamental principles—commercialized vice is not a necessary evil; commercialized, is not simply a complication of law enforcement and its elimination is not a simple and easy process.

It reflects as intolerable to the public conscience all suggestions that the social evil should be regularly licensed or even segregated. Among the suggestions for regulating disorderly houses are:—The elimination of all music, dancing and exhibitions of any sort in such places.

A house once closed for any reason should never be permitted to open again. The prohibition of new houses, so as to ward off the threatening influx from Chicago. The immediate suppression of all questionable hotels.

The punishment by imprisonment not fines, of all men mashers or women of the streets. That provision be made for the organization of a permanent commission of public morals.

That this body consist of from five to nine men and women to serve without compensation.

WOMAN JUMPS TO DEATH.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—Clutching $380 in her grasp and screaming in terror at imaginary burglars, Mrs. Lizzie Fee fought with three nurses and two policemen in Cambridge, and a short time later, when the house caught fire from an overturned lamp and the nurses were fighting the flames, plunged through a third story window and fell to the pavement, 45 feet below sustaining injuries that resulted in her death.

When she reached the hospital she still had the money clutched in both hands. Insanity, due to ill health, was the cause of her act.

MEXICO CRUSHING OUT REVOLUTIONISTS

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20.—That the Mexican government is determined to carry out the threat recently made to resume the tactics employed so successfully by Gen. Robles in the State of Morelos some months ago, is indicated by the report of the War Department announcing the total destruction of several small towns and villages in the northern mountains of Oaxaca, where the revolution has been rampant.

Furthermore, 3,000 soldiers who are now operating in the north, chiefly in Chihuahua, Coahuila and Durango, will be brought here for the campaign against the rebels in the States of Mexico, Puebla, Guerrero and Oaxaca.

Ixtepeh and Zia, two of the places destroyed, were fine strongholds of the Serrano Indians. Convinced that the inhabitants of these towns were completely in accord with the rebels, orders were issued for their destruction. Without even calling upon the inhabitants to withdraw, the artillery began its work, ceasing only when the town had been reduced to a mass of ruins.

The rebels hold important hills near rural districts and many of the minor towns in the State of Mexico. Gen. Aguilar, who is supposed to be directing a large part of the rebel forces, is operating in the southern part of the State of Puebla. Encounters are reported daily, but in all of them the government has been victorious, with slight losses. Numerous haciendas and small towns have been sacked and the crops destroyed.

In Committee. Remarks by Prominent Politicians. New Financial Resolution.

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The new financial resolution of the Home Rule Bill was discussed in Committee of the House of Commons to-day. Austin Chamberlain remarked that if Ireland demanded separation she must bear the burden of her own financial responsibilities.

Lloyd-George declared it would pay Britain as well as to have prosperous Ireland as to have prosperous West Indies or South Africa.
