FIRST PRINTERS DEVIL

In the early days of printing this art was much of a mystery and ignorent people thought the printer evoked the aid of the power of evil. Aldus Manutius, the famous Italian printer of the sixteenth century, went to Africa on an exploring expedition and brought back with him a very black negro boy. Negroes were a rarity then. The report immediately gained circulation that the printer had been employing the Black Art in his work and that the pickaninny was in reality an imp of Satan. He was called the "Little Black Devil." The charge became so serious that the printer was forced to exhibit the negro in public. In his announcement he said:

"Be it known to Venice that I, Aldus Manutius, printer to the Holy Church and to the Doge, have this day made public exposure of the Printer's Devil. All those who think he is not flesh and blood may come and pinch him."

And that is how the term "printer's devil" had its origin.—New York "Sun."

FRESH MACKEREL SELL AT 15 CENTS

BOSTON, April 4.—The first mackerel to reach the new South Boston fish pier was landed yesterday morning. To be sure they were only tinkers, but nevertheless mackerel and nice ones for the kind, too.

They were landed by the steam trawler Crest, five in all being counted out with the trip. They were taken on Georges last Wednesday and sold to C. Hunt and Company at 15 cents each, it is understood.

EX-PRESIDENT OF FRANCE WINS CASE

PARIS, April 4—Ex-President Fallieres, who is one of the most placid of men, brought an action for damages today against the landlosrd or his Paris resident on the ground that the chimneys smoked so much that he was driven out of the house. The concierge testified that this was not the case, but the court took the word of the President and gave a verdict in his favor.

VITALITY REGAINED KIDNEYS CURED

Health Restored By "Fruit-a-tives"

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913.

"About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys and liver were not doing their work, and I became all run-down. I felt the need of some good remedy, and having seen "Fruit-a-tives" advertised, I decided to try them.

Their effect, I found more than satisfactory. Their action was mild and the results all that could have been expected.

My liver and kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes, and I regained my old time vitality. Today, I am as well as ever, the best health I have ever enjoyed, and I unhesitatingly give you this testimonial for publication if you wish"

B. A. KELLY.

In hundreds of letters received by the Fruit-a-tives Company, the same expression is used "Fruit-a-tives is the best kidney remedy in the world". At any rate, these tablets have proved the best to the hundreds of men and women who have been cured by taking them. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

STILL ANOTHER WHITE HOUSE WEDDING.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, cousin of the president and companion of his two daughters, is said to be engaged to Dr. Cary Grayson, U. S. N., the president's private physician.

There has never been a triple wedding in the white house or even a double wedding. But the genial gossips of the social whirl have already begun to chatter about Dan Cupid's robable power of breaking the record this year with a double or a triple ceremony.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS FROM CIVILIZATION.

EDMONTON, Alta., April 4.—"It seems good to be in civilization once more after twenty-two years of voluntary exile among Indians of the North." The speaker was the Rev. Pere Edouard Gouy, Father Superior of St. Isidore Mission at Fort Smith who arrived in Edmonton by rail from Athabasca yesterday, after having been away from the city for nearly a quarter of a century.

"I saw to-day at Athabasca an automobile for the first time," said Father Gouy. Such things were not dreamed of when, as a young man of 25, I left for the north to work among Cree Indians. Edmonton was then but a village. Of course, I have kept track of its growth through the newspapers, although we received papers only during the summer by canoes and occasional steamboat, winter mail carriers by dog teams confining themselves to letters."

VANCOUVER IS STIRRED OVER THE YOUNG MURDER.

VANCOUVER, April 6.—The murder of Mrs. Chas. Millard Young, wife of the C. P. R. Ticket Agent, with a Chinese youth under arrest as a suspect, has raised a new burning Oriental question. The police have kept all quiet in Chinatown but the city is stirred. Scores of Chinese servants in private homes, have been dismissed and customers warn hotels that they must get rid of their Chinese or lose business.
