Cardigan Head And Vicinity

Mr. John Mustard, M.L.A., Cardigan Head, returned to the city on Friday.

On Monday the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Munroe McGrath, Lorne Valley, and took to its eternal rest their infant and beloved son. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing parents by the people of this community.

Mrs. Allan McSwain, Lorne Valley, was a visitor to Montague during the past week.

Mr. Allison McLean, Montague, was a business visitor to Baldwin's Road on Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening the members of the Baldwin's Road Study Group held their regular weekly meeting at the home of Mr. Peter McKenna with the usual attendance. A very sociable evening was spent. The meeting was carried out in the usual way. At the close lunch was served by the hostess Mrs. Peter McKenna.

Miss Ella Docherty returned to her home in Lorne Valley, having spent the past six months in Montague.

Many friends were sorry to learn of the sudden passing of Mr. John Haley at his home in Rumford, Maine, on Apr. 15th. Mr. Haley was a former resident of St. Teresa's Parish and it was there the greater part of his life was spent. Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved members of the family.

Mr. Harry Trainor, Baldwin's Road, was a visitor to the city on Thursday.

During the past week the snow has been fast disappearing, leaving the roads and fields almost bare with small patches of white scattered here and there. The rushing water in fields and roadside with the song of the returning birds, tells us that spring has arrived. A number of the rather ambitious sportsmen have been trying their luck at trout fishing and report some very fine catches.

Mr. Martin Corcoran, Baldwin's Road, left Thursday morning en route to Montreal where he intends to remain for the next few months.

On Wednesday evening, April 12 an old time fiddling and dancing contest was held in Cardigan Hall. Mr. Peter Murphy acted as chairman for the evening while Reverend M. J. Rooney was master of ceremonies and opened the contest with a few words of explanation to the audience concerning the rules of the contest. Mr. Colin McEachern, Mr. Harold Brothers, Mr. William McEachern and Mr. William McLean capably did the judging which was rather difficult as all the contestants did their best to give the audience a real good evening's entertainment. At the close of the contest the judges lost no time in picking the winners. Gents' first prize in the fiddling went to Mr. Daniel Baldwin, Baldwin's Road; second, Mr. Reggie McDonald, Cardigan; third, Mr. Freddie McMaster, Seven Mile Road. Ladies' special prize was given to Miss C. Arsenaux, Cardigan; gents' first for step dancing went to Mr. James McDonald, Peakes Road; second, Mr. Daniel McEachern, St. Peter's Road; third, Mr. Allan McDonald, Peakes Road. Ladies' first prize was won by Miss Phyllis Saunders, Cardigan Head; second, Miss Gladys Saunders, Cardigan Head; third, Miss C. Arsenaux, Cardigan Head. A very interesting feature of the evening was a step dance by Mr. Wm. McLean, De Gros Marsh. After the contest, lunches were sold and hot coffee served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly whiled away when all joined in the dance. Music was furnished by Miss Theresa Donahue, Mr. Reg McDonald, Mr. Fred McMaster.

Miss Blanche Mark spent the past week visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Owen Kelly, Pisiquid.

Mr. Russell McAulay, Cardigan Head, was a recent visitor to Montague.

Cardigan And Vicinity

Mr. Russell McAulay, Cardigan Head, spent a few days of the past week visiting in the City.

Mr. John Mustard, M. L. A., Cardigan, who has been in the City for the past month attending the sessions at the Legislature returned to his home on Friday after the closing of the House.

Mrs. Margaret McDonald, former resident of Cardigan, and who has been residing in New York for the past number of years, is now visiting at Cardigan. She is a guest at the Dundarane Lodge.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Mr. Daniel Baldwin was a visitor to Cardigan on Saturday.

Mr. Angus McLeod, student at Prince of Wales College, spent the weekend at his home in Lorne Valley.

Miss Anna Curran, 48 Road, left Friday morning on an extended trip to Montreal.

Mr. Stephen Malone, Charlottetown, spent the weekend visiting friends at 48 Road.

Mr. Jack Webster, Cardigan Head, is receiving congratulations on being the winner in the King's County Old Time Fiddling contest held in Charlottetown on April 14th, sponsored by Kelly and McInnis.

Mr. Thomas Sheppard, Cardigan Head, who has been doing a small amount of fighting for the past year entered the ring on Friday night at the Forum Charlottetown to face his opponent, Sluggo Williams, Charlottetown. The fight lasted only thirty seconds when Williams was knocked out. This Cardigan boy is climbing fast and is heading for bigger and better fights before too long.

APRIL BIRTHSTONE
Those born in April are particularly fortunate in having the diamond as their birthstone. They will be happy in love. Not only is April the month of love—April is
