35,000 WATCH WASHINGTON WIN

Series Terminated by Most Spectacular Contest in Baseball History.

(Canadian Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—The miracle of baseball, the dream of forty years, came true this afternoon, when Washington won the baseball championship of the world from the New York Giants in the most thrilling, dramatic climax that any diamond series has ever seen.

Out of the depths of two crushing defeats Walter Johnson one of the greatest pitchers that the game has ever known and idolized came back to the heights and reached his goal, the end of the eighteen year trail, by leading the Senators to victory by a score of 4 to 3 in twelve innings of spectacular, pulse gripping baseball.

When Earl McNeely, young outfielder from the Pacific Coast drove in "Muddy" Ruel with the winning run after the mighty bat of "Bucky" Harris had kept the

WOMAN LEAPS FROM WINDOW TO INSTANT DEATH

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—An unidentified woman leaped from the tenth floor of Aetolian Hall, West 42nd street, to the roof of the six-story Central building and was instantly killed. In her purse the police found $6.40, a card bearing the name "Mrs. Oscar, No. 68 Nelson Place," and a return ticket from New York to Newark.

Erich Wakaryk, a window cleaner, was at work on the outside of a window next to the corridor of the building when he saw a woman's foot come through the window. He shouted "Stay back."

"Don't you dare touch me," the woman cried.

Wakaryk climbed in the window and rushed to the corridor in an effort to save the woman. She was disappearing through the window just as he reached it, and he made an unsuccessful grab for her skirt.

THE MAN WHO BRING ON THE MIDDLE

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Sir Patrick Hastings, attorney general, whose handling of the prosecution against John Ross Campbell, editor of the Workers Weekly, charged with sedition, is largely responsible for the present middle in which the Labour government finds itself, is one of those eminent lawyers, who means few, who completely fail to shine in parliament.

Frankly, Sir Patrick has been an unpopular law officer as any in recent years although today when he rose in the House of Commons, he was not concerned with the present crisis, he was given a cordial reception by his own side.

Sir Patrick Hastings after leaving the Charter House School, where he was educated led a somewhat mysterious life. When the South African war was on he enlisted in the "Devil's Own" regiment. Later he eked out a hazardous existence on Fleet Street, and it is even rumored that for some time he was on the stage. He himself has confessed that he has known streets with hardly any boots on his feet and that he has lived for two days on one meal. Even since being called to the bar, 20 years ago, he has never looked back and has been unusually successful.

BRITAIN ENTERS ON SHORTEST POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

In Her History—Laborites Busy Preparing Manifesto The Keynote of Which is its Foreign Policy.

(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, Oct. 10.—Facing the shortest general election campaign on record and the shortest possible under the law, party headquarters today were scenes of whirlwind activity, none of them having closed their doors through the night. Prime Minister MacDonald and his Labor cabinet, whose defeat in the Commons over a minor domestic affair may bring to a close England's first Labor regime after only nine months in office, continued driving the party manifesto for the election of October 29. MacDonald announced he would start from Glasgow, Monday on a four day automobile trip in which he would tour the industrial districts making brief addresses at all of the cities and villages en route.

The keynote of the Labor plan is expected to be its foreign policy. The accomplishment of peace and the rehabilitation of Europe will be cited with particular stress laid on the resumption of friendly relations with France and the Geneva disarmament protocol. The benefits of the Anglo Russian treaty as regards domestic business also will be emphasized.

(Canadian Press)

Oliver Baldwin son of Stanley Baldwin former Premier, is the Labor candidate in the Borough of Dudley, J. H. Clynnes son of J. R. Clynnes, Lord of the Privy Seal is again contesting the Hemelshire seat division of Hertfordshire in Labor interests. He was defeated there in 1923 in a three cornered fight.

Both sons of Arthur Henderson, Home Secretary, hope to repeat their success in the last election. Arthur, junior in South Cardiff and Thornton in Tradeston division of Glasgow. Home Secretary Arthur Henderson is again a candidate in Burnley where he was victorious in a bye-election after having been defeated in another constituency in the general election.

Signs of Winter

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A long and cold winter threatens New York and environs. This is not an official forecast of the Weather Bureau, but the prediction of self-appointed prophets who gathered in Bayport, L. I., recently to see the squirrels start to gather their winter stores of nuts.

The squirrels had long and silky fur, nature's protection in advance of a cold spell. The additional fact that they are starting in at this early date to lay in winter provisions was taken to mean that winter is close at hand. The fact that the weather was extremely mild, even too warm for baseball, did not alter the conviction of the chill prophets.

EXTENDED NEGOTIATIONS ARE INDICATED

PARIS, Oct. 10.—Commercial negotiations between France and Germany, which last week failed to get beyond the speech-making phase, began in earnest yesterday with the chance that they will continue indefinitely.

The Germans have made it clear in private conversations that they will resist the French demand that free entry of Alsatian products into Germany, under the Treaty of Versailles, be extended. They plead, in answer to this demand, that it would too greatly complicate Germany's commercial relations with other countries. Great Britain had demanded the same treatment and the other Allies would follow suit. So they declare, it will be impossible to set such a precedent.

On the other hand, the Germans will resist the demand that they be given the benefit of the most favored nation treatment. These indications of the German attitude are causing considerable anxiety in French circles.

Ambassador von Hoesch, when informed of the anxiety created by the attitude of the German representatives, called on Premier Herriot Saturday to say that opening speeches, and first impressions should not be taken as indicating the trend of the negotiations. French business circles, however, take this as merely a desire to prevent the alarm spreading to a point where commercial interests would be aroused to action.

France Keeps Eye On British Events

(Special to the Guardian)
PARIS, Oct. 10.—Realizing that the overthrow of Premier MacDonald in pending British elections may profoundly affect the course of peace in Europe, the French Government is watching every development with interest.

It is pointed out that in the event the Conservatives or Liberals come to power, it is unlikely that England will sign the League of Nations protocol, recently fashioned at Geneva, thereby ruining the opportunity to settle the security and disarmament question by the League.

A conservative victory, it is believed here, might also affect the execution of the Dawes plan.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT

A lamentable shooting accident occurred at Ellerslie about 9 o'clock on Thursday night from the result of which Stanford Gillis, aged 20 years lies in the P. C. Hospital to-day in a very critical condition.

One of the weapons was suddenly discharged and the load of a 32 calibre bullet entered the unfortunate man's abdomen inflicting a terrible wound and piercing his intestines in many places.

Dr. Stewart of Tyne Valley was summoned as quickly as possible and after doing what he could to relieve the sufferer decided to bring him to the P. C. Hospital where he arrived at 10 o'clock Friday morning. An operation was immediately performed and it was necessary to remove four and a half inches of the bowels and to make stitches in quite a number of places.

EGYPT ASKS THAT BRITAIN GIVE UP CONTROL OF SUEZ

Premier MacDonald Writes Letter Regarding the Differences Existing Between The Two Governments.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A letter written by Premier MacDonald declaring that the attitude adopted by Said Zoglu Pasha, the Egyptian Premier, has rendered impossible for the present an agreement between the British and Egyptian governments on the questions left for eventual settlement when the British protectorate was withdrawn in 1922, has been issued by the Foreign Office in the form of a White Paper.

The letter is addressed to the British High Commissioner for Egypt and the Sudan. It says that pending some future agreement between the two countries, the duty of protecting order in the Sudan rests in fact upon His Majesty's Government "and," the Premier adds, "they will take every step necessary for this purpose."

In the course of the conversation between the British Prime Minister and Zoglu Pasha, the latter made five demands for modifications in the Egyptian territory; withdrawal of the financial and judicial advisers; disappearance of all British control over the Egyptian Government, notably in connection with foreign relations; abandonment by the British Government of their claim to protect foreigners and minorities in Egypt, and abandonment by the British of their claim to share in any way in protecting the Suez Canal.

"I raised the question of the canal straightaway," writes the Premier,

Halifax Police Force Charges

(Special to the Guardian)
HALIFAX, Oct. 10.—The Halifax police force, which has been in more or less of a turmoil since an appointment of former Chief Hanrahan's was vetoed by the city council and was followed shortly after by the chief's superannuation, was further disturbed this evening when the council, with only four members and Mayor Murphy objecting, decided to relegate the two detectives, Reyno and Atkinson, to clerical posts and appointed Inspector Melsaac and Special Officer Fox in their places. The move was made on the recommendation of Chief Palmer who accused the two detectives of constant disobedience of orders. Mayor Murphy desired to retain them and to bring in an experienced detective from some large metropolitan center to work with and train them.
