ONE of the most interesting meetings of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon. A good program was prepared. Soles were sweetly rendered by Miss Collings and Miss Down. One of the members gave a reading and a social hour was spent. The President, Mrs. Davison, then entertained the members to a five o'clock tea. A unanimous vote was taken that the Provincial Convention be asked to meet in Charlottetown in October. The W. C. T. U. will re-open in September when a plan of work for the year will be arranged.

Rev. Angus McDonald will leave Bar Harbor this week for Jacksonville, where he is called by the controversy over the will of Mrs. Dodge by which the Bar Harbor clergyman receives in the neighborhood of $100,000 and which some of the relatives wish to set aside, claiming that Mrs. Dodge was not in fit mental condition to make a proper will at the time of her death. The opponents to the probating of the will made a petition to the probate court and it is to attend this hearing that Mr. McDonald is called to Jacksonville. The hearing is set for June 27. Rev. Mr. McDonald is a native of Prince Edward Island.

A LARGE meeting of the Executive of the Tourist Association was held last night in the City Council Chamber, Supt. Sharp and General Manager Tiffin of the I. C. R. were present and the latter gave good advice as to advertising etc. and pointed out the large amount of free advertising being given by the I. C. R. to the Island. Many matters in regard to the beautifying the city, removing eyesores, etc. were discussed at length. The Mayor intimated that a new lodging house would be opened at Victoria Park and one of the old ones renovated. Towels will be kept on hand by the keeper of the park who will also look after the houses. The meeting was enthusiastic throughout.

THE concert given last Thursday night in St. Joseph's Convent was repeated yesterday afternoon to an audience principally of children that completely crowded the hall. The programme included an opening chorus and flag drill by the boys of the Convent, drama by the pupils assisted by outside talent, boating song by the little girls of the Convent, recitation by Miss Maggie Morgan, song, The Irish Pair by two tots, duets, songs, etc. The drama was excellently presented. The children were assisted by Miss Bertha Wynne, Miss Florence Hearn, Miss Mary Lee, Miss May Duggan, Miss Maggie White, and Miss Gertie Griffin. The concert throughout reflects great credit on all the performers and also on the Sisters who took great pains in preparing the children for their different parts on the programme.
