"WHERE OLD

FRIENDS MEET"

Tignish Activities

Mr. J. F. Gallant and children, Leonard and Isabel of Tignish North, spent Friday of last week in Charlottetown.

Mr. John McCarthy, Moncton, N. B., is visiting in Tignish the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McRae.

Mr. Michael McCue, Pakner Road, is a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton, and his many Tignish friends hope for his recovery.

Mr. Alair Peters, a student at St. Joseph's School, Charlotville, N. B., is spending the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peters, Tignish Shore.

Mrs. J. B. Cameron, Public Health Nurse, has returned from the Western Hospital, Alberton, and is convalescing at her home in Tignish.

Mr. Claude Shea, a student in St. Augustine's Seminary, Ont., has come home to spend the summer months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Shea, Tignish Village.

Mrs. James Porter has returned to Moncton, N. B., where she is employed by Eatons of Canada, after spending two weeks vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Gaudet, Tignish North.

Miss Ada Cahill, Toronto, Ont., who came to Kildare to spend a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cahill, is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Gerald Handrahan and Mr. Handrahan, Christophers Cross.

Miss Thelma LeClair who spent the past year in Bucouche, N. B., as the guest of her uncle, Mr. Edward LeClair and attended a girls school, has come home to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John LeClair, Tignish Shore.

Mrs. Octave Gaudet, Phillips Street, Tignish, entertained with three tables of cards at her home on last Thursday evening. Prize winners were: 1st, Mrs. Joseph J. Arsenault; 2nd prize, Mrs. Hugh MacKinnon. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Frances DesRoches, R.N.

The death of Mrs. Eugene Riard occurred on June 15th at the home of her son, Mr. Joseph Richard, Tignish Village. Another son Mr. Aubin Richard also resides in Tignish. Mrs. Riard was a lady dearly beloved by a great host of friends and relatives, and she will be greatly mourned in this community. To the survivors we offer our most sincere sympathy.

The three act comedy "You Can't Beat the Irish" was presented at St. Mary's Parish Hall, Tignish, on the evenings of June 14th and 15th by the Tignish dramatic players. On both evenings the spacious hall was packed to capacity by a very interested audience who enjoyed every part of the play and were loud in their praise of the splendid performance but there were a number of the several of the players are well known in this neighborhood for past performances and as always before put on a splendid act, put on by this group of players, players who appeared on the stage for the first time and the parts they took was as well done as if they had been well used to foot-lights and applause all their lives. Taking parts in this play were Miss Eileen Handrahan, Mrs. Joseph Walsh, Mr. Jerald Gavin, Miss Claire MacDonald, Mr. Patrick Buote, Mr. Paul Kinch, Mr. Arthur Arsenault, Miss Laura Shea, Miss Thelma Gaudet and Mrs. Joseph Walsh. Between acts music was furnished by the "Tignish Old Timers," and Mr. Anthony Perry entertained with step-dancing between the second and third acts. A sale of home made candy added to the proceeds which were for a very worthy cause.

Reaching the grand old age of ninety-three years is Mrs. James Kinch of Tignish, who celebrated her birthday on June 4th by receiving her many friends of all ages who came to call on her and wish her a "Happy Birthday." Mrs. Kinch also enjoyed a dinner party attended by members of her family who showered her with gifts, good wishes and a beautiful birthday cake. Although Mrs. Kinch has attained this wonderful age of ninety-three, she is very alert and enjoys having company, is a wonderful conversationalist, and is most interested in all community undertakings as well as world affairs. She has a very congenial disposition and can enjoy the company of her grandchildren and their friends as well as older people. She is called Grandma Kinch by all her friends and is a most beloved lady. Mrs. Kinch lives with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kinch, she has two other sons, Mr. Guy Kinch of St. John, N. B., and Mr. Romeo Kinch of Mattapan, Mass., with Mrs. G. T. Morrison of Tignish and Mrs. John J. McNally of Tignish Corner, are her daughters. Mrs. Kinch's friends all hope she may continue enjoying good health and spend a good many more birthdays with her dear ones.

—KENSINGTON MUSIC CLUB —The monthly meeting of the Kensington Music Club was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Cousins on Monday night with a large attendance of members and visitors.

The president, Mrs. P. J. Kennedy was in the chair and the meeting opened by singing "O Canada" with Mrs. Joseph Sheen at the piano. The treasurer's report showed receipts were fifteen dollars short of paying expenditures. The members decided to make up this amount by contributions. The resignation of Miss Frances Wells as music teacher in the district was accepted with much regret. During the evening the president called on Mrs. J. Pendergast to read an address to Miss Wells, while Mrs. Cousins presented a beautiful silver rose bowl. Miss Wells thanked the members most graciously for their gift and kind words and this feature of the program concluded with the hearty chorus "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." A sing-song followed with Miss Wells at the piano. A pleasing variation to the program was supplied by Mrs. Joseph Sheen and Mrs. Robert Humphrey, who conducted an appropriate wedding contest. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by several ladies. Miss Wells is leaving Kensington to become one of the season's brides and good wishes were showered on her with the members' farewells. "God Save the King" brought the meeting to a close.

—The fourteenth annual meeting and re-union of Miscouche Convent Alumnae was held on Sunday, 13th inst., with a fair attendance of members present. The meeting opened with prayer outside at the Grotto, and the singing of Ave Maria Stella in unison. Then followed the business session presided over by the Sister directress, S. S. Mary Sixtus, with the president, Miss Eileen Leaky in the chair.

After the roll call of the executive by the president, two scrutineers, Miss Margaret Arsenault and Mrs. Reginald Laughlin were appointed to collect the ballots for the election of officers, which followed and which resulted as follows: President—Miss Eleanor DesRoches. 1st vice-pres.—Mrs. Arthur Gaudet. 2nd vice-pres.—Mrs. A. Gaudet, St. Nicholas. 3rd vice-pres.—Mrs. Eddie G. DesRoches. Secretary—Mrs. Emmanuel Poirier. Treasurer—Mrs. Reginald Laughlin. Councillors—Mrs. F. A. DesRoches, Mrs. D. B. MacNeill, Miss Regina Gillis, Mrs. Joseph DesRoches, Mrs. A. Kincaid, Mrs. Malcolm Steele.

A vote of thanks was presented to the retiring president. It was moved and seconded that $5.00 be donated annually towards the upkeep of the Grotto. It was also moved and seconded that the Alumnae help defray the expense of gowns for the graduates.

The introduction of the 1948 graduates and their introduction into the Society by the Sister Directress followed.

The president in her address outlined the activities of the Institution during the past year, and made reference to the changes in the personnel of the Convent staff.

The secretary's report was read by Miss Regina Gillis, and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Emmanuel Poirier.

The installation of officers for the next year was made by the outgoing president.

There were intermissions of school songs and hymns, accompanied by Miss Philomena Gaudet.

The guest speaker for the occasion was Rev. Dr. Monaghan, who briefly outlined the history of Alumnae starting as a few members desirous of honoring and helping their Alma Mater, from which they had received a good moral and religious training as well as secular learning. They organized into a body which later formed into a larger unit known as the Federation of Convent Alumnae, which is now international in its scope.

The influence an Alumnae can exercise in the home and community is far-reaching, he said, and properly used makes for holier, happier homes and society in general. A unanimous vote of thanks moved by Mrs. D. B. MacNeill was presented to Father Monaghan by Mrs. J. DesRoches.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the church followed, and then a social hour on the Convent lawn accompanied by a delicious lunch of ice-cream and cake.

—Numerous friends regret the illness of Mr. Fred Leavitt, who is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. Heber Hardy and daughter, Miss Margaret Hardy are enjoying a motor trip through Nova Scotia.

—Mrs. Mae O'Rourke, New Bedford, Mass., is visiting in Alberton, the guests of her sister, Miss Maude O'Connor.

—Mrs. and Mrs. Harrison McFarlane, Fernwood, were recent guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Eric Corbett and Mrs. Corbett.

—Mrs. Austin Murphy and daughter, Mrs. A. Konopka were visitors to Port Hill on Thursday, where they visited Mrs. Murphy's brother, Mr. Tom Skerry and Mrs. Skerry.

—Mrs. James Murphy, who spent the past winter with relatives in Boston, Mass., arrived home last week, and is receiving a cordial welcome from her numerous friends. —A.

MANY SUNS OMENS OF DISASTER DATE LINE

There are countless millions of far-distant, superheated, self-luminous gaseous bodies called stars and each one is a sun.

In ancient times comets were supposed to be omens of sudden death, war, revolution or other dire events in human affairs.

The International Date Line coincides, as nearly as practicable, with the 180th meridian which lies almost entirely on the Pacific.
