CELEBRATES 100TH BIRTHDAY—Amherst News—Full of years and honors Mrs. Elizabeth Betts of Wallace is celebrating her 100th birthday at her home today. Until recent months Mrs. Betts enjoyed excellent health and displayed keen interest in what was going on in the community, but the infirmities of age are now telling upon her and she is being tenderly cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Harvey with whom she resides. Mrs. Betts before her marriage was a Miss Leard of Prince Edward Island and came to Wallace as a bride. Her husband predeceased her a number of years ago. She has three daughters living, Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Henry Charman in Wallace, and Mrs. John MacCormack of Oxford. There are also twelve grandchildren and twenty-one great grandchildren. One of the gifts presented her was a birthday cake by Moirs Limited Halifax.

POSTAL NOTICE—Since the double Mail Service to and from the Mainland has been reduced to a single trip each way, the Post Office officials here have the mail from the Ocean Limited, train 4, forwarded via Pictou and it is received at Charlottetown per the S. S. Hochelega about 1 P. M. daily. The mail so received includes the portion for Charlottetown city and also for offices East and South in order to connect with the afternoon trains. In addition to the above service, the Charlottetown Post Office will despatch a mail every Saturday afternoon so long as the Hochelega is on the route, which will be up to the 30th of November. The mail despatched by the steamer on Saturday afternoon will include mail for all points outside the Province, and connection will be made at Truro with the Ocean Limited going West, on each Sunday forenoon. This service will be of much advantage to the business interests of this city, and it will forward all mails arriving here by the forenoon trains on Saturdays. The mail will be closed at the Charlottetown office at 2.30 P. M.

NEWS FROM BOSTON—At the meeting of Dorchester Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 158, (Institute 1871), held in Boston, Mass., Sept 28 Angus A. Martin of Boston was elected unanimously Noble Grand for the coming year. Among those present were the following Islanders: Maynard Aiken, Wendell H. Gordon, W. Dingwell. Mr. Martin is a well-known architect and contractor of Boston and is a former Islander who has made good in the domain of Uncle Sam.—Dr. Charles J. E. Kiekham, the very popular President of the Intercolonial Club of Boston, was married on Thursday in Boston to Miss McIntyre. The very best wishes for a happy married life is extended them by their legion of friends in Boston and Souris, P. E. Island. After a honeymoon trip, the young couple will reside in Boston.—The Annual Stag Banquet of the Intercolonial Club will be held on Wednesday evening in the Club House, Boston, with a prominent attorney, Daniel J. Gallagher as principal speaker. His Excellency Governor Joseph Ely will be present together with many other prominent officials of the State and City. The Chairman of the Banquet Committee, John N. Chaisson, President, J. E. Kiekham, Vice-President, Wendell H. Gordon, Treasurer, John Kiley, Secretary, Kenneth Moore, and the members of the Committee are working hard to insure a banner banquet for the members.—Loo.

OTTAWA, ONT. Oct. 3.—Henri Deglane, Montreal boxing champion world champion, retrained.

"Have you read the Village Black-? His title here tonight, defeating Smith?"

Frank Altman of Pittsburgh in two straight falls. The titlist took the first fall in 20 minutes, 10 seconds with a body slam and 10 minutes later knocked Altman groggy, with a reverse body slam which gave him the bout. Deglane weighed 220 and Altman 238.

"No Ma'am, Pat answered. "Have you read the Barefoot Boy?"

"No, ma'am."

The teacher went up and down the list and couldn't find who Pat had read, and finally becoming exasperated asked, "Well, who have you read?"

"I have red hair," answered Pat.

Willesden reveler to police constable witness—What I hate is that the likes of me pay rates and taxes to keep the likes of you.

Many a hot headed lover gets cold feet when he meets the girl's father.

A Kentuckian had 17 children, all boys. When they came of age they voted uniformly the Democratic ticket—all except one boy. The father was asked to explain this evident fall from grace.

"Wal," said he, "I've always tried to bring them boys up right, in the fear of the Lord, and Democrats to the bone; but John, the ornery cuss, got to readin'!"
