FASHIONS FOR CANADIANS

One season's styles just about the details fixed in the minds of womankind when a brand new season looms large on the horizon. The fashion and pattern publications begin to talk about the newest things and the would-be-purchaser again hesitates, especially in this day of high prices, reluctant to give up her money for a garment for immediate wear unless its purchase is absolutely necessary, when the prospect of something newer and perhaps entirely different is imminent.

This condition of affairs prevails at the present time. The buying of fall and winter garments has only fairly started, because of economy, talk of lower prices to come and continual warm weather, but style designers are already busy with spring lines, many of which have put in their appearance under the guise of apparel for the southern resorts. So far, except for a somewhat pronounced leaning to the rather tight bodiced and full skirted frocks designed for the youthful and slender, no great style changes can be observed. As a matter of fact, the silhouette described has been with us to a limited extent for several years.

One of the leading American designers, who keeps right up to the minute with fashion information, confessed recently that the spring styles are really not at all startling, that no silhouette innovations have put in their appearance, and that the designers who discover or invent the greatest number of new minor style notes will be the most successful. The gist of his fashion resume was simply that whatever is new, and beautiful will be the style, and the designer, whether professional or otherwise, who has the most highly developed

DICKY DIPPY'S DIARY

FRIDAY:—BLONDY TOLD ME A JOKE WHICH HE HAD HEARD SOME TIME AGO. I COULDN'T SEE IT. IT MAY HAVE BEEN FUNNY AS HE LAUGHED A LOT OVER IT.

LATER, AS I WAS LEAVING HIS ROOM, I FELL DOWN STAIRS.

THE LANDLADY CAME RUNNING OUT, CRYING: "OH WHAT IS THE MATTER? WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO MR. DIPPY?"

AND BLONDY SAID: "NOTHING MRS. RENTZ, ONLY I TOLD HIM A JOKE AN HOUR AGO."

AND HE DIDN'T TUMBLE TILL NOW."
