DURHAM-DUPLEX

Shaves Without "Rasp" or "Pull"

Each Durham-Duplex blade is individually hardened, oil-tempered, hollow ground and honed to a fine cutting edge, which is possible only with the finest Swedish steel. Then it receives 500 strokes on the stropping machine, because, before it is packed, each blade must be sharp enough to cut a hair six times in the hands of a tester. The result of such infinite care shows itself in the unusual number of cool, clean shaves you get from each Durham-Duplex blade—without the least "rasp" or "pull."

Standard set, consisting of razor, safety guard and three double-edged blades in a handsome ivory case, $1 complete. Other sets $2 up. On sale at all drug, hardware, jewelry, sporting goods and department stores. Get one today.

—SPENT SUMMER HERE— Mrs. Prescott Forbes and little daughter, George, who have been spending the summer with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacLean, Lot 16, crossed by the ferry last week on return to their home in Nacmine, Alta. They were accompanied by Mrs. Forbes' sister, Miss Blanche MacLean, who will spend the winter with her.

MEMORIAL UNVEILED— In the Presbyterian Church at Highfield yesterday afternoon the unveiling of the memorial to the late Rev. D. MacLean took place in the presence of a large congregation. Impressive addresses were delivered by several speakers, eulogistic of the life and work of the late pastor. At the afternoon service solos were sung by Mr. J. D. McAlpine, of London, Ont., and Mr. Charles Earle of Charlottetown, while at the evening service Mr. Arthur Bruce and Miss Dorothy Sutherland of this city, sang solos.

S. S. MANOA—The S. S. Manoa arrived last evening on return from St. John's, Nfld. and after discharging and taking on cargo left for Montreal. Mr. A. A. Pomeroy met his friends Messrs. Elliott and Ketchum and resumed with them the interrupted by the shortness of their stay when the steamer called here on her way to St. John's. In this case also the time was too short for Mr. Pomeroy's generous programme but the party were so pleased with what they saw of Charlottetown that they decided to bring their families next summer.

IN ZION CHURCH— Rev. George E. Ross of Montreal, who has occupied the pulpit of Zion Church during the past month in the absence of the pastor, Rev. G. C. Taylor, leaves this morning on return to Montreal. Rev. Mr. Ross, who was a former pastor of this church is an impressively eloquent preacher and his short stay among his former parishioners was mutually most pleasant. His concluding sermon last evening was a splendid effort. A pleasing feature of the service was a solo by Mrs. Lord, of Pithburg, Mass., formerly Miss Maud Bremner of this city who is spending a holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bremner.

—WELL KNOWN CITIZEN— The death took place Friday morning of Mr. James A. Sharp, at his residence, Summerside, at the age of 85 years. Mr. Sharp was one of the few remaining pioneers of Summerside and one of the towns most foremost and highly respected business men. The late Mr. Sharp was born in St. Eleanor's, and started in business in Summerside when quite a young man. He was the founder of the once great oyster shipping industry which began about 1860 upon the completion of the railway from Point du Diable. Mrs. Sharp predeceased him about five years ago. Mr. H. S., at home, Lester, of Sudbury, Ont., Mrs. W. H. Mackie, of Summerside, and Miss Jessie at home. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. to the Peoples Cemetery, and was largely attended.

WEDDING BELLS— Ada M. Ford, daughter of the late Charles Ford of Bothwell and Mrs. D. Kennedy, Fort Frances, Ont., formerly of Kingsboro, P. E. I., were quietly married at the Baptist Manse, Kingsboro, on the evening of August 20. Rev. W. A. MacWalker officiating and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid MacLean acting as witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy left on Monday afternoon for Fort Frances, where Mr. Kennedy is engaged in business. The many words that are said in praise of the only regret of her many friends, who join in her happiness, is that her marriage calls her away from her native province. Mr. Kennedy is a general favorite and many are the good wishes that follow him to his adopted Ontario.

A PLEASANT GATHERING.—A most pleasant and very enjoyable reception was given on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Angus J. McPhee, Big Pond, in honor of Professor John A. McDonald and Mrs. McDonald, of Saskatoon, prior to their leaving for their Western home. Prof. and Mrs. McDonald had just returned from a prolonged visit to Europe, and during the past few weeks, excellent violin music was given by Mr. McPhee, one of the old time musicians and also by Prof. McDonald who is an expert violinist. A dainty supper was served by Mrs. McPhee, assisted by her daughters visiting from Boston.

On August 21th, 1921, Mrs. Patricia Tobin nee Frances E. Corcoran, passed peacefully away at the Boston City Hospital, despite the fact that everything medical science could do was done to restore her to health. Her husband, Patrick T. Tobin, and her sister, Miss Mary Corcoran were at her bedside when she breathed her last. Besides a sorrowful and loving husband, she is mourned by three young children, her father, (Mr. Michael Corcoran of Baldwin Road), two sisters and six brothers. The funeral service took place on Friday morning from our Lady of Lourdes Church, and her remains were followed by a large number of mourners and friends to St. Joseph's Cemetery where she was laid to rest. May she rest in peace.

THURSDAY

—BAD ACCIDENT— While driving to church with others last Sunday, Miss Ella Green was thrown out of the carriage, the wheel passing over her body, and will be confined to bed for a few days.

BLUEBERRIES PLENTY.—The blueberry factory of Mr. Stewart operated by Mr. Johnston of Boston is now in full swing. It is expected that about 50 tons will be handled this year. The berries are steamed and sweetened, glucose is added and they are packed in kegs before shipment, the preparation being year about for bakers' use. Last year about 100 tons were shipped. This season 50 per pound is paid to packers equivalent to about 7 1/2 cents per quart.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Mr. J. Frank McDonald of Newtow, P. E. I., formerly of Oranville, to Miss Bessie Irene Stewart of Boston, (formerly of Pinette), was celebrated on July 14th, by the Rev. G. C. Taylor, Pastor of Zion Presbyterian Church. The bride, who looked ravishingly nice in a prettily fitting suit, was attended by Miss Mary B. Macae, while Mr. James Nicholson acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the groom in Newtow where a reception and dance took place with upwards of one hundred guests. In attendance numerous gifts of cut glass, silver, linen, cheques, etc., testified to the popularity of the young couple who will make their home in Newtow where Mr. McDonald is one of the district's most popular young men.

The sad death of Mrs. David Cobb of Fortune Bridge, in the 47th year of her age, took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Webster, Brudnell, on Tuesday last, Aug. 24th. She had gone on a visit to her daughter about a month ago. Mrs. Cobb had suffered much in the last eighteen months. She underwent two serious operations in the P. E. I. Hospital, but notwithstanding medical skill and kind nursing, her life was not to be spared.

The Christian patience and fortitude displayed during her illness were made possible only by her trust she put in her Saviour and the strength she obtained from Him. The funeral took place to the Bay Fortune cemetery where services were conducted at the church and grave by her pastor, Rev. E. Lockhart. A husband and several children are left to mourn the loss of a devoted and cherished wife and mother, all of whom with other relatives have the sincere sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.

BORDEN NOTES.—Travel continues to be heavy on the Car Ferry. Autos of all kinds and from all parts still continue to come. The Hotel accommodation at Borden is all too limited. Some of the guests at the Gerard Hotel Monday were Chief Justice and Mrs. Matheson and their family, Charlottetown, Dr. and Mrs. Harrison, MacDonal College, Quebec, Mr. and Mrs. Tidmarsh, all of whom partook of one of the Hotels famous Live Broiled Lobster suppers. John and Mrs. Murray are receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends on the arrival of a young daughter. Mr. H. McCarty, popular manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Borden, has just returned from a three weeks' holiday to his home in Digby, Nova Scotia. Chief John Sutherland of the P. E. I. earned Car Ferry is taking a well-earned vacation in the U. S. Capt. Read has made some wonderful catches of beautiful bass in his spare moments at Tormentine. The Capt. is a wonderful fisherman.

FURTHER POSTPONED.—The assault case before Stipendiary Shaw during the past three days has been further postponed until today. The evidence is all in and only legal technicalities are yet to be argued.

VISITING FORMER HOME.—Mr. M. C. Connelk of Plattsburg, N. Y., who has been visiting the last two weeks at his old home in Spring Valley, also his brother Dan in Charlottetown, crossed by the ferry on Monday morning returning to his home in Plattsburg, N. Y.

MILK TESTING.—The Police officers for the past few days have been collecting samples of milk from the different grocery stores, which will be tested, and if below the test, no doubt will be liable to the same fines as are being meted out to the vendors who supply milk below test to families around the city.

PLEASANT EVENING.—A very enjoyable and social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon, North River, where a jolly party gathered in honor of Mr. MacKinnon's Peabody Mass. and Mrs. MacKinnon's body. Mrs. Frank Drew and children Sheldon and Isabel of Medford, Mass., who are visiting at their home and who intend leaving shortly for U. S. A. The hours were whiled away with games, music and singing, while refreshments were served in a most dainty manner by Mrs. MacKinnon assisted by Mrs. Howard. At a late hour the party wended their way homeward, all feeling that they had had a very pleasant evening.

FRIDAY

ASSAULT CASE.—George Moore who has been on trial before Stipendiary Shaw charged with indecent assault on a little girl was yesterday committed for trial in the Supreme Court. The trial lasted three days. The Attorney General appeared for the crown and Mr. A. A. McKinnon, K. C. for the accused.

ATHENS, Aug. 31.—The official silence was broken today by a communique announcing that after seven days' desperate fighting on strongly fortified heights north of the rivers Ghenk and Katrandji in extent sixty kilometres in length—the Turks have given way and have begun a retreat to the northeast. The Greek troops are in close pursuit.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—The Greek legation in Paris last evening published an official communique dated Eski Shehr, Asia Minor, at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, as follows: "Reports from Turkish sources announcing the two divisions have been severed from the Greek right wing are absolutely false. Our right wing is in complete contact at all points with the enemy, pursuing its advance toward Angora and repulsing the Turks."

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 1.—In view of the agitation for a wider measure of representative Government and improvement in the colonies generally, it is learned here that the British Government has delegated the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State to pay an official visit to the West Indies in December. Preparations are being made to urge upon him that the status of the Government not only be raised but that a loan of at least $50,000 be arranged to carry out improvements in the island.

BELFAST, Sept. 1.—The military was announced a mid-day, will as a result of representations by the Lord Mayor as to the urgent necessity of affording the city's citizens protection in view of the fierce rioting and fighting in progress. Police revolver fighting between Ulster loyalists and Sinn Feiners continued here this morning, causing scenes of the wildest excitement in some of the city's thoroughfares. Another man was killed at eight o'clock making the total dead up to the present nine.

By mid-afternoon, with the fighting still proceeding in some areas, the total death roll since Monday night had reached fourteen. Scores have been wounded, but the exact number is not known. BELFAST, Sept. 1.—Street fighting of the most savage character continued in this city last night following a day of disorder. Many streets in the very centre of the city were left in darkness because the lamp lighters refused to enter the bullet-swept thoroughfares and in the obscurity the opposing snipers were very active. The day's rioting and outlaws culminated at nine o'clock in the appearance of a party of men armed with rifles who occupied St. Anne street, took positions on the ground and opened a hot fire. Pedestrians stampeded from the fusillade. Many who were near enough to see the men doing the shooting declared the rifles were brand new. It was the most serious incident of the fighting since it broke out on Monday. The exchange of shots between the contending parties began early in the morning and gradually spread over the extensive area with increasing intensity. During the afternoon two persons were killed and a dozen wounded. An armored car was sent to the scene to stop the fighting.

Outside of detachments in armed forces, the military forces of the government have not intervened in the rioting, Victoria Barracks, where the troops are housed, was within the zone of yesterday's disorders and the walls of the building were hit frequently by bullets.

ST. JOHN, Sept. 1.—H. V. MacKinnon of the Standard newspaper which has not been issued since July 22, said today that he planned to resume publication on next Tuesday morning.

LANBING, Mich., Sept. 1.—The Ford Motor Company has in the neighborhood of fifty four million dollars in cash in the bank according to a report rendered the department of state here.

HARRISBURG, Ills., Aug. 31.—Bodies of eleven miners were recovered tonight from the Harco mine, following an explosion this afternoon. More than 400 men had been working, but had been warned and escaped when a dynamite charge broke down the wall of an old room, losing black damp. Seven men who escaped the explosion, but are suffering from the effect of black damp, were taken to local hospitals. It is believed they will recover. Volunteer rescue teams were organized by miners but their efforts were futile.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Reuters has been officially informed there is no foundation for the report that the Secretary of State for the Colonies made an important decision affecting the enfranchisement and other questions connected with the policy regarding natives of India who are now inhabitants of Kenya Colony Eastern Africa.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 1.—Ignoring altogether the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees at its convention yesterday the labor party passed a resolution urging the brotherhood to encourage its members to affiliate themselves with a working class political movement and that it endeavor to have candidates nominated and elected who have the backbone and courage enough to vote in the interests of the workers. Another resolution was passed asking the incoming executive board of the brotherhood to protect all the rights and privileges of the brotherhood in the trades and labor congress of Canada from which it was expelled last week.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Prominent conservatives and unionists who have been in contact with Premier Meighen since his arrival here at noon are strongly of the opinion that he will announce an early general election at his meeting here tonight. Mr. Meighen studiously avoided discussion of the point and told newspaper men to keep guesses balanced both ways.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Cold comfort is furnished to those optimistic folks in England and Scotland who are anticipating a better "kick" in their whiskey at a cheaper price. These connoisseurs were expected by some as the result of the removal of government control. The association of distillers is now out with the statement that no such a thing as cheaper or stronger whiskey is possible until the present "savagery" amounting to 8 shillings a gallon, halfpenny a bottle is abated. On the contrary the association is unable to accede to the suggestion to permit the retailers to increase prices, in order to give them—the retailers—a living profit. Such an increase, say the wholesalers, might "drive the people dry."
