Brighten Up

The housekeeper who wants to see her house bright and clean and spotless will find that paints, varnishes and stains will aid her at cleaning time almost as much as soap and water and scrubbing. And in some cases paints and varnishes will accomplish what scrubbing cannot. To get a special finish for every surface ask your dealer for daily story is full of interest today. Tonight the grand picture "Deceived by Gold" is the headliner of the motion pictures, supplemented by "The Installment Collector." The Talking Reel is "The Despatch Bearer" a strong story powerfully told, and full of the rare situation which go to make a drama foretell. It simply brought the house down last night, and as the dramatic sketch "A night in a Mad House" it is the funniest, the most ridiculous and the most mirth provoking any one could imagine. Do not miss it!

This illustrated song is "D- by de Dearie" and on Monday evening next Percy Sayce opens an engagement as illustrated song singer in New Wonderland. He comes from England, and has recently completed an engagement in New Brunswick. Radical changes in programs are being prepared for New Wonderland, and a new order of things instituted, for the summer season. Watch for further particulars.

A GOOD MAN HAS DEPARTED

A cablegram announcing the death of John Mitchell was received on Tuesday, from Paris, in Rendallville, Ind., where he has lived for a great number of years, having, as a local paper states, "been connected with the town from its beginning as a little one street village to its present magnificent proportions," and it continues, "has ever been mindful of the city's best interests."

Mr. Mitchell was one of the most influential men of his time, and would have been seventy-nine years of age in June next.

He was the father of the late Rev. William Mitchell who was at one time stationed in this city, and who married the daughter of Thos. Watling, a well known resident of Charlottetown.

It is unfortunately impossible owing to lack of space to trace the career of this leader of men, but mere words are of trifling value at the most, and, to quote again from the Rendallville Daily Sun "Time and only time will show us how great our loss has been."

The will of the deceased which was filed for probate at Allison last Friday, names Mrs. Mitchell, widow of the deceased as executive.

$1300 is to be distributed among friends, relatives, and for various benevolent purposes. All other personal property is left to the widow. She also receives in fee simple, a large tract of land, a life interest in the Mitchell Block and certain other parcels of real estate, the title of which is to revert to Mr. Mitchell's children or their heirs after Mrs. Mitchell's death.

Mrs. Katherine Campbell and the heirs of her deceased brother and sister each are left real estate approximating $40,000, to $50,000 in value.

BAD FIRE IN B. C.

WESTLEY, B. C., May 6.—Title, a town on the border, was almost wiped out by fire yesterday. The only buildings that escaped are the office and cook house of the Yale Columbia Lumber Co. The mill valued at about $50,000 and lumber also valued at $50,000 were burned.

"House cleaning helps. Ammonia, carpet soaps and washes, Loxal, moth balls, insect powder, Adam's English furniture polish. We strongly recommend this furniture polish. It cleans, polishes and preserves the wood work leaving no coating on the surface. Price 25 and 35 cents. Also all kinds of disinfectants. The Two Macs, Druggists. dtf.
