IN MEMORIAM JAMES NORRIS SINCLAIR

During the morning of March 19th, 1949, there passed peacefully away one of Summerside's best known and most highly respected residents in the person of Mr. J. Norris Sinclair.

He was a man of sterling character and pleasant disposition, a friend of all who knew him, being always ready to help a neighbor in time of trouble and assist in promoting any enterprise for the common good of all.

He was a very faithful member of Summerfield United Church, punctuality at all services and meetings being his motto and always displaying a keen interest in the different activities of the church.

Near relatives to cherish his memory are his sorrowing widow, formerly Minnie MacKenzie, Rose Valley, two daughters, Marguerite, Mrs. Alden Small, Miscouche, and Janet, Mrs. Alder Large, Wilmot, also two sons Norman and James at home, and the following brothers and sisters: Hon. John E., Summerside, Addie, Mrs. Major Lowther, Searletown, Mary, Mrs. Harry Saul, Winnipeg, Archibald, Vancouver, B. C., and Amy, Mrs. (Ray) Alexander MacKay, New Mills, N. B.

The funeral which was held on Tuesday, March 22nd, was very largely attended and the many beautiful floral tributes which surrounded the casket bore testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The service was conducted by the Minister of Congregation Rev. L. M. Murray. At the close of said service the remains were taken to Summerfield United Church where service was held in which the pastor of the church was assisted by Rev. Mr. C. Phail of Bradalbane.

Rev. Mr. Murray chose for his text part of the 10th verse of the second chapter of Revelation, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." The hymns sung were, "The Lords My Shepherd," "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" and "Abide With Me." Following the service the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Summerfield.
