It is forty seven years since Mrs. Himmen visited this province and naturally she notices many improvements and changes. She was born at St. Peter's Island and remembers quite well when there were only three houses on the little island. On Thursday, with a party of friends she visited the school at Rice's Point, which she attended as a girl, the view from the window bringing back happy memories. She and her party who motored to the island are having a most enjoyable holiday visiting out of town sections and are most greatly surprised with the beauty of the Garden Province.

As reported in Saturday's Guardian, announcement has been made of the appointment as Vicar General of Rev. G. J. MacLellan, D.D., pastor of St. Paul's Church, Summerside, in succession to the late Rev. Monsignor Joseph O. MacLean, whose death occurred on July 7 last.

Rev. Dr. MacLellan is one of the most distinguished members of the Roman Catholic clergy in this Province. He was rector of St. Dunstan's Cathedral from 1907 to 1915, and from the latter year until 1925 was rector of St. Dunstan's University. He had been for some years pastor of St. Simon and Jude Church, Tignish, when in October, 1921, he was appointed pastor of St. Paul's Church, Summerside, in succession to the late Rev. John J. MacDonald.

The body of a man, believed to be Charles Watson, Montreal, travelling salesman, who disappeared from the city last March was found on the shore at Governor's Island yesterday afternoon. The remains, which were found by a picnic party about 3.30, were impossible to identify from any outward appearance, as the clothing was badly torn, and the face unrecognizable. Police and the coroner are investigating the matter and it is probable that an inquest will be held.

"We have seldom been more enthusiastic over the prospects of a good market," stated Mr. J. W. Boulter, Secretary and Manager of the Prince Edward Island Potato Growers' Association, at the annual meeting of the organization Saturday afternoon. "Dealers are already wiring for quotations on steamer cargo, for later fall shipments. This leads us to one conclusion—that they too anticipate a shortage of good seed."

To this message of optimism the secretary sounded a note of warning, pointing out that the increasing of the potato acreage might not be a wise procedure, and urging a balanced production particularly of livestock.

Mr. Neil Gillis, a visitor as a member of the Holy Name Club, Pictou, N. S., passed away suddenly during the 11 o'clock Mass at St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday morning. The cause of death is believed to have been heart failure. His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan and Rev. Louis Dougan were present when Mr. Gillis passed away, and the last rites of the Church were administered.

The deceased, who was 52 years of age, was a barber, and is survived by five children, three sons, Bernard, Robert and Jack, and two daughters, Kathleen and Mary. His wife predeceased him several years. The remains will be forwarded to the mainland this afternoon for burial.

There were many lovely gifts and some useful pieces of kitchenware. The presents, which were all daintily wrapped in tissue paper, were opened by Miss Viola Todd. The humorous verses accompanying the gifts were read by Miss Yvonne Arsenault. TUESDAY —BARN'S DESTROYED—Three large barns, the property of Mr. Peter Doyle, of Campbellton, Lot 4, were burned to the ground on Friday last. A large quantity of machinery, which was in one of the barns, was totally destroyed. The fire was first noticed between 8 and 9 p.m., but had gained such headway that nothing could be done to save the buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle were at home at the time, but their son was away.
