Price Control Questions and Answers

Questions and Answers on Price Control will appear in The Guard as a regular feature each day. The questions are those which have reached the Wartime Prices and Trade Board from housewives in the region.

Q. Why do I have to give up preserves coupons for canned fruit which does not contain any sugar?

A. You must surrender your preserves coupons for canned fruit which is preserved in sugar or not.

Q. Why are some grocery stores allowed to stay open so late at night while others must close at 6 P. M.?

A. There is no Wartime Prices and Trade Board regulation which states the business hours of grocery stores.

MORNING SMILE

PRIVATE PROPERTY

The old lady welcomed the two soldiers who were to be billeted at her house and showed them to their room.

ANSWER: Well, I should think that any woman who had a husband who was a romantic lover and a good provider would be so busy notice that he had strewed the paper all over the house and had forgotten to bring home a loaf of bread.

YOUNG ARTISTS

At the Royal Drawing Society's annual exhibition which has just been held in London, England, the following young artists, sponsored by Miss Eleanor Fennes-Clinton, have been shown original paintings.

ONE ADVANTAGE

The air force mechanic was home on leave, and as he walked down the street he met an old friend.

"What's the matter with you?" "I've been in the cavalry before!" "You're in the R.A.F. man."

Dorothy Dix Says—

ALOOF DAUGHTERS-IN-LAW

Certain Women Follow Hands-Off Policy Except When They Want Help

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a widow, have a nice home and a comfortable income. My son and I always have been devoted, but he married a girl who made me understand that she did not want me to interfere in any of her affairs.

Now my son has been shipped overseas and my daughter-in-law stated she would like to move in with me so that she could get a job and I could take care of her two small children.

ANSWER: I also think you are absolutely right and hope you will stick to your decision. Many a daughter-in-law who has ignored her husband's mother is sending out an SOS call for help in these servant-less days.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My husband and I have been very happily married for several years and I love him very much. He has some of the finest qualities a man can possess.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: When a couple have been married for several years and their love seems to have died and each one has a friend, is there any chance of regaining that love and confidence?
