HORSE NOTES

The champion thorough bred Stallion Woodburn has been purchased from Messrs Stanley & Horne by J. A. Henderson, the popular horse shoer of this city. Mr. Henderson knows a good horse and this is one of the reasons why he purchased Woodburn. Woodburn is winner of fourteen first prizes, two silver medals at the Toronto Exhibition, three $50.00 special prizes for best thoroughbred stallion in Canada, the first prize at our Provincial Exhibitions in Charlottetown 1902, 1905 and 1906. He was imported to Charlottetown in 1902 by the firm from whom Mr. Henderson purchased. He is a rich bay with black points, standing sixteen hands and one inch high, weighs 1250 and is thoroughly sound in all respects. For this season Woodburn will be at O'Halloran's old stand, Fitzroy St. All lovers of thoroughbred stallions of this class should feel proud that this noted sire is not going to leave Charlottetown.

The Elm mare of Vernon McMillan's, Brackley Point Road, dropped a beautiful Parkade Jr., foal on April 24th, which is counted one of the best in that vicinity. Mrs. McMillan also has a two year old full brother to the foal, which took a prize at the last Provincial Exhibition.
