His Diamond Jubilee has been sent by the Governor-General as Chief Scout on behalf of his brother organization, the Boy Scouts of Canada.

The Chief Scout for Canada, the Earl of Athlone has named E. H. M. Knowles of Regina as the new Provincial Commissioner for Saskatchewan.

That the spirit of the Boy-Scout Movement cannot be suppressed is shown by the fact that in many isolated towns in North Africa the Scout Flag was the first to be flown. One of the first requests made to allow leaders after the conquest of Tunisia was for 15,000 Scout Banners.

While a crowd of people stood by, unable to do anything, a sixteen year old boy drowned at Avon Beach, England. The only person to attempt a rescue was 15 year old Patrol Leader Donald Strang of the 3rd Perivale Troop. He dived several times but was unable to locate the lad. He was awarded the Certificate of Merit by Lord Somers, Chief Scout.

Pilot Officer James G. Noel, for nine years a member of the 40th Vancouver Scout Troop, was the hero of a rescue when a woman jumped overboard from the S. S. Princess Alice as she steamed into Victoria Harbour. Noel, who had just received his commission, was wearing his officer's uniform for the first time. "I guess it's christened now," he remarked.

The Chief Scout for Canada, His Excellency the Governor-General has sent the following Christmas message to the Boy Scouts of Canada: "Cordial greetings and good wishes to all my brother Scouts and Scout Leaders. May this year of jolly Christmas, and remember in their thoughts and prayers their less fortunate brothers, Scouts in Europe who have had anything but happiness for more than four years. Let us trust that peace may be theirs and ours before the coming of another Christmas."

The bride looked lovely in a brown tailored suit with brown accessories. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where about thirty guests partook of a bountiful supper after wishing the bride and groom many years of happiness. The dining room was prettily decorated in pink and white streamers and balls. The table was centered with a decorated cake in pink and white. The living room where the gifts were arranged was decorated in pink and
