THE 58TH SESSION GRAND LODGE I.O.O.F.

J. J. MCKINNON, Grand Secretary.

Among the local members of the order who are active in Grand Lodge work are J. J. McKinnon, Grand Secretary, John McLaughlin, Grand Representative, J. F. Wheat, Past Grand Master, and J. M. Murley, District Deputy. Bro. McKinnon has been identified with the Order for 24 years, during which time he has been an active member of St. Lawrence Lodge, and for some time in Port La Jolie Encampment, and the Grand Secretaries Association. In 1908 he was elected Grand Secretary, and has held the office without interruption since that time. The position is one of the great responsibility, and requires unusual tact and diplomacy, and the fact that "J. J." has retained the office for so long, would tend to confirm the belief that the right man is on the job. Bro. John McLaughlin of Wilsey Lodge and Port La Jolie Encampment has filled the office of Financial Secretary in both these institutions for a number of years. Bro. McLaughlin was elected Grand Representative in succession to the late Bro. F. H. Selzer, and holds the office for three years. As a member of the Grand Lodge Finance Committee, and an energetic member on the Local Reception Committee, Bro. McLaughlin devotes much time to the "Good of the Order."

J. M. MURLEY, District Deputy.

Bro. J. M. Murley, District Deputy, is a member of St. Lawrence Lodge, and Port La Jolie Encampment, and was a member of the Committee on Petitions at Woodstock last year. Bro. Murley is also Secretary of the Reception Committee. Mrs. Kate Morrison, Dominion, N. S., is President of the Rebekah Assembly and Miss Kate Milligan, Summerside, who has charge of the Maple Leaf Degree Team, is Marshall. The Reception Committee is composed of the following: C. S. Drew, J. M. Murley, J. F. Wheat, J. McLaughlin, J. T. Martin, D. F. Bethune, D. D. Morrison, G. C. Acorn, D. J. McKinnon, and R. McDonald. The Rebekahs are Misses Mary Essary, Mattie VanBuskirk, Bertie Stewart, Florence McLeod and Mrs. Florence Stewart.

FIGHTING ON WESTERN FRONT

(Special to the Guardian.) PARIS, Aug. 9.—There was not much going on last night in the Artois district. In the sector to the north of the railroad of Souchez an enemy attack was repulsed. In the sector of Neuville St. Vaast on the road to Lille the Germans, after exploding a mine, bombarded our positions violently and endeavored to come out from their trenches. They were at once checked by fire of our infantry and our artillery.

(Special to the Guardian.) PARIS, Aug. 9.—Official to-night—There has been comparatively no change in the whole front. In Artois between the Somme and the Oise, and in the valley of the Aisne some artillery fighting has been reported. Rheims has again been bombarded. In Argonne near Fontaine Aux Charnes the enemy attempted to capture our positions, but they were repulsed everywhere. In the Vosges there was artillery firing. This morning an air squadron consisting of 32 bombing aeroplanes, conveyed by some scout speed planes, sallied forth to bombard the station and factories of Sarebruecken (north-east of Metz). Atmospheric conditions were not favourable, the valleys being concealed under a fog and the sky cloudy. Notwithstanding the difficulties attending the proper steering of the air craft, 25 planes reached their goals and dropped 164 shells. The speed planes meanwhile were keeping away the German aviators who were attempting to cut off the squadron from their base. Many fires were observed in the territory shelled.

WOMAN'S RIGHT TO SERVE COUNTRY

would not utilize the services of women merely to get cheap labour.

In conclusion Mr. Lloyd George said: "The women of this country can help, and help enormously. I believe they can help us through to victory. Without them victory will be a long and a victory which carries means a victory whose footprints are footprints of blood."

Afterwards Mr. Lloyd George addressed a huge crowd of women who had taken part in the afternoon's great procession from a platform overlooking the Embankment. So great was the ovation accorded to him that it was some time before he was able to speak.

He said they had witnessed a very fine procession of women who expressed the keenest desire to help their country in the hour of emergency. They represented the feelings of millions of women in the country. There were hundreds of thousands of them who had got sons and brothers, husbands and fathers and those whom they loved at the front, and they wanted to do their best at home to help their men facing deadly peril. (Applause.)

"Our country is in peril, and we all want to help it, and I believe that men and women alike are prepared to do their best to help the old country through to victory. (Cheers.) In France hundreds of thousands of women are working in the factories and the workshops in order to equip the soldiers at the front with abundant material to enable them to face their enemy on equal terms. We propose in this country to utilize the services of everybody prepared to assist us, and then victory will come to our lot. (Cheers.)"

"I am not afraid of the result. There are dark clouds rolling up from the east, but I look at them with confidence. The indomitable spirit of Russia will ride this storm as it has faced many another hurricane that swept over its devoted plains. The clouds will be scattered and dispersed, and Russia will once more emerge formidable and deadly and help the great democratic countries of the west to achieve a great victory for freedom in Europe."

Here a woman interrupted with the remark, "We want the vote," to which Mr. Lloyd George replied, "Yes, but we want you in the shell factory first." (Laughter.)

"The women," continued Mr. Lloyd George, "had come to show their readiness to help. London was organized. It was just panting, but it was twelve months behind in catching up a foe who had been preparing for years. He had no hesitation in feeling confident that we should overthrow the enemy as we had overthrown many a despotism before." (Loud cheers.) The crowd then sang the National Anthem, and Mrs. Pankhurst called for three cheers for the Army and Navy and for "our good old country," which was lustily responded to.

BLACK DUCK SEASON.—On the 20th of this month the season opens for black duck shooting. It would be as well for all law abiding people to keep a sharp lookout for poachers and to report at once to the Inspector, they getting half the find. Shooting Ducks before they can fly is a cruel and unsportsmanlike act. Look out for the motor boats that run down these poor "flappers" who are called. Make an example of one or two offenders and game protection is assured.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Dr. Rodger's Hunter River has had his residence completely remodelled and comfortable and convenient offices added to it. It now forms one of the finest doctor's residence and offices combined to be found anywhere in the country and adds quite a little to the appearance of the village. The woodwork was done principally by M. B. McKenzie and Son and Samuel Patterson, while William Bernard did the painting. All these men did their work in first class style and are to be congratulated for the excellent job they turned out of their hands.

LARGELY ATTENDED FUNERAL.—The funeral services of the late Brien Burke Clay were held at the home of his mother, parents at Victoria on Sunday last at 3:00 p. m. Rev. Mr. Hearn of the Tryon Baptist Church assisted by Rev. Mr. Thompson of the Methodist Church of Victoria conducting the services. The choir of both Churches united and after the singing of hymns, Rev. Mr. Hearn spoke from Psalms 142:5 from which he brought many words of comfort for the sad parents. Brien was a very popular boy and in every respect most promising. The floral offerings which came with the funeral party were the most beautiful ever seen here, expressions of tender love and sympathy from friends in Newfane N. Y. From all parts of the Western end of the Island people came and the funeral was very long. The father, Mrs. M. Clay, well known in the East end where he has spent his summer vacations with his son. The mother who was Miss Debbie Brien daughter of the late Angus Brien of Victoria is one of the Islands precious jewels loved by all who have ever known her presence. The family have been greatly afflicted five years ago laying away Miss Minnie who with Brien was in her 17th year. Close by the side of each other in the family plot near by the side of the Grandfather. Here they waves sob and murmur, the sea gulls fly to and fro, the winds sing their sad requiem and will until that day when earth shall be no more. Rev. and Mrs. Clay will spend a few days on the Island and then return to New York. Much sympathy goes out to them in their bereavement.

FURTHER PARTICULARS. The following particulars of the death of Thomas M. Hyndman, brother of Mr. A. V. Hyndman, Manager of the Royal Bank in this city, appear in a Regina paper:—Thomas Macaulay Hyndman, captain and paymaster of the 10th C. M. R., in training at Sewell, died at the Regina general hospital this morning after a three weeks' illness of typhoid fever. He was brought to the city for treatment two weeks ago, but his condition became steadily worse, and relatives in Edmonton were wired for last night. Death came at nine o'clock this morning.

Mrs. C. M. R. Hyndman, well and favorably known in Regina and district. At one time he was manager of the Bank of Ottawa here, resigning to organize the United Lumber Company. He left the city in August of last year to enter the coal business in Edmonton. When the 10th C. M. R. was organized last fall he came to the city to accept the position of paymaster of the battalion with rank of captain, a position he retained until he was taken ill at Sewell three weeks ago. Lieutenant Colonel J. A. Garman, officer commanding the battalion in the city today in connection with the death. He is accompanied by Captain J. Sutherland, also of the 10th C. M. R. Mr. Justice J. D. Hyndman of Edmonton, a brother, is expected to arrive in city tonight. Other brothers will accompany him. Until their arrival no arrangements for the burial will be announced, though it is believed the funeral will be held in Edmonton. Captain Hyndman was born in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, and was a devoted companion of a fond father, and the joy and pride of his mother. During the frequent and sometimes prolonged absence of the father in evangelistic work, Bryan was the man of the home, loyally fulfilling his duties. A SAD FATALITY.—Never in the history of Newfane has a sadder accident occurred than that of Tuesday, August 3rd, when Bryan Clay aged twenty years, only son of Rev. Fred M. and Mrs. Clay met instant death at the Newfane Bakery, through coming in contact with a live wire carrying power to that establishment. It seems that the young man who had just completed the day's work was emerging from the bakery at about five o'clock, and for some unaccountable reason stepped upon a little cart near by and caught hold of the wire. The insulation being defective at that particular point his body received the full force of the current, and death was almost instantaneous. Medical and other help was rushed to the spot but all to no avail. Rev. Mr. Clay with Mrs. Clay were both absent at Cassadaga, New York, where Mr. Clay had just accepted a very enthusiastic call to the pastorate of the Baptist Church in that town. On returning home and arrived about an hour after the son had passed away. This death is very untimely, and in unusual measure the sympathy of the entire town has gone out to the grief stricken family. Without conscious thought Bryan was one of those who somehow wove himself in the affections of all with whom he came in contact. Genial in disposition, readily acquiring and retaining friends, he was one of the most popular young men in Newfane. Sunny and cheerful by nature, he was the devoted companion of a fond father, and the joy and pride of his mother. During the frequent and sometimes prolonged absence of the father in evangelistic work, Bryan was the man of the home, loyally fulfilling his duties. WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was celebrated early yesterday morning at the Baptist Parsonage, Charlottetown, when Henry Seth Henderson, and Annie Kathaleen Dockendorff were united in marriage. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Z. L. Fash. The wedding was a quiet one. Mr. Henderson is one of the firm of the well known Haberdashery, Henderson & Cudmore, and is a rising business man. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of the city. The happy couple left on the Summerside train immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Toronto, and Niagara Falls, after which they will make their home in the city. The Guardian extends heartfelt congratulations and best wishes.

HAMPSHIRE.—Great joy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Tremere in the birth of their firstborn baby girl, but the little one was delicate. It was born July 13 and is the little sweet short earthly life ended on the evening of August 5th. The parents with commendable promptness sent for their pastor, Rev. George Orman, to baptise it, which he did, giving it the names of Ivy Eleta. The funeral on Friday afternoon was numerously attended by both male and female relatives and neighbours. The whole of the proceedings were ever gently and solemnly carried out in a manner to reflect credit upon all concerned, who remembered that the little lady had enshrined an immortal spirit. The singing was feeling and appropriate. The address was based on the words, "And Jesus called a little child unto Him." There were several floral tributes, a bouquet of white carnations from Mrs. W. W. Brown, a cross of roses from Eva Edwards and a cluster of roses from "Father and Mother." Interment was in Hampshire Cemetery.
