PRESENTATION TO MR. HENRY SMITH

Last evening, at their residence, 129, Pownall Street, while Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith were "at home" to the members and their wives, of the Quarterly Board of the First Methodist Church, there was a pleasant informal function in the presentation to Mr. Smith, by the members, of a magnificent gold watch in token of their appreciation of his admirable services as Recording Steward during the past twenty-five years, yesterday being the 25th anniversary of his election to the office. About forty persons, ladies and gentlemen, spent a very happy and enjoyable evening at their hosts', while away the early hours in songs, pleasant conversation, etc. The presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Fulton and Mr. W. A. Weeks, on behalf of the Quarterly Official Board of the Church, in brief and happy speeches, in which they referred to the excellent and untiring efforts which Mr. Smith had always put forth in the discharge of his stewardship. They congratulated him on his 25th anniversary as Recording Steward, and wished him abundant happiness in the future. Mr. Smith, who had been taken by surprise, replied in a brief speech, but excellent in the circumstances, thanking the members for their kindness, and Messrs. Fulton and Weeks for the nice things they had said of him. On the inner side of the case of the watch are beautifully inscribed the following words: "Presented Henry Smith, by the Q. O. B. of the First Methodist Church, Charlottetown; Oct. 7, 1915."
