The President, Mrs. French occupied the chair. The Devotional period was led by the president, assisted by several members. Business in connection with the Society was then discussed, after which the reports for the year 1939 were read, which were very encouraging, and showed that the work of the Auxiliary and those organizations affiliated with it had been carefully attended to throughout the year. The hope was expressed that the year which lies ahead may show still greater success when the time comes for the annual reports to be given.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS AT THE INFIRMARY

The festive season was a very happy one for the patients of the Provincial Infirmary. Previous to Christmas the Y. P. S. C. Lynch and members of the Salvation Army held devotional services and rendered Christmas carols. On Christmas afternoon following a delicious dinner of goose, plum pudding, cranberry jelly etc. the annual Christmas tree concert was held, each individual receiving gifts from the Christmas trees and those who wished joining in the music, singing and dancing. On New Year's afternoon another treat of candy, tobacco, fruit and ice cream was distributed and enjoyed. Sea View

And Vicinity

The snowstorm of the week-end has filled the roads in the country making it impossible for the autos to run, on all sides now one hears the sound of the sleigh bells in place of the honk of the auto horn.

The farmers are taking advantage of the good sleigh road in getting their firewood and other hauling done.

The school here has reopened after the holidays, the teachers and pupils are busy again at the last half of the year's term.

The local stores here did a good trade at Christmas and both received a fair share of the patronage of the people from this and surrounding communities.

A most pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heath McLeod, Irishtown, when a number of friends and neighbors gathered to celebrate with them the 25th wedding anniversary on Friday, December 29. When all had gathered and tendered their congratulations they were presented with a nice gift and a well filled purse of money on behalf of all present. Mr. MacLeod in behalf of Mrs. MacLeod and himself expressed his appreciation to all for their expression of goodwill at this time, after which they all joined in singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." The evening was wiled away pleasantly in social intercourse, games and music. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies and a social hour followed till a late hour when kind goodnights were said after wishing the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago many more years of wedded bliss and prosperity also abundant health in the years to come.

Mrs. Alwood Blakanev is spending some time in Malpeque on professional duties.

Many friends here and elsewhere extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brenton on the arrival of a baby girl to their home in Malpeque on New Year's Day.

Mr. William Blakanev and Mr. George Brander left recently for N. B. where they will be employed for some time.

The frost of the past week has built a bridge across the surrounding bays and rivers, teams are travelling now across the ice but so far the ice has not been bushed.

The smelting season is drawing to a close much to the disappointment of the fishermen, some of them report very good catches.

The W. I. of Malpeque sponsored a most pleasant evening's entertainment recent for both old and young in the form of a poverty social. As the guests arrived the costumes were many and of various types specializing many specimens of poverty. As they paraded round doing many amusing stunts the judges decision was in favor of Mr. Roy Woodside whose costume was that of an old lady in dire need. In fact it was difficult for the judges to make a decision as there were so many equally as good. This part of the program created a great deal of merriment and excitement. Mr. Roy Woodside would like to take this opportunity to thank the committee in charge for their much needed contribution towards his costume which he certainly appreciated. The first part of the program was cards and a single which was highly entertaining. The ladies served an excellent lunch and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Mr. Charles Woodside accompanied by Mr. James Harding contributed some very fine music in their usual good style making in all a pleasant evening's entertainment. A neat sum was realized which is to be used for patriotic purposes.

A quiet and pretty wedding ceremony was performed at the Manse at Malpeque by Rev. Mr. Crowdis on New Year's Day, when Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Champion, Darnley, was united in marriage to Harry Tuplin, Burlington. They were attended by Mrs. Jean McKenzie and Mr. George Champion in the presence of a few witnesses. At the close of the ceremony the young couple drove to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding supper was served to the immediate friends. The young couple will reside in Burlington where the groom has just completed a beautiful new residence. Many friends join in best wishes for a life of wedded bliss and happiness.

The local blacksmith Mr. Keir McKay has been kept quite busy lately shoeing horses, etc.

Mr. John E. Cousine has his cold storage plant ready now for the accommodation of the people from the surrounding communities. This will surely be a great benefit not only to the farmers but also to the fishermen for the next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford MacLaren have returned home after spending the New Year's holidays in Elmfield, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur.
