Defy Dyspepsia!

Among the symptoms of Dyspepsia or Indigestion may be mentioned a heavy, cutting pain soon after eating; a distended, full feeling of the stomach and bowels; belching of wind and flatulence; a burning sensation in the stomach, which indicates acidity; heartburn; palpitation of the heart; oppression of breathing; pain under the ribs and shoulder-blades; headache through the temples and eyes; dizziness, coated tongue and constipation; sometimes nausea or vomiting.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt is the natural specific for all these conditions. Being an antacid, it immediately relieves the acidity of the stomach and stops the fermentation. It stimulates the secretion and muscular action of the stomach and bowels, and overcomes the constipation. When it is kept up the normal action of all the organs of digestion is re-established.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

The Congregation of Cardigan, St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, by the Committee appointed for the purpose; gave their retiring Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. D. C. Morson, a surprise at the Manse on Saturday evening, Aug. 7th. While he and his wife were the guests of their pastor. The following address was presented to him, and the evidence of the esteem in which the congregation held him, was given to him, and to which he responded very deeply and feelingly.

Dear and honored Brother:—The members and adherents of St. Andrews Church cannot accept your resignation even temporarily without giving some evidence of the high appreciation they feel for the great service you have rendered the church. For over twenty years you have filled the office of Secretary-Treasurer of our church with great credit and yourself and satisfaction to the noble institution that is working for the common good. As a church we feel we owe you a debt of gratitude that is not easily paid, we fully realize that during those long years of service you have never looked for any reward except that which comes from the faithful performance of a duty and the advancement and progress of the church of which you are an esteemed and honored member. Our church has had its trials—its erection was costly and on its completion we were left with a debt which might otherwise be accomplished. Through all these years of trial our financial secretary stood at his post, working without fee or reward, until the debt of debt was rolled away. Now as he takes a holiday owing to the stress of business, and we hope it will not be too long, we all rejoice that the great burden has been lifted and we hope that before us lies a bright and glorious future.

We ask you to accept this purse, not in any way as a compensation for the service you have rendered us, for that is not to be measured by dollars and cents, but as a simple recognition that your work has not been in vain. We owe you an obligation that is hard for us to repay, but we wish to convey to you our sense of gratitude and due appreciation for all that you have done.

We also wish to remember your beloved partner, who in common with yourself has always taken a great interest in our church, who has always helped and supported in a large measure every good cause. We sincerely trust that you may long be spared to fill those spheres of usefulness in the future, which you have so nobly filled in the past.

In behalf of St. Andrews Congregation, Cardigan.—The Committee, Geo. E. Goff, A. G. Crawford, Neil McCannell, Aug. 8th, 1915.
