LEFT $5,000,000 FOR ALMS HOUSES

Generous Bequests of Murdered London Merchant to Charities

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The public interest in the tragic death of William Whitely, who was shot and killed in his great department store Jan. 24, by Horace George Rayner, was shown by the scene at the funeral of the merchant this morning. Long before the hour for the ceremony thousands of persons gathered about the Whitely residence, and dense masses lined the streets leading to the church.

Mr. Whitely's will makes a number of generous bequests to a number of charitable organizations, the chief being the $5,000,000 to provide and maintain alms houses to be known as the "Whitely homes for the aged poor." He leaves $250,000 to each of his two sons, and his sister and her two daughters are given annuities of $5,000 each. His wife, from whom he had been separated, was provided for during life.
