GERMAN FORCES SUBDUED REVOLUNTARY INSURGENTS

Captured 1,000 Prisoners and Many Machine Guns. Other Portions of Germany in Revolt.

(Special to The Guardian)
BERLIN, March 29.—An important gain was made today by the government forces engaged in dealing with the communist disorders in Central Germany when government troops and security police surrounded the nitrogen plant at Leuna which has been a communist stronghold for the past five days, and forced the insurgents to surrender. The insurgents at first offered stubborn resistance but their escape was cut off on all sides and they were obliged to capitulate. The troops took 1,000 prisoners and seized large supplies of rifles, machine guns, and ammunition.

STREETS BARRICADED

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS SHOW $70,000 DEFERRED

Reports on Public Accounts Shows Government, Notwithstanding Their Additional Taxation, had a Surplus of only $3,253.22 and this After Taking Credit for $70,000 Which Should have been Collected in 1919.

The long delayed report on the Public Accounts was tabled at a late hour last night.

The total Receipts were	$748,659.70
Total Expenditure	745,406.48
Surplus	$ 3,253.22

Among the receipts are included the following revenue purposely held over from 1919 in order to show an excessive deficit by the Arsenault government:—

Income tax, 1919	$40,238.30
Income tax arrears	1,632.71
Land tax arrears	5,589.58
Fox tax arrears	22,254.62
Total	$69,815.71

In round figures $70,000 was collected which should have been collected by the Bell government in 1919 and placed to the credit of the Arsenault government.

Were it not for this 1919 revenue the Bell government would have shown a deficit of some $66,000.

Even allowing them credit for these deferred collections what the government saved on their estimates for "Interest, Debentures, Loans, etc." would practically account for their surplus. For this item the government estimated $59,000, whereas the actual expenditure was $56,497.58. A government that can make a mistake of $2,500 on what they are to pay in interest on their "debentures, loans, etc." must have the haziest idea of financing.

It is noticeable also that the government failed to pay out their estimate on the Department of Education for salaries, etc., their estimate being $24,741.68, whereas their expenditure amounted to only $22,483.90.

In Mr. Lee's Department on the other hand, for salaries, assessors, printing, etc., the government exceeded their estimates by something like $11,000, their estimate being $9,300 and their actual expenditure on these "assessors," etc. being $20,227.63.

The Executive Council's estimated mileage was also exceeded, the estimate being $3,841.68 and the expenditure $4,179.67.

Greek Crown Prince Has the Mumps As Dead Goes Home In Auto

(Special to The Guardian)
ATHENS, March 29.—Crown Prince George is ill with the mumps which he caught from his bride, former Princess Elizabeth of Rumania who has been ill from this disease for the last few days.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Mourning as dead for fifteen months, after his "body" found in his motor boat wash on the Brooklyn shore, had been identified and buried, Paul Gesmer, fifty-two years old, inventor, started acquaintances in Stapleton, Staten Island, by driving in to town in a bright yellow motor car and telling them he was $45,000 richer than when they saw him last. His friends are puzzled over the identity of the man who had been buried.

Another New Type of Airplane

WASHINGTON, March 29.—An airplane so small that the pilot might almost stumble over it has been perfected by the engineering division of the United States army air service. Having been designed to take the place of the motor cycle in performing certain messenger service, it has been officially dubbed "the messenger."

With a wing-spread of only twenty feet and weighing only 581 pounds, the "messenger" develops a speed of 95 miles an hour and can climb ten thousand feet in ten minutes. Its most remarkable feature though is that it makes 25 miles to the gallon of "gas"—a better record than nearly any automobile. Equipped with a three-cylinder air-cooled Lawrence motor of sixty horsepower, the "messenger" was given a try-out recently by Lieutenant Cordes C. Moseley, winner of the Pulitzer Trophy. He flew from Washington to Langley Field, Va.

THE CURE ALL-BILL BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE

A Lively Discussion Over the Taxation Act 1920 and Some Reasons for Curing its Defects.

MARCH 29th.
House met at 4.15.
HON. A. E. ARSENAULT directed attention to certain questions previously asked, some of the replies to which were tabled, others being in course of preparation. He also asked why the reports of Falconwood and the Public Works had not been tabled as he understood they had been available and ready since the beginning of the session.

HON. J. H. BELL replied that he understood the Falconwood report had already been tabled. He had it tabled at once and distributed.

HON. A. E. ARSENAULT "I would again ask the leader of the Government for the Public Accounts. There are rumors that there is danger of an eruption of a budget speech and it is very desirable that before this happens we should have the Public Accounts. They have been ready for a long time but they have not been released for some unknown or suspected reason."

HON. J. H. BELL replied that he could assure his honorable friend that the expected eruption would take place probably toward the end of the week. In regard to the Public Accounts his information was that they would be ready this afternoon. He hoped to be able to table them before the House rose at 6. He also hoped to table the External Auditor's report before going on with the budget. There was also the estimate to be submitted.

House took up the orders of the day.

HON. J. J. JOHNSTON moved the House into Committee for second reading of an Act respecting arrears of taxes, Mr. D. C. McDonald in the chair.

HON. A. E. ARSENAULT remarked at this stage that this was in the nature of a "remedial" bill. In 1919 when the government came into power they should have taken into consideration the arrears of taxes for that year. They were however, more busily engaged in creating the alleged indebtedness that they were in collecting the revenue that would have gone to reducing the amount of that indebtedness and for that reason the collection of income taxes was not carried out. Notwithstanding that this was only a remedial bill, the former case it was intended that the government should have taken into consideration the arrears of taxes for that year.
