-LOSERS LARGE SUM TO FAKERS—Two young men, who were trying their luck at one of the fakers stands at the New Annapolis Races on Wednesday, lost a good deal of money, one to the tune of $71 and the other $125. The Provincial Police got on the track of the fakers and after threatening one man with arrest for obtaining money by fraudulent means got back the $70. The other faker had left for parts unknown. The fakers concerned in these transactions were not allowed by the Summerside Town Council to operate within their jurisdiction, and therefore did not get the chance to "make any easy money at the circus which is being held at the east end of Summerside. S.

-POLICE DOG SAVES HORSE—Skerry, the five months old police dog, belonging to Miss Amanda Cannon of Summerside, was the means of saving her valuable bay saddle horse from serious injury a day or two ago. The horse, which was tethered by a rope near the fox ranch of Mr. Cannon, became entangled in the rope and fell amongst the stumps of some trees. The dog, seeing something was wrong ran immediately to the house and persistently barked and attracted the attention of Mr. Cannon who went with him back to where the horse was still endeavoring to free himself. Mr. Cannon soon got the animal out of his difficulty. But for "Skerry" the horse no doubt would have broken his legs.—S.

-RETURNED FROM ENJOYABLE TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson returned on Tuesday from a week's camping trip through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. They were accompanied on their return by Miss Rosamond Richardson, student at Halifax Ladies College and Miss Doris Moores of Newfoundland, also a student at the college. Miss Moores will be the guest of Miss Richardson for a few days before leaving for her home in St. John's, Newfoundland.

VISIT OF BISHOP COADJUTOR—The Right Rev. John MacKeney, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Nova Scotia visited the Parishes of Georgetown and Souris, on Monday, June 22nd. In Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, there were three infant Baptisms and three children and an adult received into the church, by the Priest-in-charge, Rev. Canon E. Malone, M. A., of St. Peter's Cathedral. Two candidates were confirmed by his Lordship. A large congregation gathered to listen to his excellent address, on Confirmation, its meanings and blessings. In the evening the Bishop visited St. Alban's Mission, Souris, where there was a child and an adult received into the church, and six candidates were presented to his Lordship for Confirmation. The Mission Hall was well filled. The candidates were prepared for confirmation by Captain F. M. Bell, Captain-in-charge.

MARIE INSTITUTE—Thirteen members of Marie W. I. met at the home of Mrs. T. R. Cullen on Tuesday evening, June 9th, for their regular monthly meeting. Two visitors were present. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by roll call, which was answered by each member writing her name left-handed. The minutes of the last meeting were read, approved and signed. The first order of business was a discussion on cleaning the school and it was decided to leave same until after the annual school meeting. Mrs. John Jay and Beatrice Battersby were appointed sick committee for the month of June. Plans were made relating to District Convention to be held at St. Peter's Bay on June 17th. Eight dollars was voted to pay delegates expenses to Annual Convention, and if this amount did not cover same, remainder is to be paid at July meeting, which will be held at the home of Miss Carrie Sanderson, roll call to be answered by "My Favorite garden vegetable." Refreshments were served and the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.—(Patriot please copy).

GASPEREAUX WOMEN'S INSTITUTE—The regular monthly meeting of the Gasperaux Women's Institute was held in the schoolhouse on June 15. Meeting opened by singing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Roll was called, sick committee by seventeen members. Two visitors were also present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. The sick committee reported three visits made to the sick. A treat of fruit taken to each and Mrs. George A. Hicken and Mrs. Charles Steel were appointed for the following month. The sum of $3 was voted to buy a treat for the school children on closing day. A letter of thanks from the Red Cross Society was read, also a letter from the Supervisor notifying the members of the annual convention which it to be held in July. No delegates were appointed from this Institute. Discussion took place regarding the holding of an ice cream social and it was decided that further plans would be discussed at a later meeting. Collection of fees were taken which amounted to $1.05. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. Next meeting to be held in the school house on July 20.
