PROPER BAKING

ROSS-MILLER FOX FOODS

the most modern machinery renders these quality products thoroughly digestible. The starch of the CARBOHYDRATES (starches and sugars) is the cheapest and most bulky part of a fox food and requires careful scientific baking to avoid alimentary disorders.

ROSS-MILLER PRODUCTS

have been wonderfully built up in PROTEIN with genuine GROUND MEAT, powdered WHOLE MILK and FISH MEAL. The vegetable protein is built up with ALFALFA MEAL and a high GLUTEN flour. (Raw meat contains 74.4% water and is a most expensive source of protein in the end.)

R-M PUPPY FOODS are especially prepared for bone-building and vigorous growth. They are not the waste from the handling of biscuit at the factory. Each Fox Food contains JUST THE PROPER AMOUNT of cod liver oil to serve its purpose.

- (1) STANDARD R-M FOX BISCUIT ..... $7.50 per cwt.
- (2) R-M KIBBLE ..... $8.00 per cwt.
- (3) R-M PUPPY BISCUIT ..... $8.50 per cwt.

Western Guardian

—FOR LATE WESTERN NEWS page 3 is available.

—EASTERN AGENT—Mr. J. W. Murdock is now Guardian agent in Montague and will be pleased to receive news items, advertising, new and renewal subscriptions.

—THERE ARE MORE WAYS than one of using Whole Wheat Cereal. When making muffins use two parts Whole Wheat Cereal and one part white flour. Central Bedouge Flour Mills. 3968-219-51.

—REAPPOINTED—Nomination Day in Alberton for Mayor and three Councillors passed off quietly. Mayor Lawson and the three Councillors being returned to their positions for the ensuing year.

—PRESENTATION—A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Miller, Ellerslie, on Thursday, February 10th, when the members of Eideford United Church waited upon their daughter, Miss Marguerite, on the eve of her departure for Boston, and presented her with a club bag, in recognition of her valuable services as church organist, which position she has capably filled for the past four years. The address was read by the pastor, Rev. Ernest Carey. Miss Miller, although completely taken by surprise, thanked them all for their kind remembrance. Lunch was then served by the ladies and the evening spent in music and games, after which they all departed wishing Marguerite bon voyage.

—FILMS APPRECIATED—The subjoined letter is perspicuously clear in expressing its intention. It is dated House of Commons, Canada, Ottawa, Feb. 10, 1927. Thomas N. Donohoe, Esq., Kensington, P. E. I. Dear Mr. Donohoe,—Re Motion Pictures in P. E. I. I wish to take this opportunity of thanking you most cordially for your kind assistance and valuable services in putting on the Motion Pictures free of cost for the scholars of Kensington and surrounding districts. I hope that everything was successful and that you had a good attendance. Again thanking you for the splendid spirit you have shown in this matter. I am Yours truly, A. E. McLEAN. The managers of the Strand Theatre, Kensington, always succeeds in displaying a spirit sufficiently broad to advance the common good of all, and those who enjoyed the pictures thus shown will no doubt patronise the Strand in the future.

—LATE MR. H. R. CROCKETT—In the sudden death of Mr. Herbert B. Crockett yesterday morning Summerside is called upon to mourn the loss of one of its finest citizens. Mr. Crockett left his home about 8.30 o'clock yesterday morning for his store. On his way down he told a fellow pedestrian that he found the walking difficult on account of the heavy snow. Upon entering his store he spoke to his son Harold passing a parcel to him and telling him to deliver it. He took off his spectacles complaining that his head was bothering him and collapsed upon the floor. Medical aid was summoned but death had been instantaneous. Heart failure was given as the cause of death.

—PERSONALS—Mr. C. J. Gallant, Guardian agent, was a visitor to Portage, Lot 11, on Wednesday.

—Mr. Frank Glydon, Margate, and Mr. A. A. McNis, Live Stock Branch, Ottawa, were in Summerside Friday on a business trip.—Y.

—Miss Hazel Adams, who has been on the staff of R. Tuplin, Co., Kensington, for some years, has resigned, and has, during the week, been in the hospital to train as a nurse. Miss Adams will be keenly missed in business and social circles, as she was most capable, kind and obliging, and the vacancy caused by her departure will be most difficult to fill.—Y.

—Mr. C. A. Archibald, Truro, Live Stock Agent for the Maritime Provinces, recently visited Mr. Frank Glydon & Son, Margate, in search of Pure Bred Jerseys for the West Indies. He requires something superior to what has already been sent here. Owing to the large demand for Jerseys Mr. Glydon is unable to fill the orders without curtailing his own needs. He believes and right so in maintaining his herd up to the standard that has made it famous.—Y.

—Mrs. Herbert Phillips, Tyne Valley who had been in the hospital for three weeks came to her son's in Kensington on Thursday. She had successfully undergone an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Phillips is a proficient singer and will be greatly needed in Tyne Valley School and Church.—Y.

—There are four brothers, Frank in Portland, Me., Walter in Western Canada, Lemuel in Little York, P. E. I., and another brother in the United States, also two sisters Mrs. Herbert Lewis, Little York, and Mrs. Silas Prowse, Charlottetown Royalty.

—To the sorrowing widow and family the Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The date of the funeral will be announced later.

—be returned on leaving. Thanks to the various touring clubs of Europe, this nuisance has now been brought pretty well to an end, and motorists can now have the same facilities as before the war in the shape of trip-tiques and international certificates which eliminate trouble at the frontiers and make individual deposits unnecessary. Most of the motor association in Europe, and the Automobile Club in New York, can supply motorists with the necessary papers. A noteworthy improvement is the innovation that the French Touring Club has made, and which is applicable to all its members that reside in France: trip-tiques and "cartes de passage en douane" as the book of trip-tiques for many different countries is called, can now be obtained on deposit of a nominal sum, which is almost all returned on completion of the trip, a small charge being made for the liability insurance policy the club takes out to protect itself.

Eastern Guardian

—ICE BUSHED—The north beach ice is now bushed making a short cut from Panmure Island, Gaspereaux and Sturgeon to here, the work being done by Peter Condon of Panmure Island.

—SOCIAL GATHERING—The Valentine Whist, Basket Social and Dance under the auspices of Branch 275 C. M. B. A. was held in the Hall, Monday the 14th, was a decided success. Whist started at 8.15 until 10 o'clock, followed by sale of baskets. A very large crowd was in attendance from St. George's, Newport, De Gros March, Launching, Panmure Island, Cardigan, Montague and Sturgeon, twenty-nine tables being required for the whist. The following were the prize winners: Gentlemen, Rev. M. Rooney, Cardigan; ladies, Miss Gertrude Kiggins and Mrs. M. Gottell, equal, drawn by Miss Gertrude Kiggins. Consolation, gentlemen's, John F. Boudreau, Newport; ladies' Mrs. F. McPherson, Launching. The baskets were sold by the general Customs Officer T. E. Morrissey and brought record prices, averaging $3.00 per basket. After the sale of baskets and the inner man being well supplied the party danced until 3 o'clock, all going away saying the best time ever in King's County and looking forward to next year's meet. I might say the baking was above the average, which the ladies of Georgetown are always noted. A good sum was realized which goes for charitable purposes.

—PERSONALS—Capt. A. A. McDonald and Maurice Donovan recently were in Montague on business.

—Mr. Matthias Condon, manager of the Fox Alarm, Panmure Island and was in Georgetown this week on business. He reports very little ice in the Straits off Panmure Island this winter.

—The chief gossip of the time is Hockey. The Victoria Unions up to this time have held the name inviolable through all games. Dad Lyman's rink, Tyne, is as usual up to the A1 standard. Many games of excellent hockey have been witnessed, besides carnivals, races, etc. We all look forward to many such winter's sport with our friend Mr. Lyman.

—ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION—On Thursday evening in the Odd-fellows Hall, Kensington, an event was consummated that was redolent with the sweet odor of remembrance.

—Mr. James B. Proffitt was duly appointed to the chair, and, introducing the purport of the meeting, elected Mr. C. C. Baker, who read the subscribed:

—Dear Friends: We, your friends and associates assembled here this evening desire to take cognizance of an event in your life that marks another milestone in your existence. Today you celebrate the fortieth anniversary of your wedded life, and we desire to express to you words of felicitation and sincere good wishes. You have journeyed thus far in conjugal beatitude, mid ups and downs of married life, and we most earnestly wish that you may continue on the journey with increased happiness for many years to come.

—In the social life of the Town you have always taken an active and keen interest in everything pertaining to the enjoyment and development of the community spirit, which belongs to good citizenship. In your business life we have found you both to be congenial and obliging, and ready to assist in every good cause for the promotion and advancement of the commercial life of the Town. We, therefore, in recognition of the occasion, which must leave its impress upon the history of years which are to follow, ask you kindly to accept this Electric Floor Reading Lamp which we trust may serve as a light to illustrate the happy scenes yet to be enacted in your remaining years of happy wedded life.

—Signed by your many friends in Kensington and elsewhere. Mr. William L. Delaney presented the gift in the name of the admiring friends. Mr. Morrison, for Mrs. Morrison and self, acknowledged the gift in terms and sentiments nicely appropriate to the occasion and showed how grateful they are for this expression of recognition. Such evidence of genuine, social affinity is deeply appreciated and must leave an impress on the mind that will endure when conditions that now exist shall have faded into the remote past. When the literary and the musical tastes had been adequately satiated, the physical were duly appeased, by a most delicious lunch that was tastefully prepared as Kensington ladies so well know how.

—Then followed a program of enjoyable diversion that accelerated the flight of time, and made the closing hour arrive all too soon. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will long remember this practical cognizance of so important an event in their life.—Y.

—HOLLEY-PUSHIE NUPTIALS (Sydney Post, Feb. 11) On Tuesday afternoon at five-thirty at the home of the bride's parents, South George Street, a wedding of considerable local interest took place, when Ruth Portia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Holley became the bride of Luther S. Pushie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pushie, Intercolonial St. Rev. A. D. Reid officiating. The ceremony took place in the drawing room, the Bay window banked with flowers and ferns forming a most attractive background for the bridal party. The bride who was given in marriage

Crapaud And Vicinity

The concert held in the Crapaud Hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 15th, was a grand success.—Mr. Alfred Simmons who has recently returned from Moose Jaw, Sask., and Mr. Everett Simmons our genial garage expert, have purchased a suitable lot and plan to open a new joint garage and blacksmith forge during early spring. Their many friends wish them every success.

The farmers of this vicinity have completed their yearly supply of wood and for days the puff of Larne's engine and the ring of his saw, may be heard from early morning till late in the evening.

Many horses have exchanged hands within the past few days. Among the purchasers of this vicinity are Warren Simmons, Charles Harvey, Lloyd Oakes and Max MacVittie.

Mr. K. C. Holmes of Victoria had the misfortune of losing control of his horse a few days ago while returning home. Mr. Holmes was thrown from his sleigh, but was picked up by a good Samaritan who conveyed him to Crapaud where medical aid was applied.

Mr. John MacQuarrie of Hampton paid a flying visit to the city recently and reported the roads in excellent condition.

Among those who attended the Carnival held in North Tyne Rink, Feb. 12th, were Miss Evelyn Bell and Miss Bertha Culliffe of Cape Traverse.
