

Acid in Stomach Ruins Appetite

Thin, pale people—the dependent sort who never have an appetite, and complain of headaches, indigestion, dizziness, biliousness, usually have too much acid in their stomachs.

The wave lengths of all the chemical elements will be measured in a new laboratory of the United States Bureau of Standards to enable impurities in metals to be detected when analysis fails.

DOMINION OF CANADA PROVINCE OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

In the Surrogate Court 12th George V., A. D., 1928

In Re-Estate of John McInnis late of Charlottetown in Queen's County, in the said Province, deceased, intestate

By the Honourable A. Bannerman Warburton, Surrogate, Judge of Probate, &c., &c.

To the Sheriff of the County of Queens County, or any Constable or literate person within said County.

WHEREAS upon reading the petition on file of David Lyster McInnis of Charlottetown aforesaid, the Administrator of the above named Estate praying that a Citation may be issued for the purpose hereafter set forth: You are therefore hereby required to cite all persons interested in the said Estate to be and appear before me at a Surrogate Court to be held in the Court House in Charlottetown, in Queen's County, in the said Province on Thursday the twenty-third day of February next, coming at the hour of eleven o'clock forenoon, of the same day to show cause if any they can why the accounts of the said Estate should not be passed and the Estate closed as prayed for in said petition and on Motion of Donald McInnis, Proctor for the said Petitioner, And I do hereby order that a true copy hereof be forthwith published in some newspaper published in Charlottetown aforesaid one in each week for at least four consecutive weeks from the date hereof and that a true copy hereof be forthwith posted in the following public places, respectively, namely in the hall of the Court House in Charlottetown aforesaid, at or near the City Weigh scales and at or near the Bank of Nova Scotia both in Charlottetown aforesaid, so that all persons interested in the said Estate as aforesaid may have due notice thereof.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the said Court, L. S. this fourteenth day of January, A. D., 1928, in the eighteenth year of His Majesty's reign.

(Sgd.) A. B. WARBURTON Surrogate & Judge of Probate 1977-1-21-S-41

SMILES

"The bird who appears green may be hiding a yellow streak."

STRANGE EFFECT

"I kissed her when she had her eyes shut."

"Well, what happened?"

"I thought she was never going to open them again."

TOOK ONLY WINE

"When you were in Japan did you take a jinrikisha often?"

"No—confined myself strictly to wine."

AS IF THAT HELPED

Hubby: You'll have to cut down expenses, that's all.

Wife: Well, I suppose I'll have to shorten my skirts again.

MISS BROWN OF X. Y. O.

By E. Phillips Oppenheim (Copyright 1927 by E. Phillips Oppenheim)

MISS EDITH BROWN, pretty stenographer, whose life has held little beyond the dull routine of everyday typing, sits down on a quiet doorstep to get her bearings when she finds herself lost in a dense fog.

"All the same," Miss Brown insisted, "you ought to have a doctor and you must remember that as yet you have given me no instructions."

The Mystery

Already she knew him better than to refuse. As a matter of fact although she was conscious of no fatigue, she was glad of the wine. He moved himself a little and rested upon his elbow looking at her.

"What do you think of all that?" he asked, motioning toward the satchel.

"I kissed her when she had her eyes shut."

"Well, what happened?"

"I thought she was never going to open them again."

"No—confined myself strictly to wine."

"When you were in Japan did you take a jinrikisha often?"

"No—confined myself strictly to wine."

"Hubby: You'll have to cut down expenses, that's all. Wife: Well, I suppose I'll have to shorten my skirts again."

"It is not finished," she reminded him. "But I am, alive or dead—" he rejoined.

This last time, though, I played my first false card. Since then he's never left my heels. They generally hunt in packs. He out-distanced the others, and he paid. Have you ever seen a dead man, Miss Brown?"

"Never in my life," she acknowledged.

"Are you afraid?"

"Not now. I'm afraid of nothing."

"Go and look," he invited.

"I Am Done For!"

She rose to her feet and crossed the room with unflattering footsteps—she, the daughter of a country lawyer, who had never seen men fight even in merely quarrelsome mood, whose ways had lain always along the humdrum thoroughfares of the boarding school, and tennis parties, genteel poverty and work, always respectable, always doing the correct and ladylike thing. She passed the overturned chair which apparently marked the spot where the struggle had taken place, glanced at the tablecloth and smashed vase of flowers lying upon the floor, and with her hand upon the screen peered round behind it. To her it always remained a tragic memory, although at that moment she was unconscious of feeling the slightest emotion. The dead man lay there, smallish in stature, dark, an undoubted foreigner, with blue chin, jet black hair, clothes of an English cut, with a small, round hole in his forehead, waxen pale, to have his wound dressed, to keep his feet upon the earth—but she did none of these things.

"I cannot see any reason why you should die," she said, in her ordinary, matter-of-fact tone. "You should give yourself a chance, at any rate, by sending for a doctor and a nurse. If you will not, I think I could arrange that bandage myself."

He shook his head.

even death. She could have fallen upon her knees and implored him to have his wound dressed, to keep his feet upon the earth—but she did none of these things.

"I cannot see any reason why you should die," she said, in her ordinary, matter-of-fact tone. "You should give yourself a chance, at any rate, by sending for a doctor and a nurse. If you will not, I think I could arrange that bandage myself."

Sore Knee Joint Quickly Made Well

"My knees ached day and night—they were full of rheumatic pain," writes S. Smythe from Carleton.

"My family all know how I got free from rheumatism. I applied Nerviline to the painful area—it penetrated to the core of the pain, brought me freedom from the sorrows that had made my life a misery. For a family liniment, to rub away the pains of lumbago, neuralgia, rheumatism, I strongly recommend Nerviline. It prevents and overcomes a hundred ills in the home. Get a 35-cent bottle today."

A Man of Action

LADIES & GENTLEMEN: Electors of Ward Three.

As your Councillor for the past two years, and as Chairman of the Police Committee and also a member of the Board of Health, and with my record before you, I desire to say that I have always endeavored to be a man of action—that is, I have always acted in your best interests. What are words without action?

When I promise economy consistent with civic advancement and the safeguarding of our finances together with all things for the welfare of our city, you know my words will be followed by action.

I hope I shall have the pleasure of thanking you for your support on election day and also take this opportunity of thanking you for your support in the past. I remain, Yours respectfully, A. A. HENNESSEY.

To the Electors of Ward 5

Ladies & Gentlemen:— I have again decided to offer my services to the electors of Ward 5 at the forthcoming Civic Election on February 8, 1928.

Having represented you the past six years in the City Council, and the last four years as Chairman of the Finance Committee, my record is before you.

I stand for good clean Civic government. I am in favor of permanent work, consistent with our revenues. Our debt is growing, but the need of keeping our city in good shape is essential and the permanent work must go on. I am in favor of economy and will not support any increase in taxes unless absolutely necessary.

If elected, you can depend on me to safeguard your interests in every way, as I love my native city.

Yours sincerely, T. W. L. PROWSE

To The Electors Of Ward Five

Ladies and Gentlemen: Complying with the requests of a large number of Electors, I am again a candidate for Councillor in Ward 5.

I am in favor of permanent works and Civic improvements necessary for our growing city. We cannot stand still. We must advance and keep pace with progress but prudent economy in all departments will be my watchword.

I regret that circumstances have prevented me from calling on all personally, but I take this means of soliciting your votes and influence on February 8th, inst.

Respectfully yours, GEO. W. MACLEOD. 2229-2-3-41.

To The Electors Of Ward One

Ladies and Gentlemen:— I am again in the field as candidate for Councillor for Ward One.

I elected I shall be my endeavor to faithfully discharge my duties as your representative, giving special attention to the needs of the Ward and at the same time doing my part in carrying on the civic administration in an efficient and economical manner.

I thank you for the generous support accorded me two years ago, and respectfully solicit your votes at the coming election.

Yours sincerely, DR. F. C. DOUGAN. 2081-diy

To the Electors of Ward Two

Ladies and Gentlemen:— I have decided to accept the nomination as a candidate for councillor in Ward Two in the coming Civic Election.

Should you honor me by election I will use my best endeavour to further the interests of Ward Two and also do my part to assist in carrying on the civic administration with efficiency and with due regard to economy.

M. W. REARDON. 2052-1-26-14-61

To the Electors of Ward Four

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:— Having served the city for the past four years as one of your representatives at the Council Board and thinking perhaps I did so with some measure of success, I have again decided to offer for re-election at the forth-coming contest.

It is unnecessary to mention the various improvements which have taken place in our city, during my term of office suffice to say that I can at least claim a modest share in their development.

It has been my endeavor at all times, to perform my duties in an upright manner, without fear or favor and with the best interests of the citizens at heart. If you see fit to again honor me, it is along these lines I will continue to carry-on.

I stand for Progress consistent with Economy, continuance of Permanent Works, Improved and Cheaper Lighting System, Open Air Parks and Playgrounds for Children, Sanitary Bathing Houses, Well Kept Squares, Up-to-date Fire Equipment, Etc. My endeavors for Good Civic Government in the past are well known. I leave you to judge them for yourselves.

I take this opportunity of soliciting your vote and influence and can assure you that if elected, I will give a good account of myself during the next two years; ever looking to the city's welfare and more particularly the interests of Ward Four. Thanking you for your past support, I am, Respectfully yours, E. A. FOSTER,

To the Electors of Ward 4

LADIES & GENTLEMEN:— Two years ago I solicited your support for a seat at the Council Board. Although I received a splendid vote I was defeated. Again you are called upon to elect those to whom you wish to entrust the business of the City for the next two years, and again I place my services at your command.

The City Council is simply your Board of Management, selected by you to look after your financial interests, and carry on the business affairs of the City. The Ballot is yours. You have the privilege of electing two Councillors. Select those whom you believe responsible, and best qualified to represent and protect you.

I am actuated solely by a desire to be of service to my City, and fellow citizens. Should you do me the honor of electing me I will use such ability as I possess, and will on all questions of whatever nature they may be, exercise my judgment in a manner that I believe to be right, and in the best interests of the City, ever keeping in mind the necessity for safe, sane, but progressive civic advancement.

Very respectfully yours, PERCY W. TURNER

To the Electors of Ward 4

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: I have been persuaded to offer as a candidate for Councillor in Ward 4 at the coming civic election. I believe in economical and efficient government.

No city can make proper progress unless its streets, sidewalks, and all civic activities are kept abreast of the times. Charlottetown is a modern and most attractive city and it will be my duty to endeavor to keep it up to its present high standard. Citizens should be furnished with more satisfactory lighting at a more reasonable cost. If practical, all utilities such as light and electrical power should be under city ownership. Permanent work must continue; taxation must be kept within reasonable bounds, economy practised in every department.

If elected it will be my aim to exercise all my ability in these directions in your behalf.

B. ROY HOLMAN.

To the Electors of Ward Five

LADIES & GENTLEMEN: It is with pleasure that I once again offer to Ward 5 and the Citizens in general my services as Councillor in the Civic Election on Feb. 8, 1928.

Having been one of your representatives for the past two years in the City Council I have endeavored to give you the best services possible within my power.

Needless to say that I stand for everything that would be for the BEAUTIFYING and BETTERMENT of our City.

It has been my aim in the past and will be in the future to keep our TAXES as LOW AS POSSIBLE. Permanent civic improvement will receive my cordial support. ECONOMY BEING THE WATCHWORD in all such undertakings.

As I will be unable to call on all personally, I take this opportunity of soliciting your support on Election Day.

Respectfully yours, SAMUEL KENNEDY
