Large Crowd Witness Night Racing Meet

S'side All-Stars Whip Abegweits In Third Game Of Series

Summerside All Stars chalked up their second victory of the season over Charlottetown Abegweits yesterday afternoon when they defeated the locals 10-6 in a free hitting, loose fielding encounter at the Park diamond.

Racing into a 3-0 lead in the first innings as the locals fell apart Summerside saw the Abbies tie it up at 3-all in the last half of the second on a three run outburst and then go ahead 4-3 with a single counter in the fourth but in the top half of the sixth the roof again fell in on the losers as Summerside aided by sloppy fielding, two passed batters and one solitary bingle pushed six runners across the plate before the side was retired. The uprising meant a 9-4 lead for the visitors and with it the ball game.

Abegweits never quite got over that setback. Scoring a single run in the last half of the sixth Abbies threatened seriously in the last of the eighth after Summerside had made it 10-5 as they loaded the sacks with none out but the best they could do was squeeze across a run as a runner was forced at the plate, one fell a strikeout victim and another filed out to deep centre field.

Charlie Ryan provided the fielding feature of the encounter as he raced far in towards the plate from back of first base to snare Gallant's foul fly.

Abegweit hitting was sadly missing as they could gather but five safe blows off three Summerside moundsmen with Art Perry getting the longest hit of the game when he slammed a three base hit down the left field line in the eighth.

Lefty McAleer going the route for the locals again fell victim to erratic support. He gave up but seven hits, all singles, but again errors saw Summerside score six unearned runs throughout the encounter.

The inaugural of night racing at the Charlottetown Exhibition track Saturday night went over with a bang and if the reaction of the big crowd that was present can be taken as any criterion then harness racing under lights is here to stay.

The crowd, numbering we would say between five and six thousand, came away more than satisfied with the entire program as the racing provided in the main close, driving finishes over a track that was lit up like daylight by the powerful electric plant that has been installed.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Also used for the first time here was the starting gate made on the same principle as is in use over big United States tracks. While this did not meet with instantaneous approval nevertheless once the fans become accustomed to this method of starting it should fit in with the entire night racing program to a nicety.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Officials connected with the Exhibition Association have done a real job on their night racing program. The entire setup shows thoughtful, unhurried planning and with the success of this form of harness racing now assured the Province is more than ever entitled to its name "The Kentucky of Canada."

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

With the largest crowd of fans on hand to witness tennis matches since pre-war days the Island Open tennis tournament concluded on a high note Saturday afternoon over the fast courts of the Charlottetown Tennis Club when championships in four divisions were decided.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

And as was expected and looked forward to, the matches produced a hard-hitting, fast brand of the net game with only one of the four finals being decided in straight sets with many of the games going to deuce several times before game and match points were decided.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Local players were successful in keeping two titles in the Province, capturing the men's doubles and mixed doubles. With only a half dozen out of the Province competitors taking part, at first glance this wouldn't seem to be any outstanding achievement but with the visitors being high ranking players in their own Province it speaks well for the ability of the local racquet wielders.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

And once again "Mac" and "Gus" (Mac MacKinnon and J. A. Bentley) put over a tennis tournament in a big way, and the success attending the resumption of the Island Open tournament will definitely lead to bigger things in the near future The tournament just concluded went a far way in making fans tennis-conscious once more; to Mac and Gus go the lion's share of the credit and don't be surprised that when next year rolls around the Charlottetown club will be once again the scene of Eastern Canadian finals leading, officials hope, to the ultimate staging here of the Canadian tennis title tournament.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Living up to the reputation of being one of the most outstanding tennis players ever developed in the Province, Billy Moreside gave an exceptional display of ability and tennis stamina Saturday afternoon when he took part in three final matches to emerge with titles in two of them.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Small in stature but possessing tons of energy the slim, blonde youngster was beaten back by Gordon Bauld in the single title hunt but only after making a great comeback in the last two sets against a far more experienced opponent but in what were hard-hitting, fast moving affairs.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

The consensus of opinion was that he would be under par when he came out for the men's doubles but Moreside surprised everyone by his dash and as a result played an important role in the two victories as he teamed up with Miss Beryl DeBlois to win the mixed doubles, and paired off with "Lefty" Reddin to keep the Island men's doubles title in the Province.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Final work on the new memorial athletic field will get underway today when a group of volunteer workers, armed with rakes, shovels, etc., will lay siege to the grounds for a smoothing out, rolling process, and granted favorable weather it is expected that the field will be ready for baseball in the very near future.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Lack of machinery necessary for the work has held up the work for the past few weeks but Director of Physical Fitness Bill Reid, anxious to get the work completed took matters into hand over the week-end, and the ready response to his call for volunteers received makes the outlook bright indeed for early usage of the field.

✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

And as soon as possible track and field prospects, will be working out getting in readiness to participate in the Maritime track and field meet slated for the mainland in September. There are many promising prospects around the City and Province and prospects look very bright for the Abegweits sending a strong representation to the three-province meet, a team many feel will be well up in the team scoring lists.

Gordon Bauld Is Winner Of Island Open Singles Title

Gordon Bauld, smart Halifax tennis star Saturday afternoon captured the Prince Edward Island Open tennis singles title when he defeated Bill Moreside of the Charlottetown Club, 6-1, 6-0, 2-6, 6-4 in a bitterly fought final that saw young Moreside, after being turned back rather easily in the first two sets make a dogged, hard hitting struggle of it in the third and fourth before conceding defeat.

Miss Ann Saunderson of Halifax won the ladies' singles crown in straight sets from the challenge of Miss Kay Anslow of Windsor, N.S., winning 6-2 and 9-7 with the second set being a gruelling 16-game affair as the favored Miss Saunderson had to come from behind to account for her victory.

Moreside atoned somewhat for his defeat in the singles when he teamed up with "Lefty" Reddin to win the men's doubles title, defeating Gordon Bauld and Jim Palmer 7-5, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3, and he figured in his second title when paired with Miss Audrey DeBlois to win the mixed doubles crown on straight games from Miss Ann Saunderson and Gordon Foster.

Immediately after the end of the ladies' doubles His Honor Lieut. Governor J. A. Bernard, who was introduced by Judge A. E. Arsenault, presented the trophies and prizes to the winners and runners-up, complimenting the players on the fine performances staged and stating that the tournament just completed would go a long way in bringing the game back to its former pupularity.

A fitting tribute was also paid to a former great tennis performer when the crowd observed one minute's silence in memory of Robert N. Watt, Jr., of Montreal, a very popular performer here in years gone by who was killed while serving overseas in the recent Great War.

In addition to the trophies donated by the Provincial Tennis Association, special prizes were also donated by the Hughes Drug Co., W. W. Wellner, Ltd., and G. H. Taylor, jewellers.

Special prizes of Ronson cigarette lighters were presented to Mac MacKinnon and J. A. Bentley for the outstanding work they had performed in staging the tournament, the presentations being made by Governor Bernard on behalf of the Charlottetown Tennis Club, after President George Burnett of the local club had referred to the splendid work done by both men.

Professor Barlow was also the recipient of a special prize for his excellent umpiring of various matches throughout the meeting.

In winning the men's singles Bauld took the opening game after the match was at deuce twice and then broke through Moreside's service in the second to take a 2-0 lead. Bauld again came through on his own service in the third game to make it 3-0 with Moreside, after the game had gone to deuce three times, making it 3-1. Bauld however ran out the match with three straight games to make it 3-1.

Stroking effortlessly and forcing his opponent into errors Bauld raced off with the second set 6-0 to make it look as if he were going to win in straight sets but Moreside, stiffening up in the third match and making some impossible returns that drew down loud applause from the gallery, ran up a 3-1 lead in the first four games after breaking his opponent's service twice. Bauld won the fifth game to make it 3-2 but Moreside, again breaking through, ran off three games to win out 6-2.

The fourth match produced the best tennis of the match. Bauld, winning the first two games, led 2-0. Moreside made it 2-1 on his own service. They split the next two evenly to make it 3-2 with Bauld racing into a 5-2 lead by winning the next two games. Moreside had a kick left, however, when he broke Bauld's service to make it 5-3 and then won his own to make it 5-4. The game was at match point three times until finally Moreside captured it with a couple of brilliant returns, but Bauld ended matters in the tenth game, winning his own service to end the set and match 6-4.

Miss Saunderson Wins

Miss Ann Saunderson galloped through her opening game with Miss Kay Anslow in the ladies' singles to win 6-2 but met up with much stiffer competition in the second and final set. A couple of times in the latter stages Miss Anslow was at set point only to have her opponent delay the issue with smart stroking and in the latter stages of the 16-game set Miss Saunderson took control to run out the set and match at 9-7.

Western Boxer Dies Of Heart Attack

WINNIPEG, Aug. 3 — (CP)—A former Western Canadian middleweight boxing champion, Louis Lavoie, 42, died of a heart attack here Friday night while working in a Canadian National Railways' engine in the yards.

Lavoie, formerly of Edmonton, represented Canada as a boxer at the 1932 Olympics at Los Angeles.

Kinsmen Team Play Knights

It will be Kinsmen and Knights of Columbus in tonight's junior baseball league game and followers of the youngsters are looking forward to witnessing one of the hottest tussles of the campaign as the Knights seek to chalk up a win over a team that has been just able to edge them out in the last couple of encounters.

A win is equally important to both squads. A defeat at this stage would play havoc with the Kinsmen's chances of copping the section while Knights can advance materially in the standings with a victory.

Beer Leads In Opening Round For Golf Title

Pud Beer of Charlottetown led a field of golfers in the opening 18 holes of a 36 hole championship competition at Summerside Saturday afternoon to determine the 1947 titleholder. His score of 78 for the par 72 course was one stroke better than that turned in by Norman MacLeod of Summerside.

The second 18 holes will be played over the Charlottetown Golf Club course this Saturday.

In third and fourth place were two other Charlottetown golfers, Pete Kelly and Andy Likely with scores of 80 and 81 respectively Bill MacLeod of Summerside with an 82 was in fifth place.

Doug Saunders who is defending the crown he won last year garnered an 83 on the round and was tied with the Dowling brothers, Maurice and Cec.

It was an ideal golfing day and the Summerside course was in excellent shape for the firing of the opening round. Bon Weir is the club professional at Summerside.

The winner of the Island championship will be awarded the trophy donated by the late J.J. Gaudet whose son Harold is president of the Summerside Club.

Top Line Wrestlers At Forum Tonight

Everything short of mayhem is expected to be committed at the Forum tonight when four of the outstanding wrestlers in the game today, in the persons of Sal Balbo, Cowboy Hughes, Bull Curry and Bull Montana tangle in a double main event feature. The show is expected to provide one of the most action filled nights ever witnessed inside the doors of the big sports Forum and indications last night pointed to a record wrestling crowd being in attendance to watch the big boys go through their motions.

This season particularly, this same group of wrestlers have been staging shows in other parts of the Maritimes that have been the real McCoy. Not once but many times one or the other of them have required hospital treatment so rugged has been the battling and tonight's show will prove no exception. As promoter Archer stated so emphatically recently, "their purses will be held up if they don't put on a satisfactory performance."

So it should be action plus this evening. The wrestlers will arrive in the City early today so the first bout will be called at 9 p.m. sharp. Advance sale of tickets start at the Forum this morning and fans would be well advised if they picked up their ducats early and by so doing ensure themselves of obtaining a clear view of the proceedings.

Two local wrestlers, Doug Nicholson and Mike Reddin will provide the action in the curtain raiser. Both these boys are quite capable of putting on real shows and fans can rest assured that both will be out to defeat the other from the opening bell on. As stated above the first bout will start promptly at 9 o'clock.

Four Horses Race To Upset Victories In Night Inaugural

Lit up in a brilliant manner by a battery of powerful lights the Charlottetown Driving Park race track was the scene of a great night racing program on Saturday night when a crowd estimated at between five and six thousand witnessed close, keen racing in all six events run off as Royal Jim, Alcyone, Beaverdale, Guy Harvester, Molly Dale and Jeanette Dale raced off with victories with four of them being upsets as Beaverdale and Alcyone were the only betting favorites to come through.

As is always the case in daylight racing the classes provided thrilling stretch battles in four of the six classes as the fans were brought to their feet as the trotters and pacers came pounding down to the wire in nip and tuck struggles that were only decided in the last few strides.

No. 1 Classified

Streaking away like a runner Royal Jim took the rail from Lillian Budlong on the first turn and from there on made every post a winning one Going up the back stretch the second trip around Jay Volo, the favorite made his bid to move into second place but there was no catching Royal Jim in the stretch drive But back a length there was a merry battle going on for second, third, fourth and fifth places with Jay Volo nipping Lillian Budlong at the wire, Helen Budlong placing fourth a stride behind and Bob Canuck who had come from far back, a half length back in fifth place.

No. 2 Classified

Going away at the rail Alcyone lost the lead to Bonnie's Boy just after the word was given to take the field up the backstretch and around the stands the first time. Wait N'See had paced up to third on the outside at the half as Alcyone was tucked in; the drives came early on the backstretch as Bonnie's Boy Alcyone and Wait N'See raced like a team to the three quarters; at the seven-eighths pole Alcyone was showing out in front and won a tremendous stretch duel with Wait N'See to take the heat by a head. Bonnie's Boy was third, Lorraine Abbe fourth, Bright Spot fifth and Miss Knox, who made a disastrous break, in sixth place.

No. 3 Classified

Beaverdale, that great old campaigner went away on the rail and was never headed. Lusticia challenged for the lead early only to jump it off; Bonnie Dale coming from far back had moved up to second place as they hit the backstretch the second trip around but in the drive from the seven-eighths pole home couldn't catch the steadily moving Beaverdale who won by a length. Sir Francis Drake was third with Lusticia, again showing worlds of speed, moving up very fast to place fourth. Bud Kalmuck was fifth.

No. 4 Classified

Getting away in high gear Guy Harvester, with veteran "Jiggy" Arbing handling the ribbons, threw another upset into the crowd as he never lifted a nose in trotting off with the race. As they hit the quarter pole the first trip around Guy and Archie Lee had moved well out to the front and it was strictly a two-horse race with Guy Harvester trotting away in the stretch to win by two lengths. King Grattan II was third, Royal At Law, performing on the trot fourth, and Jimmy Dale fifth.

No. 5 Classified

Grabbing the lead at the first turn after getting the word, Soldier Budlong led the field around to the half as they strung out in a line coming by the stands. Hitting into the backstretch Molly Dale started to move up very fast and as they came into the stretch it was a nip and tuck affair but Mollie came on again in the last fifty yards to trot under the wire a half length to the good. Soldier Budlong was second, Mary's Delight third, Happy Vale, the prerace favorite fourth after making a bad break, and Just Bill fifth.

No. 6 Classified

The upsets continued right to the final race as Jeanette Dale came through in the stretch to beat out C. Albert Budlong and Marjorie Budlong in a driving finish. Marjorie Budlong went off to the front to lead the field by the stands the first time and into the backstretch. Tucked in in third place C. Albert Budlong made his move, to be followed by Jeanette Dale a few lengths back. As they hit the upper turn they were all packed closely together but things began to happen in the stretch. C. Albert Budlong, the favorite showed in front about 100 yards away but in the last fifty yards or so Jeanette Dale, coming apparently from nowhere and on the outside, trotted up on even terms with C. Albert and in the last fifty yards outfooted the favorite to win by a head. The Willard Kelly-driven mare paid $12.60 for a $2 ticket on the pari-mutuels.
