Mr. Hallett, who is a very successful business man, has accepted the position of manager of the new plant, which is being erected in Summerside for the Central Creameries Ltd., of Charlottetown. Mr. Hallett will continue with the O'Leary Dairy Company the present. Mr. and Mrs. H. are very popular and will be welcomed as desirable additions to the social life of Summerside. S.

—LAD TO REST—The remains of Mrs. John R. Harding, who passed away last Friday, were laid to rest on Saturday afternoon beside those of her infant child in the Malpeque Cemetery. The funeral services were held at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. Brander, at Baltic, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Grant, of Malpeque, assisted by Rev. J. P. C. Fraser, of Summerside, and Rev. Mr. Williams of Malpeque. Mr. Charles Woodside, of Malpeque, a cousin of the deceased, sang her favourite hymn, "Some Time We Will Understand." The Malpeque choir rendered very beautifully other favourite hymns of the deceased. "He Leadeth Me"; "Rock of Ages"; "Asleep in Jesus." The funeral was one of the largest ever seen at Baltic, friends from far and near coming to pay their last tribute of respect. The floral tributes were as follows:—Pillow from the family; Pillow from the staff of Messrs. R. T. Holman; Cresset from Trinity United Church; Spray from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsay; Sheaf from Mrs. Leslie McNutt. Attending the funeral from Alberton were Mr. George Wallis, an uncle of the deceased, his daughter, Mrs. John Callaghan, Mr. Albert Wallis and Mrs. Charles McBeth.

..An unfortunate accident occurred at Georgetown on Saturday, Sept. 14, when Fred Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jenkins, and Russel Yorston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hughie Yorston were coming out the door of the old Custom office, the Gable end fell on them, which buried Fred Jenkins among the lumber. He was bruised quite badly but no bones broken, Russel Yorston's knee was badly hurt but no bones broken. They were taken to the Doctor who dressed their injuries. Both boys are getting along nicely.—A.

..Seldom does the Angel of Death cast such a sadness over a home and locality as when it came to claim the soul of Ida Parker aged 2 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Parker of Georgetown Royalty, who passed away at the P. E. I. Hospital, on Sept. 16, after a short illness. All that medical skill and kind nursing was done but God willed otherwise although called away in the prime of life she shall be long be remembered by her many friends. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing father and mother, two sisters and one brother. The esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the large number who followed her remains to St.

David's Cemetery, Rev. C. U. McNeill, officiating. The United choir sang, "When he cometh;" There is a happy Land." There were many beautiful Floral tributes. The pall-bearers were, Gordon Douglas, Oliver Ross, James Keenan John D. Morrison.—A.
