A quarter of an hour after these boats had left Cape Traverse, six boats left Cape Tormentine to make the trip to the Island; they arrived at Cape Traverse at half-past eleven o'clock, bringing 13 bags of mails and one passenger.

EXCELLENT PUBLICITY—This is exactly what has been already achieved and is being still further attained by the comprehensive and important leaflet which has been issued on the fox industry of the Island by the Publicity Agent for this Province, Mr. J. E. B. McCready. In sending copies of this informative and authoritative publication, to various newspapers on this and the other continents, Mr. McCready has done a good thing for the industry in regard to the dissemination near and far of reliable information of this wonderfully growing business that had its origin in this province. There is at least one concrete instance of this recently. In the Daily Evening News of Providence, Rhode Island, of recent date, Mr. McCready's circular was reprinted in a prominent position. The good that this may do may be gauged from the fact that as learned from private correspondence there is a great deal of interest manifested in Rhode Island in the fox business. In any case, it was a fine advertisement, without doubt.

KEEP WHISTLING

Keep whistling! It's better than pausing to curse, and tearing your sweater, and raising a fuss. No woe e'er was banished by swear words and howls, no troubles e'er vanished because of your scowls; they'll hang on the longer on finding you sore; they'll thrive and grow stronger and vex you the more. Keep whistling! It's wiser than taking a club and scolding Elmer, who's late with the sweater, and raising a fuss.
