CHARLOTTETOWN AND ELSEWHERE

It pays to buy in this province (From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

J. A. Messervey, Charlottetown, is in Halifax.

Mrs. J. F. Crockett and son Everett of Portland, Maine, are visiting in York the guests of Lemuel and Mrs. Crockett.

Roy Crockett, Malpeque, has returned home after spending the week in York the guest of his uncle, Lemuel Crockett.

A. Douglas Jeffrey of the Bank of New Brunswick, left this morning for a trip through Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia.—Fredericton Exc.

There will be no service in the Cathedral or Fairview Baptist Churches Sunday, the 18th, as the pastor will be in Montserrat attending the centennial services of that church.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed at Churchhill Sunday, August 18th. There will be preparatory services on Thursday at two-thirty and on Saturday at six.

Mrs. Peter Gavin of Spokane, Wash., who is spending part of the summer season with Alex. and Mrs. McDonald, Charlottetown, went west this morning to visit at the home of Hon. Chas. and Mrs. Daiton, Tignish.

Mrs. A. B. Carter, severe, Mass., accompanied by her little daughter Eleanor, left last week on a two months' visit to her summer residence at Wellington. Before returning she will visit her old home at Waterford. While there she will be the guest of Edward and Mrs. Ellsworth.

At a very enjoyable birthday party held at the home of James and Mrs. Pratt, Pownal, in honor of their daughter Elizabeth, a host of friends presented her with a useful handbag. Music was furnished by Sherrick Jarline, John McInnis and John Praught, violinists. It was not until the early hours of the morning that they departed to their homes, having spent a very enjoyable time.

The bucket of the D. G. Dredge Montague, now operating in Souris harbor, was broken Monday evening by coming in contact with rock and brick clay. The bucket was taken to Charlottetown Tuesday morning by the tug F. M. Batt, where it has been repaired and was shipped back last night. It is expected that operations will be resumed this morning.

The steamer Trinidad arrived in port at eight o'clock yesterday morning after a very rough passage from Quebec, via shore ports and Charlottetown, and was prevented by the heavy head winds and fog from going up the Saguenay. Monday night she ran into heavy weather and came into port yesterday morning after a strenuous trip. The Trinidad had 161 passengers and sailed for New York yesterday afternoon at four o'clock.—Halifax Exc.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

Misses Helen and Marion Bearisto, Charlottetown, were passengers by the Northumberland this morning en route to Sydney, C. B.

Dan M. Dougall who spent the summer at his old home in Canoe Cove left Friday for Boston, Mass. He was accompanied by Archibald N. Campbell who will visit friends and relatives in Somerville, Cambridge, East Boston and other cities in Massachusetts.

The S. S. Manchester Port which left Liverpool, Eng., twelve days ago with 20,000 bags of salt for Carvell Bros., Charlottetown, arrived here about 8 o'clock this morning and is now at the Railway wharf discharging. She is expected to finish the latter part of the week and leave here some time Saturday night.

Referring to the accidental death of J. W. S. Duncan, formerly of this Province, previously reported in The Guardian, an Edmonton despatch says:—J. W. S. Duncan, aged 21, a law student who came to Edmonton from Lethbridge a month ago, was drowned at Lake Athabasca, west of here, this morning, by the swamping of the canoe in which he and Don Kent, a companion, were paddling.

A very quiet, but pretty wedding, took place at the home of Edward and Mrs. Williams, Bideford, when their eldest daughter, Nina, was united in marriage to L. McLean McNevin, son of Laughlin McNevin, Tyne Valley. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Leard in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives of the families. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father and looked very charming in a costume of white embroidered net over white silk. The groom is a very popular young man, being for several years cheese-manufacturer in Tyne Valley factory. The steem in which both parties are held was amply testified to by the many useful gifts sent on the occasion of their marriage. A regular old-time chivalrous party, composed of the young people of the vicinity, assembled for a time made things interesting by their ridiculous costumes and grotesque antics. After enjoying themselves to the full, they departed in orderly fashion well pleased with the hospitality shown them, and with many expressions of good wishes for the young couple they had come to serenade and to these are added similar good wishes from their hosts of friends here and elsewhere.

"Our line of confectionery is complete. We have everything you could want in boxed and bulk chocolates, caramels, kisses and choice old candy made and put up in the Old Country. Our confectionery is always absolutely pure and fresh. You are sure of getting the best here. The McKinnon Drug Co., corner St. George and Kent Sts. 8-14MtHt.

FINE CUT GLASS

Purchasers of cut glass need to make sure that they are getting the genuine article.

We know that there is being marketed by manufacturers who are considered reliable a line of so called cut glass in which the pattern is really pressed, and afterwards touched up and polished on a wheel.

Our Cut Glass
is fully cut. When the cutter takes a piece in hand it is perfectly plain on both sides and every line is cut and polished by hand.

We control for Charlottetown, the product of the oldest and largest Canadian factory, and feel that we have the very best cut glass to offer our patrons.
