Annual Gathering Of Clans Largely Attended

The annual gathering of the Clans of Prince Edward Island met with much success at Ugg yesterday afternoon when a huge crowd gathered there to participate in and witness their annual Highland Games under the sponsorship of the Caledonian Club.

Before the games got underway, Chief W.H. Beaton, the presiding chairman, introduced Rev. Mr. Fraser, District Pastor, who made a brief but hearty welcome to a brief but hearty welcome to the visiting clansmen, after which Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell also made a fitting address of welcome to the gathering.

Before calling upon Dean Shaw to address the gathering, Chief Justice Campbell paid a warm tribute to the guest speaker, in which he stated that he was a Gaelic scholar and poet, excellent piper, singer and has the signal honor of being Secretary of the Gaelic Society of Scotland for 36 years and a member of that society for 40 years.

Dean Shaw, on behalf of his wife and himself, expressed pleasure at being present at the gathering. He said "It is a great occasion for my wife and myself to be at this meeting on your beautiful Prince Edward Island, and added they would be looking forward to returning again sometime."

He spoke glowingly of the Gaelic tradition and paid tribute to the fine way in which the "island" was upholding those traditions. "This gathering," he said, "is reminiscent of those at home and when we return to Scotland they will remain as reminders of your beautiful island."

The guest speaker's closing remarks were "God Bless you all and long may you be able to keep up the traditions of Bonnie Scotland."

The final speaker was Rev. Dr. Malcolm MacKenzie who also extended his warm greetings to the day with a prayer on the spot, second in the hammer throw, tossing the caber and 100 yard dash, and third in the running broad jump.

Egg Production Holding Up Well
Egg production on Prince Edward Island continues to hold up well for this season of the year, reports Mr. F. M. Nash, supervising poultry products inspector. Quality is fair and the bulk of the eggs continue to move to Maritime and Ontario centres. The market has lost some of its strength and local dealers have reduced their prices and are now quoting operators of the graded stations for the graded pack f.o.b. station:

Grade A Large 65, Grade B 44, operators of grading stations are quoting producers for ungraded eggs, Grade A Large 59-61, Grade B 38-39, wholesalers and special price producers are quoting retailers for the cartoned graded pack, Grade A Large 68-71, Grade B Loose 47.

There has been a drop of two cents in the No. 1's but other grades remain the same. Quality of chicken is only fair with the result the bulk of receipts are graded B and C. Dealers are quoting for chickens, live over six pounds No. 1's 26, No. 2's 15, five to six pounds, No. 1's 23, No. 2's 13, fowl over six pounds, No. 1's 23, No. 2's 10, dressed chicken 5-1-2 pounds up M. F. A. 36, B 33, C 21, fowl five pounds and up, Grade A 25, B 23, O. 18.

Find Suicide Note In Farm Home Shootings

MAKINAK, Man., Aug. 10.—(CP)—A 44-year-old woman who yesterday killed her four young sons in their rural northwestern Manitoba farm home and then turned a gun on herself was described today as possessed of an insane fear for the children's bodies.

The bullet-shattered bodies of Mrs. Mary Walz and the four children were found by the husband and father, 61-year-old Jacob Walz, shortly after breakfast. Crumpled in a bedroom with Mrs. Walz were Gordon and Kenneth, 12-year-old twins, Lucien, eight, and Leon, four.

Dr. R.L. Gendreau, district coroner, said a suicide note found near the bodies read: "I am sorry I have to do this to the children but if I didn't, they would be in the fire in a few days."

The note was believed written by one of the boys at his mother's dictation. She was unable to write.

Although not addressed, the note was believed meant for Walz. At the bottom was scrawled "Mary."

The coroner said indications were that the children died willingly at their mother's hand. There was no explanation, however, as to what was meant by saving them "from the fire." Dr. Gendreau said the woman had been mentally ill for about six months.

In an interview later the nearly-16-year-old son said his mother who was "always good to the children. She took real good care of them."

He said she had been "sick" for about two weeks but appeared all right at breakfast Tuesday.

British's Vampire Slayer Hanged

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(AP)—John George Haigh, vampire slayer of nine persons who drank the blood of his victims, was hanged today in bubbling acid, plunged today to his death through a hangman's trap.

The 40-year-old business man who killed for profit, was hanged at London's Wandsworth Prison. A crowd of 500 waited outside the gates for the posting of the official notice that he had paid with his life.

The nature of his killings assured him a place in the annals of British crime. As soon as the hanging was announced, an effigy of Haigh was set up in the Chamber of Horrors at Madame Tinsaud's waxworks where figures of the famous and the notorious are kept in a museum.

R. G. M. F. and volunteers were attempting to drag for bodies but the undertow was so strong that it was difficult to keep boats under control. One boat was thrown back on the beach by the breaker.

Dragging operations will continue throughout the night. None of the bodies has been recovered. Miners lined the beach for about a mile to keep an all-night vigil.

STRONG FRENCH

Britain, France and the closer countries would have the bulk of the short-range attack, bombardment and air defence, Bradley added.

Truman's program provides $1,160,000,000 to buy arms for Western Europe and stimulate its own arms production. In addition, it would send surplus surplus arms that originally cost $450,000,000.

Bradley spoke today for the chief-of-staff of the United States Army, Navy and Air Force—himself, Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, and Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg. They returned Tuesday from a flying trip to Europe, during which they inspected American forces and discussed the military staff to be set up under the North Atlantic Alliance.

Bradley urged that Congress approve the full program proposed by Truman.

Larger Tree Fruit Crop This Year

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—(CP)—Canada will have larger tree fruit crops this year, but fewer berries. That is the word from the Bureau of Statistics following a second estimate on fruit production, based on crop conditions in mid-July.

The apple crop now is expected to amount to 16,216,000 bushels. This is a drop of 654,000 bushels from the first estimate, but it is an increase of 21 per cent over the 1948 crop of 13,404,000 bushels. Apple crop prospects improved from June to July in New Brunswick, Quebec and British Columbia. They deteriorated in Nova Scotia and Ontario, but the estimates for the two Provinces remain above those for 1948.

Present estimate for the pear harvest is 905,000 bushels, an increase of 15 per cent over 1948. Outlook for the plum and prune crops is also better, with production expected to reach 781,000 bushels, an increase of 16 per cent over 1948. The peach crop now is set at 1,994,000 bushels, an increase of 13 per cent.

Production of strawberries is set at 25,681,000 quarts, a drop of 23 per cent from last year's figure of 33,280,000. Raspberry production also shows a sharp decline, being estimated at 10,979,000 quarts against 16,877,000.
