Great VIOLIN Values

We are overstocked with violins and to make room for other goods we are compelled to clear out most of our line at a discount of 25 per cent.

There is nothing trashy about these violins—they are all well made by masters, are finished beautifully, are well fitted and have a beautiful, mellow, pleasing tone. All our line is included in this sale, from the cheap but good $2.50 instrument to our leader, the $20. one—all go at a reduction of 25 per cent. These violins will be cleared out quickly so you'd better ACT NOW.

The return fare is only 50 cents and the train leaves Charlottetown 9 a. m.
J. J. McLeod, now in Sydney Mines was in the city yesterday, returning from a visit to his old home and friends in Orapaud, Hampton and Hartsville. He and Mrs. McLeod left the city yesterday for Montague and will there take the S. S. Enterprise to Port Hood and drive from the latter place to their home. Mr. McLeod has his own team and has so far had the most enjoyable trip of his life. He says he has never seen the Island looking as beautiful and as prolific as this summer and especially about Charlottetown. The hosts of friends of Mr and Mrs. McLeod are delighted to see them again and to learn that all is prospering with them.
A very pretty wedding took place on the 14th inst., at the home of George and Mrs. Robinson, 223 Feath avenue east, when their niece, Miss May B. McKenzie, eldest daughter of George and Mrs. McKenzie, of Hillsboro, P. E. I., and formerly principal of New Glasgow school, was united in marriage to Henry Boyver McLean, son of Rev. Daniel McLean of Charlottetown, formerly principal of the McDonald Consolidated school at Hillsboro, now principal of the "George Jay" school at Victoria B. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. Keeby in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends. The bride was prettily gowned in cream silk and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. She was given away by her uncle, G. M. Robinson. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and beautiful presents, which testify to the popularity of the young couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold bracelet. After a sumptuous repast the happy couple left on the west bound train for a trip through the mountains, stopping off at points en route, Vancouver, etc thence to Victoria, where they will reside at 1452 Pandora avenue. The bride's going away gown was of Rajah silk with hat to match.—The Morning Albertan, Calgary.
