GREENAN - GOLF - Wednesday morning, July 14th at 7:30 a.m., St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, Lot Five, was the scene of one of the prettiest of July weddings when Reverend Michael Rooney united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holsten Goff of Coleman, and Frederick, son of Mr. James Greenan and the late Mrs. Greenan of Kelly's Cross.

The bride was charming in a floor-length gown of white satin, with over-skirt of white net adorned with satin bows, and a shoulder length veil which was held in place by a rounded crown of pearls. Her only ornaments were a triple strand of pearls with matching earrings. She carried a large bouquet including American Beauty roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marie Corcoran, cousin of the bride, wore a floor length dress of ivory organdy over white satin with shoulder length veil. She also carried a large floral bouquet.

Mr. James B. MacDonald was best man. The main altar of the church was beautifully decorated with numerous bouquets of the most popular spring flowers.

Mr. Cyrus Gallant played the wedding march and presided at the organ during the nuptial Mass. Mr. Pius Finnian was the soloist.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party and their immediate relatives and friends, motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served.

The bride's table was prettily decorated with roses and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom.

After breakfast, the bridal party left by motor on a tour of the province. On their return a reception was held at the home of William Greenan, Bras, where a ices commemorating the 130th anniversary of the Bedeque Church was held last Sunday July 18th. In the morning a Memorial service was conducted by Rev. E.S. Weeks, now retired, residing in Bedeque. The names of the 44 deceased ministers who preached here during the past 130 years were read. Suitable scripture was read and prayers of thanksgiving were offered. The guest preacher was Rev. George Ayers, retired, Summerside. Mr. Ayers although over eighty spoke with force and made a fine impression. Among those present were Mr. Hammond Johnson, widow of Rev. Mr. Johnson who was pastor here from 1910 to 1914, and Miss Alice Harrison, daughter of the late William Harrison who was minister here from 1889 to 1892. It is worthy of note that Mrs. Johnson is a daughter of Rev. George Harrison who served this congregation from 1880 to 1883. In the evening Rev. R.W. Barker was heard with such acceptance. His sermon was on Thanksgiving, which was the theme for the day. The music was also of a high order. The soloist was Mrs. L.M. Calbeck, Summerside.

A very large crowd attended the bingo and dance in the Wellington Station Hall on Wednesday night, July 14th.
