—ENTERTAINED — Mr. A. E. MacLean, M. P., and Mrs. MacLean entertained at dinner given to a number of friends in the Parliamentary Restaurant of the House of Commons a few days ago. Among those present were, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Callbeck, formerly of Prince Edward Island. Mr. Callbeck is in the Law Branch of the Department of National Revenue and a brother of Mr. James Callbeck of Lincolnton, P. E. I.

—SERIOUS CHARGE — About 9.30 last Friday night, shortly after arrival of the train at Richmond, Mr. James Gillis left Messrs. Arsenault & Gaudet's store there in the company of a man named Arsenault. About half a mile down the road the latter produced a bottle and offered Mr. Gillis a drink. When this was refused, he knocked Mr. Gillis down, jumped upon him and robbed him. He claims of $73.00 in cash, a watch and a box of war medals and buttons, which he very highly prized. On Monday morning Sheriff Wright was notified at Summerside that Arsenault had been driven by his brother-in-law down to the car

PRINCE EDWARD SIX TIMES STRONGER FOX NETTING

Prince Edward Fox Netting is made principally for use in the salt-laden air of the Maritime Provinces and is extra heavily galvanized before weaving and after, making each twist in each mesh a brazed and welded immoveable joint; every mesh is true to size and strongly woven while the Netting is further strengthened by extra strands of wire on top, bottom and ends. Every roll has a guaranteed length of 150 feet, and opens out flat and smooth, making a straight non-bagging and non-sagging wall when erected.
