

For Coughs

We know a remedy over sixty years old. Thousands of people have never been without it during all these years. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and colds. The more you consult your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the better for you, and the better for us as well. Ask him all about it.

The Northumberland arrived from Pictou at 8.30 last night.

The tide will be high this morning at 7.53 and tomorrow morning at 9.07.

William A. McKee, returns to Moncton today from a visit to this City.

Dr. D. T. McKay and James Kier of Kensington came to the city last night.

Professors J. A. McDonald of Prince of Wales College, and bride arrived in this city from Boston last night by the mail train.

A typographical error in W. W. Wellner's ad yesterday changed the price of a fifteen jewel watch from seventy five to one seventy five. It now appears correctly today.

Among those registered at the Queen Hotel, City, yesterday were Miss Flora Donaldson, Scotland; S. J. Hamblro, St. John; Walter Nash, Toronto; W. J. Anderson, Morel and Geo. Buxton, Cape Traverse.

Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and The Rural Daily not later than ten a. m. on Friday of each week as part of the big Saturday issue is printed on Friday.

The fifth of the intermediate football games was played yesterday afternoon at the C. A. A. grounds between the P. W. C. and Acadies. The game started at 4.15 with Prof. A. W. Seaman as referee. During the first half it was a tight game and no score was made but the Acadies had to rise for safety once. The second half was more in favor of P. W. C. and about five minutes from time they scored. During the remainder of the game it was mostly scrim work and no more scores were made, the game ending with a score of 3 to 0 in favor of P. W. C.

Quite an interesting event took place on Oct. 14th, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Clarence McKinnon, pastor of New Westminster Presbyterian Church, Winnipeg, when Tena MacDonald, formerly of Sydney, was united in marriage to Neil A. Darrach, Jean Ferguson, formerly of Manchester, E. I., acted as bridesmaid, while Peter MacLeod, formerly of Ponsshaw, P. E. I., ably supported the groom. After luncheon prepared by Mrs. McKinnon, the happy couple left for their home at 314 Colony St. The presents were numerous and costly as both bride and groom are very popular in their adopted home. N. A. Darrach referred to above is a native of New Haven, P. E. I., and has resided in the West for the past six years.

Bayview cottage the home of Mrs. Charles McWilliams, Eldon, was gay with flags and bunting yesterday to do honor to the marriage of her daughter Miss Florence to John M. McDonald of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. D. McPhee in the presence of only the immediate relatives, after which luncheon was served. The bride was given away by her brother Albert McWilliams, and wore her mother's wedding dress of silk in which she looked most charming. The groom's present to the bride was an elegant set of mink furs. Among other presents received was a very substantial amount of gold and bills, cut glass, silver, and numerous other dainty and useful remembrances from friends. The bride's travelling costume was of brown broadcloth with hat to match. During the afternoon the happy couple drove to this city, where their numerous city friends called on them. Tomorrow they leave for their home in Vancouver by way of Portsmouth, Boston and Niagara Falls. The Guardian joins in very best wishes for a long happy life.

On the evening of October 27th, a large number of friends assembled at the home of Peter L. and Mrs. Murphy, Emerald, that being the occasion of a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Murphy previous to their departure for their new home in Nevada. After the guests of the evening had arrived, Joseph W. Clarke read an appropriate address during which Mr. Murphy was presented with a valuable pipe and Mrs. Murphy with a handsome dressing case. Mr. Murphy although taken completely by surprise, made a neat reply, couched in well chosen and touching words, assuring his friends that their beautiful presents would ever remain priceless in his possession, and would recall the pleasant associations of his former home. He said no matter where he journeyed, or what new friends he formed, Emerald would ever be considered his home and that these new friends could never replace in his heart those with whom his youth had been associated in his beloved Prince Edward Island. The guests were then invited to the dining room where a beautiful repast was served in Mrs. Murphy's usual good style, after which all repaired to the reception room where speeches that were eloquent and ever appropriate were delivered by Peter Duffy, Pat. Kelly, James McKenna, William Clarke, Pat. Duffy, P. F. Hughes, John Moran, Alex. Mathieson, J. R. Murphy, Michael Clarke, John Mathieson, P. A. McMahon and P. Duffy.

"You can make richer, more fragrant, more delicious tea if you use "Salada." One teaspoonful mashes two cups. Use absolutely boiling water. Steep five minutes."

With the cold season comes the demand for fresh fish on the New York Market and as Prince Edward Island has made a name for itself in this line A. W. Hall, wholesale commission dealer, 12 Fulton Market, New York, is this year as in the past, soliciting from Provincial shippers. With Mr. Hall's thorough knowledge of the trade requirements he can give very useful information to all who do business with him, as he is most desirous of securing consignments of lobsters, smelts and cels of which he makes a specialty. As will be seen by his ad he does business through his transfer agents S. B. Wiley & Co., Boston.

Rev. S. Howard, president of the Conference, has received a telegram from Rev. Dr. W. H. Harts, president of the Nova Scotia Conference, telling of the death of Rev. F. H. W. Pickles, formerly a well known Methodist clergyman in this province. He died at his home in Lawrence town, N. S., Monday. The deceased was one of the oldest ministers in the Methodist connection. He was ordained just 50 years ago, and was in active work for 43 years. During the past 7 years he has been on the supernumary list. While in the N. B. and P. E. Island conference Rev. Mr. Pickles was pastor of the Portland Street Methodist church in this city and of the Carleton Methodist church. He was a son of Rev. Michael Pickles, who was also at one time pastor of the Portland street Methodist church. A brother, Rev. Frederick Pickles, is in a United States conference. One son and one daughter of the deceased survive him.—St. John Globe. Mr. Pickles is well known in this Province.
