THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.
CALENDAR—Buntain Bell & Co., Charlottetown, have the Guardian's thanks for an exceedingly nice calendar.

C. B. C. SUCCESS—Successful everywhere, and failures nowhere is the record of those who have taken a course in the Charlottetown Business College.

1913 FOR C. B. C.—1913 will be the greatest year in the history of the Charlottetown Business College, and no pains is being spared to make it such.

FUNERAL TODAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Fraser, who died in Boston will take place today at 2 p. m. from the residence of her mother, Mrs. Donald McKinnon of Hazel Grove.

SAD DEATH—Capt Joseph Ryan, Charlottetown, has received a message telling of the death in St. John, N. B., of his brother Peter Ryan. The deceased left P. E. Island forty years ago and has since been a resident of St. John where he followed the occupation of a contractor. Capt Ryan's many friends will sympathize with him in his bereavement.

ELECT OFFICERS—Refuge Division No 301, St. O. T., Fredrecton, is in a flourishing condition—the meetings being largely attended with the determination to fight the Liquor traffic. The programs are always of the deepest interest. The following officers have been elected for the current quarter, W. F. Hedley B Weeks, W. A. Wm. Buchanan, R. S.—Annie Weeks, A. R. S.—Dawson Stevenson, F. S.—Andrew Stevenson, Treasurer, Elmer Baguel, Chap.—Mrs. H. Weeks, Cond.—Pope Warren, A. Cond.—Benj. Weeks, I. S.—Heber Weeks, O. S.—Waldon Bertram, P. W. P.—B. H. Racham...

NEW YEAR'S DAY—New Years Day was quietly observed in Charlottetown. The weather was anything but agreeable, there being a down-pour of rain all day. This, however, did not to any appreciable extent interfere with the calling which was quite general and, as usual, agreeable. A large number paid their respects to Mrs. Rogers and His Honor Governor Rogers at Government House. Owing to the exceedingly mild weather the skating rink was off duty to the disappointment of many. A number of enthusiasts essayed Government Pond but found it more suitable for boating than skating and were obliged to seek elsewhere for recreation.

FREDRECTON—Many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. B. H. Racham of Fredrecton, has recovered after a serious illness. What might have resulted in a very serious accident occurred on the evening of the 23rd, inst. when a party of two ladies and a gentleman were returning to their homes after attending the Xmas tree and concert held in the Methodist Church, Pleasant Valley. The horse made a dash forward breaking the king bolt of the carriage and hurled the occupants to the ground but fortunately escaped uninjured. The frightened animal with the two front wheels and shafts was brought before further damage was done, some distance from the scene of the accident.—Wm. Buchanan, Fredrecton, spent Christmas with friends in Hunter River.

We have an excellent assortment of the famous Diana Bon-Bons. This confectionery is made in Germany, and is exceptionally pure and tasty. McKinnon Drug Co., Corner Great St. B. A. Foster, Central Drugstore. 1-2mtf.

THIS ISSUE—The Guardian always has something of interest in every column, and today's issue of fourteen pages is no exception to the rule, page thirteen containing some of the latest local news.

HORSES SHIPPED—Thos. P. Caas of North River shipped to Geo. B. Phelan of Milford, N. S., yesterday morning by the Earl Grey two of the finest heavy draft horses that have left P. E. I. for years.

ORWELL HEAD—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed at Orwell Head next Sabbath, Jan 4th, at 11 a. m. Preparatory service will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. Concluding service Sabbath evening at 6 o'clock.

WEDDING BELLS—The marriage of Miss Elsie McNeill of Ladner, B. C., to Hanford Lewis, which took place on Dec. 18th is announced. Miss McNeill was very well known in Charlottetown and throughout the Province as a most capable school-teacher.

CORRECTION—The news in Tuesday's Morning Daily referring to the Inward Trains, The Earl Grey, Corrects Map, Wedding Bells and Beautiful Music were copied from Monday's Evening Daily and should have been thus credited, as otherwise the date was misleading.

COMPLETELY RECOVERED—William D. King, of Manomet, Mass, who has made annual fishing and hunting trips to P. E. Island under the guidance of Robert Jenkins, Marston, has completely recovered from his accident on the Morell River last spring. He is as enthusiastic as ever and expresses his intention of revisiting the Island next year.

PROFITABLE CONCERT—At the recent concert held in the C. M. B. A. Hall at Vernon River, the proceeds amounted to $24.50 which will go towards procuring a library for the Vernon River School. Much credit is due those who took part especially the school children and teacher it being their first appearance on the stage.
