Trading Boom Looms In Big Leagues With All Clubs But Yanks Eager For New Material

NEW YORK, Oct. 14—The hot stove league opened its season today on a baseball situation bearing all the earmarks for one of the busiest trading sessions in years.

From end to end of the big leagues, with the possible exception of the world champion New York Yankees, who are satisfied with things as they are, it looked like the ivory will be moved around in wholesale lots. The dealings in diamond material were touched off last week when Cardinals gave one-for-four in a highly profitable piece of business with Brooklyn Dodgers, but that was only the start.

Most talk at the moment revolved around the uniforms of Van Lingle Mungo and Dizzy Dean will be wearing next season, as well as the changes rumored in store for the National League pennant-winning Giants.

When the Terry Terriers finished getting their ears knocked off by the Yanks in the World Series, there was considerable rumor that several members of the current cast would be hanging their hats in new locker rooms, come 1938.

Hank Leiber, the power-hitting center fielder; Hal Schumacher, the right hander who hasn't been in too good terms with boss Bill Terry; and even Melvin Ott, idol of the Polo Grounds, have been mentioned as trading bait.

Incidentally, if you listen to the chatter, will be Mungo, Brooklyn's temperamental fireballer, who spent most of the 1937 season nursing his rage (and a bankroll sliced by suspension) down in the black hills of South Carolina, after rowing with the Dodgers. There is also rumor that Diz Dean, after his most disastrous season, will move in from St. Louis to Coogan's Bluff, the Giants' wigwam.

But Chicago Cubs may have something to say about that. If you listened to the talk behind the scenes during the series you could have heard lots of the "experts" telling that the Cubs are ready to lay it on the line for the "great one."

Playing No Favorites
Certain it is, that the Cubs are playing no favorites in making over the team that couldn't hold its lead in the National League race. Shortstop Bill Jurgis, pitcher Larry French and walloping outfielder Frank Demaree have been brought in in discussions Cub officials have had with both St. Louis Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds. And it is known the Cubs have had longings eyes for some time on Mungo or Dean or both.

The Giants could use more power in their lineup. So could Brooklyn Dodgers, who were a woful sight for most of the '37 campaign. The Brooklyns already will let Mungo on the block and will let him go in return for some lads who can flail that ball—as well as a bundle of cash. If they deal with the Cubs, Demaree is a pinch to be included in any negotiations.

Whether the Giants will renew their trade talk of last spring with the Phillies remains to be seen. They liked the looks of both Dolph Camilli, first baseman, and pitcher Claude Passeau at that time. If they open the dealing again, there's a chance Sambo Leslie or Johnny McCarthy, both first sack-ers, Leiber, and a pitcher will be mentioned.

To Take The Lid Off
Up in Boston, the Red Sox are ready to take the lid off again. Owner Tom Yawkey, woefully disappointed that his first $3,000,000 didn't produce much in the way of results, is set to remove the rubber from around his bankroll. The Bees, on the other hand, are willing to trade for a third baseman and a clotting flycatcher. They're also in the market for a manager, where it's Tony Lazzeri, Rabbit Maranville or someone else.

Connie Mack, after several seasons of selling, has been quoted as ready to make some cash outlay to bolster the likely looking youngsters he brought into his Athletics last season.

The Cardinals, after obtaining Joe Stripp, Johnny Cooney, Jim Bucher and Roy Henshaw from the Dodgers, may use one or all as trading bait, particularly, if you believe the rumor, Stripp in a deal with the Giants.

Need Everything
Cincinnati's Reds need lots of everything. What with Kiki Cuyler retiring, and may try to trade off some of their up-and-coming rookies. Detroit's Tigers are supposed to be eyeing Washington Senators to make up for their lack of pitching, particularly those flinging rookies brought up by Washington late in '37.

Fights Will Continue Until K. O. Decision
Joe MacDonald, generalissimo of boxing hereabouts, came to bat last night with an announcement which should move with general approval of fistic fans. He declared that the "no foul rule" in vogue in New York State boxing circles will be invoked in all his future cards commencing next Tuesday night thus insuring fans against any future "beatings" such as attended them the last fight fiasco.

Should a boxer go down claiming a foul a physician will be called upon to make an examination and if the result bears out the claimant's contention he will be awarded the round and given time to recuperate from the blow before continuing the fight.

This move, no doubt, will be welcomed and will guarantee fans no bout will be called until a k. o. or technical k. o. has been awarded.

Beaton Leaves To Join Bruins
NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Oct. 14 (CP)—Jole Beaton, flashy New Glasgow hockey player who starred with the Charlottetown Abegweits in the Maritime "Big Four" league, left today to join the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League. He will train with the professional team at Hershey, Pa.

The minor bulbs, such as the araucus, scillas and grape hyacinths, are fine colorful materials for the rock garden.

Rovers Return Confident Of Taking Series

Charlottetown Rovers arrived from Stellarton, N.S., last night confident they could defeat the Stellarton Monarchs, here in a doubleheader, and win the semi-final round for the Maritime senior football title as well as the right to play-off with Moncton, N. B., All-Stars for the three-province championship.

As far as could be learned the Rovers will meet the Monarchs in the second game at Victoria Park diamond early Monday afternoon and a doubleheader will be played if necessary to decide a winner.

The Charlottetownians absorbed an 11-2 defeat in the first game at the Nova Scotia champions' diamond. The game was played on wet grounds and the latter part in semi-darkness. The Rovers predicted Charlottetown wins for their own field—especially with an early start and good weather.

Ching Johnson In New York Seeking Job

NEW YORK, Oct. 13—Hockey's glamour man, Ivan (Ching) Johnson, erstwhile defenseman of New York Rangers, strode through Manhattan throngs today prepared, he announced, to snare any worthwhile opportunity in the puck-chasing business that crosses his path.

To a rendezvous with the press yesterday, Johnson strode past baseball, football, boxing and rodeo fans suddenly made hockey conscious by the presence of New York's outstanding idol of the rink sport.

He said it was true he had been offered the coaching position for Hershey of the United States Eastern Amateur League but that the bid came in mid-summer when he did not have his release from Rangers. All he knew about reports he could have the job of coaching Rovers, U. S. E. L. farm club of Rangers, he said, came from indirect sources. He had not declined the opportunity, he added, because no direct offer had been made him.

Several other N. H. L. teams were rumored angling for Johnson's service but Ching said the same situation existed in that no direct approaches had been made.

Amateur Stars Get Try Out With Leafs

TORONTO, Oct. 14—(CP)—When Toronto Maple Leafs begin their training grind at Galt, Ont., next week three of last year's amateur stars will go along for try-outs.

The trio are Pete Langelle, sensational centre ice performer with Winnipeg Monarchs who won the Dominion junior title last spring. Roy Heximer, Niagara Falls product who played with Copper Cliff Juniors, runners-up to Monarchs for the junior title, and Bill Jennings, who was with the Toronto's senior champions, Dominions, last season. Both Heximer and Jennings are right wingers.

Near Relation Favorite For Cesarewitch

LONDON, Oct. 14—(CP Cable)—Sir Alfred Butt's Near Relation today was quoted favorite at 100 to 9 for the Cesarewitch to be run at Newmarket Oct. 27.

Other odds in the Victoria Club callover were: Epigram, 13 to 1; Punch, 15 to 1; Harewood, 100 to 6; Maranta, Buckleigh and Solar Bear, 18 to 1; Fet and Miss Windsor, 20 to 1; Nightcap III, 22 to 1; Muscovado, Weatherhane and Correa, 25 to 1; Dytchley and Organeau, 40 to 1; Haulfryn, 50 to 1.

Trinidad Threat Starts Cricket Controversy

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana Oct. 14—(CP Cable)—A threat by Queens Park Cricket Club, governing body in Trinidad cricket, that they would be unable to send any more teams to British Guiana for intercolonial cricket matches unless the Georgetown Cricket Club provided "adequate safeguards against the scandalous behavior of British Guiana crowds" was received with resentment here tonight.

(British Guiana won the inter-colonial crown when they defeated Trinidad by two wickets here last week.)

Hon. F. J. Seaford, president of the Georgetown club, declined to comment until he had received the full facts of the Trinidad complaint, but the Georgetown Chronicle published a sarcastic editorial today under the caption, "They Can't Take It."

During the lean years when British Guiana teams were consistently defeated, people here always started their post-mortems of the matches with the premise that the best team won, says the Chronicle, adding that the complaints of the Trinidad team suggest "they are casting around for excuses."

UNIMPRESSED
Two farmers were standing on the station platform when a lady passed, dressed in the height of fashion.

"There, George," said one, "what's think o' that, lad?"

George eyed the stylish lady for a few minutes and then said: "Ay, well, it's poor ground that takes so much top dressing."

Pitt And Fordham Set For Annual "Battle Of Futility" Saturday At Polo Grounds

(By Paul Mickelson, Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Oct. 14—On the same Polo Ground green, where the Giants made their final, feeble stand against the Yankees, United States college football's annual "battle of futility" will be played Saturday between the hell-roaring Panthers of Pittsburgh and the bucking Rams of dear old Fordham.

For two years now the game, ballyhooed as one of the greatest of the season, had had no rhyme or reason. Twice, the Panthers and Rams have met and bounced each other all over the field with nothing to show the big crowds but a scoreless tie.

What will happen Saturday is only a guess but if it's another 0-0 on the scoreboard, both Jock Sutherland of Pitt and wide awake "Sleepy Jim" Crowley of Fordham will run the risk of an investigation.

Both Sutherland and Crowley deny vigorously that they meet annually resolved not to hurt the other's chances for an Eastern Rose Bowl assignment and it is true they have no regard for each other's future in football coaching success. So there can be no other explanation than this: It is the annual game between the irresistible force and the immovable object. You hear about that one all year, but the Fordham-Pitt scrap must be the McCoy.

In 1935, Pitt met the Rams with its great sophomore team. The game was almost all Fordham in the final period, the Rams rammed within scoring distance but refused to take a single chance to push over the winning score.

Last year, the Panthers outplayed the Rams but they, too, refused to try something fancy for a score. Once they were on the four-yard line, they tried four line bucks against a line they knew to be impregnable and got nothing.

"We're going to pull some fancy stuff this year to end this scoreless tie stuff—if we can," says Jock, "but maybe a tie would be pretty good. They're tough."

"If we can get a tie," says Crowley, "we'll be tickled."

Jackie Kane To Play Hockey In Bridgetown

Jackie Kane, well-known Charlottetown hockey player, yesterday left for Bridgetown, N. S., where he is slated to play with a Bridgetown club in the Valley League this season.

Kane played with the Charlottetown Abegweits last winter. Rumors have been current that several other Abegweits will be seen in Nova Scotia uniform, this season.

Down The Alleys

HOLY NAME BOWLING MIXED DOUBLES
Last night on the Holy Name Alleys twelve couples finished up their second round in the mixed bowling tournament with the scores running very close. Spectators were kept on edge throughout the night's play. With all couples so evenly matched and so many upsets have already taken place it is impossible yet to start picking the favorites, however, time will tell. Twelve more couples roll again tonight at 7 p. m.

Following are the scores:

Glancing Around The Sport World

NEW YORK, Oct. 14—Calling all printers: Come on out, boys—Mie. Jadwiga Jedrzez—(help)—Owska, the Polish tennis star, sailed for home last night. Joe McCarthy is tickled pink over his new contract and why not. He'll get $105,000, a comfortable fortune, for managing the Yanks for the next three years.

Tommy Henrich, Yank outfield recruit, made more dough last season than any other rookie ever cleaned up in his first year. The Yanks paid Tommy $20,000 for signing a contract. He drew down $6,500 in salary and topped that off with about $6,000 in World Series gravy. For five months work that ain't exactly hay, now is it?

Frankie Carideo, Mississippi State backfield coach, refuses to ride on planes on scouting trips. Hasn't been off the ground since Knute Rockne (then Frankie's coach) lost his life in an air crash some years back.

Major League clubs eyeing Gabby Hartnett can forget about it. Gabby will be the next manager of the Cubs. They may even make Cholly Grimm a vice-president or something and slip Gabby in next season.

Most of the Yanks and Giants will put their World Series swag into annuities. When General John J. Phelan, New York boxing boss, wed the other day, Jimmy Johnston, long a thorn in the general's side, wired: "This is one match even the Johnstons can find no fault with."

Joe Jacobs, the fight manager, who paid $350 for his new set of store teeth, still has to park 'em in his pocket when he eats.

Max Carey, one of the numerous ex-Dodger managers, now is a big shot on the Florida Boxing Commission. It is Casey Stengel apartment hunting in Kansas City. Don't fall over dead if Mike Jacobs and Jimmy Johnston hook up one of these days. Jacobs not only feels the hustling Johnston would make a swell guy in the organization, but it also is one way for the astute Mr. Jacobs to get his hands on Bob Pastor.

Challenge For Junior Title

GLACE BAY, N. S., Oct. 14—(CP)—Manager Peter Mines of the Glace Bay Hawks, 1934 Maritime junior softball champions and winners of the Nova Scotia title this year, said tonight he was challenging Moncton, N.B., snappy Wheelers for a best-of-three series for the tri-province championship.

Mines said under the challenge terms the series would be played in Glace Bay with the Hawks providing board and lodging for the Moncton team.

Pie Traynor Will Again Pilot Pirates

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14—Harold J. (Pie) Traynor, an old buccaner himself, will guide the Pirate brig again next year.

President William E. Benswanger of the steel city's baseball club announced today that Traynor had signed a contract to manage the National League entry in 1938.

Benswanger added: "In line with Pirate policy, the contract is for one year."

Traynor was one of the classiest third basemen in the big show during the years he danced at the "hot corner" for Pittsburgh from 1920 until retirement from active play two years ago.

He said at 35 when he succeeded George Gibson as manager in June, 1934, that he would "keep on plugging until I bring a pennant winner to Pittsburgh." He still has to achieve that ambition.

Jack McGill To Quit Hockey

(By The Canadian Press)
MONTREAL, Oct. 14—Montreal Canadiens announced tonight Jack McGill, who played left wing for the habitants last year in the National Hockey League, has asked to be put on the voluntary retirement list.

Manager Cecil Hart had planned to use the former McGill University star for trading material this winter, but the winger turned up with the announcement he intended living in Hamilton, Ont., and abandoning hockey for the time being anyway.

Meanwhile, Canadiens' city rivals, Maroons, announced tonight two more players had signed up for the season. They were Earl Robinson, right winger, and Billy Beveridge, pudgy goater. The Maroons leave in a few days for training at Lake Placid, N. Y.

Awe-inspiring New Record

(By The Associated Press)
BONNEVILLE SA L T FLATS, Utah, Oct. 14—Unaided by rain squalls, a mushy track and failure to capture the world land speed record for 12 hours, Capt. George E.T. Eyston thundered on tonight in quest of a new mark for 24 hours.

Eyston, retired army officer from London, was hampered by a rough track, which relief driver Bert Denly called a "ploughed field," and severe autumn weather, but he averaged 160.04 miles per hour for 12 hours, barely missing Ab Jenkins' mark of 160.17 m.p.h.

He coaxed his racer up to 165 miles an hour for several laps. His only consolation was a new record for 2,000 kilometres. He boosted Jenkins' average of 162.97 to 163.59 m.p.h.

Bill McKechnie Third Highest Paid Manager

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14—(AP)—Bill McKechnie signed today a two-year contract as manager of the last place Cincinnati Reds, and with a guarantee of $25,000 annually plus a bonus, became, officially said, the third highest-paid skipper in the Major Leagues.

"But I am no miracle man," warned the genial McKechnie asserting he had turned down two "beter offers" in order to affiliate with Warren Giles, Reds' General Manager and his friend for 15 years.

Giles declared a $5,000 bonus would be paid annually to the new manager, should the Reds' 1938 home attendance maintain the club average of 450,000 or the club finish in the first division.

"It will take a cyclone to keep Bill from getting $30,000 a year," said Giles.

"And," responded McKechnie, "it may take more than a cyclone to make the Reds' pennant winners. I'll merely say that we'll finish higher than the Reds did this year."

CARNERA BANKRUPT

LONDON, Oct. 14—(CP)—Primo Carnera, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, filed a petition of bankruptcy today when confronted with a bill for £124 ($615) for unpaid income tax.
