The store of Wedlock Bros. Stanley Bridge, was broken into Thursday night and a new eighty dollar cash register was carried off. The burglar made his entrance by breaking a large plate glass in the door. Nothing else has been missed so far, and the cash register was found some distance from the store broken and destroyed, but there were only a few cents in it the thief did not realize much by his daring adventure. There is a strong suspicion of the perpetrator as this is the second time in three weeks that the store has been entered, and a warrant will likely be taken out for the arrest of the suspected party.

SKIRTS OF STYLE

We pay special attention to our skirt department. We're working to make it the best in the Province—We keep always in touch with the newest and best in this line—and the best makers submit their samples first here. A few attractive lines we've just opened described below.

Good Skirt of moderately heavy weight, tweeds and chevots, good value at $3.00, our price $1.99
Black chevot skirt, very prettily made and finished, large band especially made for stout figures $2.95
In navy or black Vicuna, there's a very stylish skirt, plain at hips, side gores, finished in pleats $3.15
A notably smart skirt of grey mixed tweed has two pleats at each side of front gore—pleats released about knee length, to give flare . . . $5.75

Another handsome thing comes in grey herring bone tweed, box pleated from the hip to base of skirt—a most attractive garment at $8.40
Fine black vicuna skirt, 9 gores, lap seams, every alternate gore has a cluster of five pleats from knee depth, finished above pleating with diagonal strips of satin $10.75

ACCORDEON PLEATED SKIRTS.

This is a handsome high-class novelty not to be had anywhere else in the City—and practically impossible to obtain custom made. Two varieties—accordion pleated from hip to base—in navy or black panama $11.50
Accordion pleated with smocking at hip and knee—black panama, only $12.95
