Instrumental music, songs and speeches were interspersed at various intervals throughout the evening, and each member of the team was the recipient of a prize as a token of the esteem, and appreciation in which they are held as exponents of good clean sportsmanship from a community which is vitally interested in the furtherance of sports, with the full knowledge of the beneficial effects that the participants derive and the gain, as they carry on through the years, and take their places in the business world, or pursue the various activities in which they find themselves best suited.
