POLICE COURT.—The dove of peace driven from Europe, hovered over the Police Court yesterday. There was a clean docket.

BIG PRICE FOR FILLY.—What is considered the biggest price ever offered for a two year old filly, was that which A. H. Casden, owner of Real Lady 203, made for the champion two year old Nella Dillon 206 1/2. Mr. Cox her owner refusing $25,000 for her. Nella Dillon 200 1/2 is from the same family as Seymour Dillon, 220 1/2 and Prince Mayor, owned in this city.

DISTRICT MEETING.—A meeting of the Charlottetown District of the Methodist Church was held in Charlottetown on Wednesday afternoon, 17th when the following ministers were present: Revs. R. G. Fulton, F. H. Littlejohns, Charlottetown; J. Heaney, B. A. Cornwall, E. S. Weeks, B. D. Murray Harbor, W. J. Donville, Montague and W. R. Pepper, Vernon, H. Brown, Souris; Rev. E. E. Styles of Alberton was present as a visitor. It was resolved not to hold the November District meeting. But the February meeting will be held. A committee consisting of Revs. J. L. Dawson, R. G. Fulton, F. H. Littlejohns and W. R. Pepper was raised to prepare program and arrange place agreed upon is Charlottetown.

ANOTHER REFORM.—Last night at the Prince Edward Theatre, the Manager, Mr. Gallagher, remembering that many of the ladies had, hitherto disregarded the general screen invitation to remove their hats, gave them a little wholesome advice from the platform, asking them in the interests of those sitting behind them to kindly remove their hats. There was a general removal of "hats", but a few still remained. Between acts again he repeated the invitation and as a result practically all hats were removed during the remainder of the show. It is hoped the lesson will be remembered for future occasions as none of the guilty ladies could ever have understood how cordially they were being amathematized by the "little" people who sat in the shadow of the hats.

FINAL S. A. RALLY TONIGHT.—Adjutant Kendall swayed a large audience with a forcible address in the Salvation Army Hall last night. Mrs. Kendall holding herself in reserve for a final effort tonight, when a great altar service takes place. The Adjutant took for his text 2 Corinthians 11, 17. Therefore if any man be in Christ he is a new creature. "Old things are passed away." This was the ground work of the new creation, the foundation for the new man in Christ Jesus. All old things were given up, he had a new mind, a new outlook on life, a new heart, a new regard for his fellow man, and a new attitude towards God and his Son Jesus Christ. With a new life came new power. The new creation was the work of a moment, and converts the sinner into a Christian and all that this implies.

WEDDING BELLS.—That it is not good for man to live alone was once more confirmed on Wednesday October 17th, 1917, at high noon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Brehaut, Pownal, when Edith H. their only daughter was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Mr. Heber W. G. Weeks of Fredericton on P. E. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ernest S. Weeks, B. D. of Murray Harbor, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. H. Pierce, B. A. of Pownal. Only a few of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present. The bride was dressed in a tailored travelling suit of blue serge with hat to match and was unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful muskrat coat and her father's was a well filled purse. The bride is one of Pownal's finest young ladies and will be greatly missed. The groom is the youngest son of the late John Weeks of Fredericton, and is one of the most enterprising and prosperous young farmers in the county. The young couple left immediately after luncheon for their bright new home in Fredericton followed by the good wishes of their many friends.
