(Continued from page 1) A veteran of Juliland and the Falklands' Rear-Admiral T. P. M. Beamish, Conservative member for Lewis, charged that crews of torpedo planes which attacked the Schornhorst and Gneisenau in the North Atlantic were not only never hit but had been told to believe that the enemy was to attack a convoy, not warships.

Mr. Alexander's own speech was tempered by warnings that recent Allied shipping losses are severe, that Germany's U-boat fleet is expanding month by month on an unprecedented scale and that the Royal Navy in the most dangerous period of the shipping crisis.

Of the daring thrust of the Trident, medium-sized submarine displacing 1,000 tons at the surface, it was disclosed that a warship of the Prinz Eugen class, probably the Prinz Eugen herself, was torpedoed off the coast of Norway Feb. 23. An accomplished fast destroyer was believed to have been hit at the same time.

Following this up, British reconnaissance planes spotted a Prinz Eugen class cruiser in tow of the ship in the port of Trondheim, Norway. It was damaged aft.

Notwithstanding the encouraging aspect of day to day returns, G. V. Soinne, chairman of the National War Finance Committee, which is in charge of the drive, cautioned tonight against over-optimism.

"We still have much money to secure—and even more, if we are to attain our goal," he said.

Unable previously to make direct purchases of Victory Loan Bonds, a group of business, insurance and financial institutions and other organizations have already bought $5,555,000 of Dominion of Canada War Life Insurance bonds during the present Victory Loan campaign, headquarters said tonight.

These purchases by United States institutions make a contribution to the success of the 1942 Victory Loan as they enable Canadian holders of pre-war issues of Dominion of Canada War Life Insurance bonds to help and re-invest the proceeds in Victory Loan Bonds," the official announcement said.

Purchases of bonds as a gesture of support by American companies reported during the Victory Loan campaign to date include: The New York Life Insurance Co., $250,000; Jersey Insurance Co. of New York, $100,000; Bankers and Shippers Insurance Co., $100,000; The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, $100,000; and the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, $100,000.

"Headway has been gained during the past two or three days as an employee canvass of industrial and commercial concerns in the city returns show an accelerating response to the form of instalment buying of Victory Bonds through the payroll savings plan," it was reported.

"Currently such subscriptions are being reported at a rate that promises daily returns of $20,000 or more for a total of around $2,500,000 worth of bonds.

Employees of New Brunswick International Paper Co. at Dalhousie subscribed for a total of $50,000 and the canvass is still in progress. At Edmundston, N. B., workers at Fraser Companies' mill will have a quota of $11,000 and already have gone past $23,000. Employees of Robt. J. Watson & Co. at Amherst, N. S., have bought $23,650 worth of bonds, equivalent to 13 per cent of the annual payroll.

National headquarters announced receipt of the following large subscriptions: Howard Smith Paper Mills Ltd., $1,000,000; Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines Ltd., $1,000,000; Canadian Johns-Manville Co., $500,000; Workmen's Compensation Board of Nova Scotia, $350,000.

A woman was approached as a matter of routine by the accountant for one firm and asked if she would care to subscribe to the drive with a large family to support out of meagre earnings, but she had figured out how to readjust her income to the drive.

Victory Bond, and made a special arrangement with her employer so she could pay $1 a week to carry the subscription. The regular payroll savings plan for instalment purchases calls for $2 a week for a $50 bond.

MORE WHALES CAUGHT OFF PACIFIC COAST

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 25 — Among the products carried by Canadian National freight trains is whale oil produced from whales caught off the Pacific Coast and the northwest coast of Alaska.

The regular payrolls of the square-rigged whaling vessels, today modern steel whaling tugs armed with harpoon guns have taken a lot of the romance out of the industry. In addition to whale oil there is fertilizer and whale meal. 328 whales were landed during the 1941 season as against 220 for 1940. War-time needs have created a new demand which has given an impetus to the industry. 566,500 gallons of whale oil were produced last season with approximately 577 tons of fertilizer and 271 tons of meal.

He was granted leave of absence during the first World War, raised, and as the commanding officer, took overseas the 105th Highlanders. C. where he taught for eight years. He held various positions in the health forces in 1928 and he took up residence in Victoria.

His wife, the former Ella J. Bulbit of Rosneath P. E. I., predeceased him by several years. Surviving are one brother, Mr. Josiah Campbell of Montague, P. E. I.; two sons, George at Ladner, B. Meeting open To both sexes

Men will be equally welcome as women at the meeting to be held at Prince of Wales auditorium tonight when Madame Pierre F. Casrain, liaison officer of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board will deliver an address on Price Control.

Alison Donald Gordon, Dominion chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, has repeatedly stressed the great part women must play in the battle against inflation, and she emphasizes that it is imperative that all Canadians assist in maintaining the price ceiling. The Women's Advisory Committee of the P. W. T. region are most anxious that as many men as possible attend the meeting tonight which opens at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. B. W. LePage, wife of Lieut. Governor LePage has graciously consented to act as Honorary Chairman of the meeting. The acting chairman will be Mrs. E. S. Coffin who heads the local regional Women's Advisory Committee.

The local committee, representative of most of the women's organizations of the province, is very anxious that as many women as possible attend tonight's meeting. It is felt that if the women of the province are to bring to bear an "all out" effort to uphold the Price Control structure, they must co-operate willingly and from an informed viewpoint. The local committee believes that all who hear Mrs. Casrain will grasp the significance of Price Control measures, and be better equipped to assist Canada in the present great national struggle.

Mrs. Coffin's address, the committee hopes, will convince Island women that the maintenance of the price ceiling, is as essential to victory as the battle of production.

Planes operated By Enemy Agents Over Los Angeles

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 (AP) — A United States army report that 38 planes as 15 planes may have been operated by "enemy agents" over the Los Angeles area, where an air raid alarm early yesterday sent anti-aircraft guns into action, was made public today by War Secretary Henry Stimson.

Coming a day after Navy Secretary Frank Knox had told the public that navy department information indicated the episode was "a false alarm," the army report said the unidentified craft might have been commercial planes flown over the area by enemy agents to spread alarm, disclose anti-aircraft gun positions, and test the effectiveness of blackout codes.

No bombs were dropped, there were no casualties among American forces, no planes were shot down, and no American army or navy planes were in action, Stimson said.
