Penmans Underwear

THERE are certain words in our language which sum up a number of qualities, and express them tersely. "Class" is one, "Efficiency" another, "Penmans" still another. This last one when applied to underwear means all the good things you want in the underwear you buy for yourself. Don't forget Penmans.

N MEMORIAM

A TRIBUTE
Death has taken from our citizenship Mr. Ivan L. Fisher, a young man of unblemished character, whose ability and worth cannot be over-estimated by any of his fellow citizens. He was a quiet and retiring disposition, but firm and resolute in matters of vital interest and importance. There are far too few of such young men in our City. We sometimes are amazed when such lives are taken, because they were those interested in that which make for the best welfare of their fellow-men; always ready to fight and vote against corruption in its many forms. He will always be remembered by his shop mates, members of his paternal order, the International Association of Machinists, and numerous other affiliations as a bright, clean and noble fellow worthy of all the praise and admiration that could be bestowed upon another fellow-being. These few words of esteem are a simple tribute which I and many others are glad to pay to the memory of one whose life and deeds we shall always cherish. Archibald B. Coggeshall.—X.

ISLANDER DEAD
The following is taken from The News, Newport, Mass., of the 13th inst. Ivan L. Fisher, whose death is announced to-day was one of the Torpedo Station employees who had advanced by conscientious application to his work and won the high respect of his associates. He came to the Station about nine years ago as a machinist and at the time of his death rated as a leading machinist being employed in the planning department. His death was due to diabetes, and came after a week's treatment in the Newport Hospital. The week previous he had taken an automobile trip, with one of the other employees to Atlantic City, and this aggravated his trouble, which had existed about a year though it was not thought to be serious. He married shortly after her graduation Miss Lottie McEwen of the class of 1911 of the Newport Hospital. They went to the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. McEwen of Summerside, P. E. I. and while there she died from the trouble within eight months of their marriage. He was a member of the local machinist Union and Rhode Island Lodge of Odd Fellows and had been a regular attendant at the First Methodist Church.—X.

Write for it to our Montreal Office.

IT'S downright scandalous, the number of 20 pound tins I buy. But, as Mother says, we use it for 'most everything. "Nothing else tastes quite so good on all kinds of Hot Bread, Johnny Cake and Griddle Cakes. "Mother uses it for all her cooking—for Cookies, Cakes, Gingerbread and Pies. "And I am almost ashamed to mention the quantity of 'Crown Brand' and bread that my youngsters consume. This syrup certainly is a favorite in my home".

The 20 pound tin is convenient and economical for home use, although you can get "Crown Brand" in 2, 5 and 10 pound tins and 3 pound glass jars. Ask your dealer.

International Hay Presses

International horse power motor or belt power presses stand first wherever hay is baled or presses are demonstrated. Now is the proper time to equip yourself for the proper handling of your hay crop. It would be very advisable for intending purchasers of Hay Presses to place their orders in time, as it is a difficult matter to deliver a Hay Press a short notice, on account of the uncertain transportation service as the result of the war.

WOMEN'S STOMACH TROUBLES

The Great Woman's Medicine Often Just What Is Needed.

We are so used to thinking of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy exclusively for female ailments that we are apt to overlook the fact that it is one of the best remedies for disorders of the stomach.

For stomach trouble of women it is especially adapted, as it works in complete harmony with the female organism, since it contains the extracts of the best tonic roots and herbs. It tones up the digestive system, and increases the appetite and strength. Here is what one woman writes showing what this medicine does:—
Newfield, N. Y.—"I am so pleased to say I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as an economical and beneficial remedy in most ailments pertaining to women. At least I found it so by only taking two bottles. I had indigestion in a bad form and I am now feeling in the best of health and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
Mrs. BYRN WILLIAMS, R.D. No. 29, Newfield, N. Y.

Many women suffer from that "all gone feeling," and "feel so faint," while doing their work. Ten chances to one their digestive system is all out of order. A tablespoonful of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after each meal should completely remedy this condition in a few days.

Signalting on the Sly.

(TIP-TIPS.)

Signalting on the sly is one of the greatest and most important arts of the present war. If a spy in the enemy's camp wants to get into communication with his own men he cannot stand up and wave a flag. He has to think of something much more subtle. And often, despite his subtlety, he is caught red-handed. Once on the east-ern front the Russians came across a lawn, and when their airmen came over the farm hand piling up his cart with hay, or the spot it was easy for them to being suspicious, they ransacked the spot their mark.

hay—and found nothing. They were about to ride away when the horse jerked his head, and something went "chink" in the nose bag. Result: The discovery therein of a telephone transmitter, with wires stretching over fields to a handy farmstead. Animals are sometimes made to do the signalting. Once, when the Germans were retreating, they wanted to mark a large country house, which they intended to bombard from the air. So they left a white goat tethered on the farm hand piling up his cart with hay, or the spot it was easy for them to being suspicious, they ransacked the spot their mark.
