

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE GIVES JIM'S TWINS A RIDE ON HIS SNOW CARROUSEL

Dear Tommy—You ought to see the snow carousel I fixed up for the Twins, with the new auto for motive power.

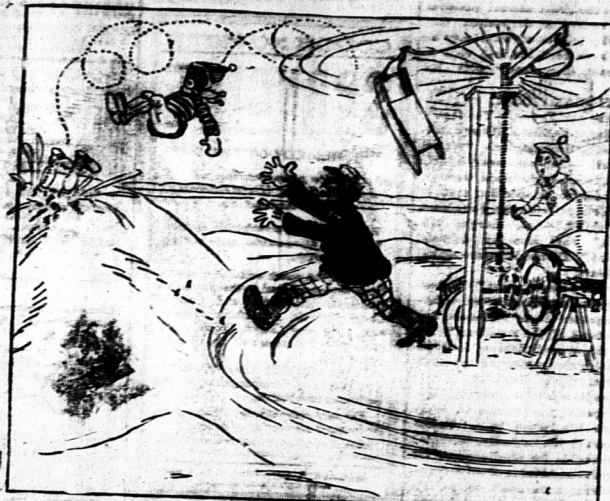

I started them going, and they were having lots of fun—

When I put on full speed. That was too fast, and I tried to slow down—

But I hadn't learned how to work the new machine yet—

And before I could stop the Twins were whirled up in the air and landed in a snow drift.

They didn't get hurt a bit, but Jim got awfully mad. You see, etc.
