On Friday evening last the usual package of Free Speech arrived in this city by express. The fact that they had arrived as expected was generally known by the Speech loving public but strange to say on the following morning they were not on sale though the newsboys had all reported for duty. Interrogation in this direction elicited the information from the boys that a certain man, whose character was reported to be relected on in this issue, had bought the lot to prevent the circulation of the paper. It is now thought that this is only a case of "kid" bluff.

CONDITIONS OF THE BIBLE STUDY CONTEST

- 1. Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course answer the 500 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is however desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied. 2. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and this local Club. 3. Each contestant in this Local Club, must answer each of the written questions, for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday Aug. 22nd, 1909, and the answers must all be in the possession of The Guardian within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest. 4. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches. 5. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, so it can be identified, given a number registered and the name cut off so the examiner may know it by number only. 6. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this, the lesson text must be read and especially the verse, or verses, upon which the question is based. 7. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to this office, and they will be collected at the headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, not by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this Local Club will be given out to-day.

The funeral of the late J. D. McAulay, of Tracadie Cross, took place on Saturday last at nine o'clock in the morning at St. Bonaventure's Cemetery. The remains were followed to the Church by a procession of sorrowing mourners, relatives and friends of the deceased which was said to be the largest ever seen in Tracadie. The service at the church was very impressive and the large crowd present, who were all personally acquainted with the late Mr. McAulay, were mourners in the fullest sense of the word. The grief and sympathy of all was shown in the manner in which the celebration of the Solemn Mass of Requiem, under such sad circumstances, touched the hearts of the whole congregation. Rev. Father McGuigan was the officiating clergyman. The following were the pall-bearers: Charles McInnis, Robert Trainor, William Mullins, Ellis Lacey, Frederick Steele and Leonard Court. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent from all parts of the surrounding county among them being a cross from the more fortunate comrades in disaster of the deceased, Charles McInnis and Robert Trainor.

The funeral of the late James Burnett was removed yesterday morning at 7.45 to Fort Augustus Church and Cemetery for burial. The funeral was attended by the Benevolent Irish Society and the League of the Cross as far as Hillsboro Bridge in regalia and headed by the League of the Cross Band. About forty wagons met the body on the way to the Church and followed it to its destination where the Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Allan J. McDonald. The pallbearers were: J. V. Power, Joseph Hogan and John Flynn from the B. I. S.; W. Morgan, P. Doyle and James Brown from the League of the Cross.

The funeral of the late Harry Gallant took place on Saturday last at nine o'clock in the morning at St. Bonaventure's Cemetery. The remains were followed to the Church by a procession of sorrowing mourners, relatives and friends of the deceased which was said to be the largest ever seen in Tracadie. The service at the church was very impressive and the large crowd present, who were all personally acquainted with the late Mr. McAulay, were mourners in the fullest sense of the word. The grief and sympathy of all was shown in the manner in which the celebration of the Solemn Mass of Requiem, under such sad circumstances, touched the hearts of the whole congregation. Rev. Father McGuigan was the officiating clergyman. The following were the pall-bearers: Charles McInnis, Robert Trainor,
