THE DIFFERENCE.
And what is so rare as a day in June?
Why, a country band that plays in June.
Or a honeymoon that doesn't end soon.
Or a possum dinner without a coon.
Or a lovers' stroll without a spoon.
Or a German band with no bassoon.
Or a circus lady without a baloon.
Or a moonlight night without a moon.
Or a bargain sale without one swoon.
Or a zoological garden with no baboon.
Or a padded cell without a loon.
Or a current event with no cartoon.
Or a vaudeville show with no buffoon.
Or a political campaign and no lamppoon.
Or a boarding-house meal without a prune.
These are rarer far than a day in June!
Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord
And let perpetual light shine on them.

-A very pleasant picnic was held at Oyster Point on Tuesday the 16th. Three gasoline boats bearing thirty persons left Bradshaw Bridge about 10.30 a. m. A delightful sail followed. In the evening several clam-bakes were enjoyed by all. Rain started about five o'clock, the picnickers were driven to their homes in carriages, kindly sent by the inhabitants of Bedouque. Although the rain interfered somewhat with plans for the evening, an altogether enjoyable day was spent.

-It is currently reported that considerable liquor is being sent out from Summerside to tea parties held in the vicinity of the town. It is even said that this game was played in Summerside on Dominion Day. These travelling barrooms should be suppressed. The promoters of a tea recently held not many miles from Summerside are said to have raided one of these outfits the other day and after seizing some of the "goods" broke the wagon. The proprietor, it is stated, made his escape. It ought to be no trouble to secure sufficient evidence to convict some of those who are debauching the people in this way, and action should be at once taken along this line.-Summerside Ex.
