FAREWELL GATHERING

On the evening of April 26th, 1928, about fifty of the residents of North Rustico met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McLure, to spend a social evening, before they leave that community for their new home at North Milton.

During the evening Mrs. McLure was the recipient of a Coleman lamp, while Mr. McLure was presented with a well filled purse. Mrs. Hamilton Laird and Miss Blanche Laird presented the gifts, while Miss Emily Platts read the following address.

To Mr. and Mrs. John B. McLure, North Rustico:
We your friends and neighbors have learned with sincere regret of your intended departure from our midst.

You have always been found ready and willing to lend a helping hand in every time of need and we can assure you, as you are about to go to another community that the hearty good wishes of the people here, will follow you to your new home.

We trust that among new faces and surroundings that you will always remember with pleasure, your many friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

As a slight expression of our esteem we ask you to accept this gift, and treasure it, not for its intrinsic value, but as a small token of the goodwill of your many friends and neighbors, and may God continue to bless you both with a measure of health and strength, as in the past, is our most earnest desire.

Proceeding the presentation and address, Mr. O. M. Bernard acted as chairman, and in a few well-chosen words expressed the object of the gathering.

Piano music for the evening was furnished by Miss Emily Platts, and Mr. Chas. M. McKenzie, while many others joined heartily in singing familiar choruses, including "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

A bountiful and appetizing lunch was served by the ladies. After singing the National Anthem, all departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. McLure many years of happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Mrs. McLure has since been presented with a beautiful leather-bound reference Bible from the Ladies Aid of the Cavendish Baptist Church of which she was a valued member.

"ODIPUS REX" ON RADIO DESCRIBED BY A CRITIC

LONDON, June 7. (BY THE CANADIAN PRESS) Alfred Kalisch, well-known musical critic London writing about a recent listening in the British Broadcasting Corporation's studio to the first performance in England of Stravinsky's "Oedipus Rex," conducted by the composer, says:
"Stravinsky describes his work as an opera oratorio. It is a series of comparatively short scenes which are interspersed with explanations by a narrator.
"Oedipus Rex" is written for soloists, chorus and orchestra. The style is that which Stravinsky him-

—WESTERN OFFICE.—The Western Office of the Guardian is located in the McNeill Building, Water St., Summerside, where subscriptions and advertising will be received. The Guardian may be purchased daily at the Western Office in the McNeill Building or at the McDonald News Store.

—AGED RESIDENT DEAD.—The death occurred in the Prince County Hospital on Monday morning of Mr. Cypryan Richard, a respected resident of Tignish, at the age of 73 years. Death came as the result of blood poisoning which formed from an abscess in the hand. To his bereaved widow and family sympathy is extended in their sad loss. The funeral took place Wednesday morning from his residence to Tignish Cemetery.

—WEDDING BELLS.—The wedding of Mr. Jas. Jardine and the widow of the late Dr. Jardine, both of Kensington took place at Free-and (Lot 11) May 31st, at the home of the Bride's sister, Mrs. Palmer. The above wedding was strictly private, there being only the members of the above family. The officiating Minister was the Rev. A. Brown, M. A., of the Presbyterian Church, Tyne Valley. The couple left after the wedding ceremony for an extended trip via Borden, to Boston, and other places of interest and on returning will reside in Kensington, where they will make their future home. The Guardian wishes Mr. and Mrs. Jardine all happiness for the future.

—ISLANDER DEAD.—The many friends of Mr. Stephen E. Gallant throughout Prince County will regret to learn of his sudden demise at Sydney, N.S., on May 25th. The late Mr. Gallant was born at Abam's Village, about 84 years ago. For some years he was engaged in the lobster packing industry on the Egmont Bay shore and also carried on a mercantile business at Richmond. He was the liberal representative of the Third District of Prince in the local House Assembly during one term. About 30 years ago he removed to Sydney, N. S., where he has resided ever since. He leaves to mourn his death, his devoted wife, nee Elizabeth McNally, formerly of Egmont Bay.

—KINDLY REMEMBERED.—Rev. Campbell, who has been visiting Rome, the Holy Land, and other European points, is expected to arrive some time this week. Rev. Fr. McCarthy, who has been filling the vacancy, was tendered an address accompanied by a purse from the congregation of Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, in anticipation of his departure. The address was read by Mr. McKenna of the Dock Road and the purse presented by M. V. Foley. His Reverence made an appropriate and touching reply. The Reverend Father has been here for but some months, during which time he has secured a place in the hearts of the members of the congregation and his withdrawal will produce a wrench which all will feel. He will be accompanied by the best wishes of everyone for success in his field wherever he may go.
