"WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET"

"SECOND CHANCE" ONE-HALF OF DOUBLE BILL AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

The suspenseful and thrill-packed story of the deadliest game a man and woman ever played, "Second Chance," a new Sol M. Wurtzel production released by Twentieth Century-Fox, opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre.

Louise Currie, Dennis Hoy and Larry Blake.

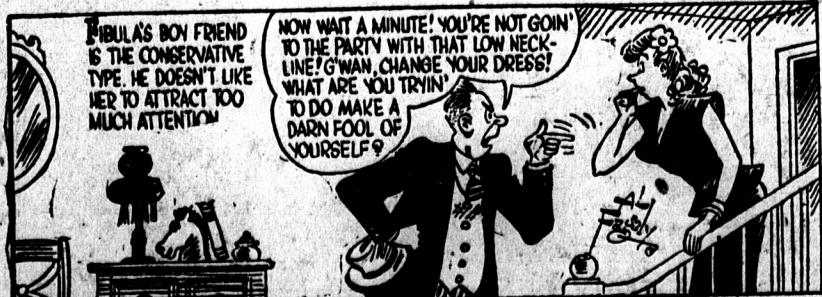

The exciting plot revolves around the fabulous Malabar diamond, a million dollar gem, that explodes into headlines when it becomes the object of a desperate four-cornered battle between Kent Taylor, his beautiful accomplice, Louise Currie, the gang to which they are attached, and the investigators for a jewel insurance company.

Kent Taylor, who recently scored in "The Crimson Key," is seen as the slick, handsome and romantic jewel thief.

The beautiful, talented and up-coming young star, Louise Currie, plays the part of a one-time member of an international ring of jewel thieves, who, after a short jail term, has reformed and become an investigator for the Jewellers' Indemnity Insurance Corporation.
