THE MORNING GUARDIAN

FRIDAY, OCT. 30, 1903.

LORD ALVERSTONE'S SILENCE.

So far Lord Alverstone has remained silent under the grave charges of breach of faith made by the Canadian Commissioners. Whether because it would compromise his dignity to answer to a charge of treachery, or whether because he has no better answer to give than a confession, we are left to conjecture. But he cannot afford to remain silent if he cares for his reputation before the tribunal of history. He holds a high judicial standing, but that will not avail for his defence. The joint appointment of the Canadian Commissioners with himself to the Boundary Tribunal made them his equals in this matter, and obligates him to answer to their indictment.

He owes it to his own hitherto fair fame, to the Canadian Government in whose interest he was commissioned, to the British Government by whom he was appointed, to clear himself of a most compromising charge. If he will not answer, if he still persists in dogged silence, then the British Government will be called to answer for him and for his conduct. Not for an error of judgment is he called to account. His clear judgment expressed to his colleagues, subscribed to by him and them and presented to the Tribunal was that the four islands in the Portland Canal belong of right to Canada. Privately, without notification to his Canadian colleagues and without their knowledge, until the irrevocable act was done, he gave two of the islands in question to the United States.

There is more in this than the value of the islands, strategically or otherwise. There is a question of good faith and honor, a charge of the doughty betrayal of his own convictions and of the just rights of the Dominion. Lord Alverstone cannot dissociate himself from his British connection, nor can the British Government dissociate itself from the act of betrayal, if such it was, done by its accredited High Commissioner. Somebody must answer for this. Lord Alverstone may decline to answer, whether from a lofty opinion of his own dignity and importance, or from shame that comes of exposure. But if the charge made by the Canadian Commission is true, and who can now doubt it, then the British Government must answer for the perfidy of its servant. We can bear our territorial losses, although there has been a "damnable iteration" of them in our boundary settlements at British hands in the past, but we cannot without deep and permanent resentment permit a charge of flagrant betrayal, so strongly affirmed, to pass unanswered.

THE EDITOR'S MAIL.
ANOTHER DENIAL OF SIGNING.

—SIR.—As my name appears on the Carver Commutation petition for the satisfaction of the relatives and friends of the late Alexander Stewart, I, hereby deny the imputation. I never signed the said petition and further I never saw it until I read it in print in your paper.

HENRY WOOD,
Pownal, Oct. 29, 1903.

AN EXPLANATION.

—SIR.—As my name has appeared in the press on Carver's petition believing it has caused hard feeling. I would like to explain the motive that prompted me to do it, not that I had any disrespect to Mr. Stewart or his family. I have the profoundest sympathy and respect for Mr. Stewart's family, sisters and brothers in this time of their sorrow and sadness. I did not write my name on the petition but told the petitioner if my name would help to transfer Carver from the gallows to the penitentiary for life he might use my name believing I was justified in a spiritual stand point. It was no: my intention to mar the feelings of any. If I have, I am very sorry. My nature is to forgive when I am asked.

trife with the diseases peculiar to her sex. Neglect to-day means a worse condition to-morrow.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a safe and reliable remedy for the cure of diseases peculiarly womanly. It establishes regularity, dries enfeebled drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.
"My wife, Mrs. Mary Estes, has been taking your medicine and received great benefit from it," writes Mr. Geo. Wm. Estes, of Springgrove, Va. "Was troubled with female weakness, heavy, bearing-down pains, severe pain in back and head, and a tired, worn-out feeling all the time. Tried all the remedies we could heat off, but they did no good. Finally we wrote to you and my wife commenced taking 'Favorite Prescription.' Took ten bottles, and is in better health than before in a long time. We shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all who are thus afflicted."
"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.
