THE FINAL SETTLEMENT

"The Final Settlement," a drama of today, will be the attraction at the Opera House on Friday, August 5th, for one night only. This will be the first presentation of the play in this city. It is quite melodramatic, with a strong vein of good comedy. The story deals with the early struggles of a young foreman in one of the mills of a great iron corporation. Through an accident he is raised to the position of president of the corporation. His suddenly acquired wealth and position, and the allurements of life in the fast social set in which he moves, cause him to renounce the wife of his youthful struggles and privations and to seek companionship in the person of a beautiful actress, whom he believes better qualified for the exacting demands society would make upon the wife of a man of his exalted commercial position and wealth. His subsequent ruin and his final rescue at the hands of the wife of his youth, form the basis of the melodrama. The company presenting the play is a strong one, is now playing the big city time, and the production is in every way qualified to give the theatre-goer a good evening's entertainment. Seats on sale at usual places.

The Dining Car service of the Grand Trunk Pacific is already commencing to attract very favorable comment. A few days ago a number of representatives of Marshall Field in Chicago, gave the following unsolicited testimonial:—

"We have travelled extensively and in our judgment the service and cuisine are as perfect as any we have ever experienced."

Louis G. Whear, formerly of this city, but lately of Campbellton, N. B., has announced that it is intention to collect clothing, underwear household articles, bedding, etc. for the sufferers in the fire-swept town. He will be in the city until the end of the week and until that time people who wish to contribute may let him know by writing to him in this city and he will call with a team for any articles or parcels. Everything will be made up in the one shipment and the object is a worthy and highly charitable one, which calls for a generous response from the public. Nothing is too small to offer and all contributions will go far to alleviate the sufferings and relieve the needs of those who lost all in the terrible conflagration. Cities and small towns innumerable in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have sent boxes of clothing, etc., collected in just the manner Mr. Whear is doing and in every case the shipments were received in Campbellton with great gratitude. There is a committee in the stricken town who look after the distribution of all offerings and every thing given is applied where it will relieve the most distress. The need is great and if everyone will apply to him or herself the words contained in the old "golden rule" and give in proportion to means Mr. Whear will take back to Campbellton a bundle of no mean pretensions in size.

The Telephone Co's ad in this issue has very sensible arguments in regard to the telephone in a store. It shows the false economy in not having a phone. The people of this Province are only beginning to realize the phone as an absolute necessity in business and social life. The telephone to a store or house is an index to the interior. Read the ad carefully in another column.

Alexander Murchison, blacksmith Orwell, peacefully departed this life Tuesday July 19th aged 81 years. The deceased was a quiet inoffensive man and held in high esteem by those who knew him best. He worked many years in different shipyards throughout the Province and helped to build scores of sailing craft of every description. Among the bereaved are a faithful wife, sister of Capt. A. Cameron of this city, two daughters Mrs John McLeod, Orwell Cove, and Mrs. Malcolm McPherson, Kinross, and one son John, on the homestead. The funeral was largely attended. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. D. B. McLeod. Interment was at Mt Buchanan Cemetery.

The death occured in this city on Sunday evening at seven o'clock of Joseph Doiron in the sixty-eighth year of his age. The late Mr. Doiron suffered from a paralytic stroke fourteen months ago, from the effects of which he never recovered. He came to the city about twenty-five years ago from Rustico and has resided here since. He leaves to mourn besides his widow, five sons and four daughters. The sons are Andrew, in Fredericton, Eusebe, in Amherst, Matthew in Montague, Felix of Boston now at home and Lawrence, of Boston. The daughters are Ida, in Arichat, C. B. Maud, in Newcastle N. B. Mary, at home and Florence, in Souris. The funeral takes place to-morrow morning at Rustico.
