

Your Nerves
Your nerves must be fed with pure, rich blood, or there will be trouble. Poorly fed nerves are weak nerves; and weak nerves mean nervousness, neuralgia, headaches, debility. Weak nerves need good food, fresh air, and Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla.

Ask your doctor if alcoholic stimulants are not often very disastrous when given to nervous people. He will tell you why.

The friends of H. J. Cundall, city, will be pleased to learn that he is improving after a severe cold.

Mrs. M. Laverty, city, and her daughter were both removed to the City Hospital Friday afternoon where they will undergo treatment.

This week's Wesleyan contains a pleasing poem from the pen of Rev. W. A. Thomson, Tryon, and is reproduced elsewhere in the Guardian.

Everybody should hear Major Bartlett to-night in Grace Church. His lecture, illustrated with about 50 excellent views, begins at 8 o'clock. Admission fifteen cents. Children ten cents.

A hockey match was played in the Hillsboro rink recently between teams from the P. E. I. R. Freight Shed and Bruce Stewart & Co's. The former won by a score of seven to three.

The Arena Rink was well patronized Saturday afternoon and night. The crowds of skaters enjoyed themselves immensely as they swung around the ice to the music of the Citizens' Band.

Rev. G. M. Young, pastor of Brunswick Street Methodist Church, Halifax, gave an instructive address on temperance to the boys and girls recently. A fine musical program was rendered, followed by refreshments and a social half hour.

S. A. McLeod of Moore & McLeod's arrived in Liverpool by C. P. R. S. S. Empress of Britain on Saturday. He will spend considerable time among the factories of England, Scotland and Ireland, and then proposes to make a visit to France and Belgium to select millinery and novelties for his firm.

James Callaghan, tailor, city, has had the interior of his bright store on Queen Street renovated. Both the saleroom and the cutting and fitting departments have been repaired, painted and decorated by P. Weatherbie, and the store is now looking bright and inviting on the completion of a good job. Mr. Callaghan has received his importation of spring suitings and cloths, and is now prepared to enter into the season's necessities in his line. His reputation as a fitter extends over the whole of the Province, and pleased customers, an enviable asset to any business, are responsible for this.

At a special meeting of Court Garden Island, C. O. F., McHerbert, the following letter of sympathy was passed signed by James McCallum and Christopher McLean and ordered to be presented to Brother R. Percy Mutch and family. Whereas it has pleased the Ruler of the universe to call to Himself your beloved wife and the mother of your three little children. Resolved that we your Brethren of Court Garden Island C. O. F., beg leave to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your sore bereavement. We are all well aware that during the four years of her illness all that a devoted and loving husband could do, was done by you. Experienced physicians and attentive nurses endeavored to relieve her suffering, but could not preserve her life. "The issues from death are with God," and He saw fit in His wisdom to remove her from a world of suffering to a place where there is neither sorrow nor crying, where there is no suffering, and nothing to disturb or annoy. It will certainly add to the burden of your sorrow to carry the burden of your sorrow to think how patiently suffering was born by your beloved partner. To you and your little family we extend our deepest sympathy but freely acknowledge that it cannot heal the wounds that have been made in your hearts. That can only be accomplished by Him who came to bind up the broken hearted and give the oil of joy for mourning and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. He who knows all the sorrows through which His people have to pass, have told us in His word to cast our burdens upon the Lord and he will sustain us. May you experience the truthfulness of this statement in your own life." (Pat. please copy.)

"British Almond Pink," an "ideal" preparation for chapped hands and roughened skin. As a face lotion and "after shave," it ranks with the very best. Prepared and sold at 25 cents a bottle by A. W. Reddin, Pharm. B., Central Drugstore.
