ST. PATRICKS AT KELLY'S CROSS

The feast of Ireland's Patron Saint was fittingly celebrated in the Parish of Kelly's Cross. In the morning at 9 o'clock Rev. Gerald Murphy C. S. S. R., celebrated High Mass in St. Joseph's Church, and preached an inspiring and eloquent sermon on the life of St. Patrick. In classic and beautiful language the Rev. preacher traced the apostolate of the great missioner in the miraculous conversions he effected during his sojourn in Ireland. This call to the knowledge and service of God was not a temporary one, to be cast aside at the death of St. Patrick. No—it grew with the years, convents, monasteries and colleges sprang up all over the country, and it became and was known all over Europe as the "Island of Saints and scholars."

When the countries of Europe were overrun by hordes of barbarians and pagans, the graduates of those Irish schools and colleges were called to take a hand in Christianizing those savage people and bringing them back to the Knowledge of the true God.

After a graphic and soul-stirring picture of the dissemination of the sons of Ireland, both lay and apostolate, over all the countries of the world, especially the United States, Australia and Canada, Father Murphy congratulated those descendants of the "Green Isle" who exhibit a pride of birth and help maintain the historic land of their forefathers, to hold aloft the star of Erin, while he castigated those Irishmen or sons thereof who threw discredit on the land of whom they are the offspring, the land of "saints and scholars." The pastor, Rev. J. C. Pitre assisted in the choir

In the evening the Kelly's Cross Dramatic Club presented the play "Under Blue Skies" to a capacity audience. The cast included many new characters, and if the applause and appreciation evident in the hall be any criterion of the success of their efforts, they certainly are worthy of congratulations. It would be unfair to particularize when each one did his and her part so creditably, but we must make specilay reference to little miss Rita Bradley seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bradley, who acted her little part in her several appearances on the stage, in a manner to captivate the hearty enthusiasm of the audience. As specialties F. J. Flood sang "The Maple Leaf and the Shamrock" written by our own Mr. Enman the Farador Booster, and An Irishmen's Dream, while Mrs. Katherine Creamer, rendered very sweetly Killarney. God Save the King closed the evening's entertainment.

The cast of characters follows:—

Bruce McCulloch, The man — Thomas McAvinn.

David Joyce, Clare's Father — Francis Flood.

Dick Warren, Edith's Brother — Matthias Malone.

Oscar Weber, A village swain — Edwin Carragher.

Old John, gardener and sexton — Mark Curley.

Sleepy Heine, Sara's Grandson — Gerald Nantes.

Williams, Valet to Bruce — Louis McQuaid.

Clare Joyce, the Girl — Mrs. Emmett Gorman.

Edith Warren, an Heiress—Marita Malone.

Sara, The old Housekeeper—Mrs. Mark Smith.

Mrs. Weber, a Neighbor — Mrs. John W. Bradley.

Little Elsie, Sara's Granddaughter —Rita Bradley.

Mrs. Holt, — Mrs. John Nantes, Mrs. Wagner — Mrs. Catherine Creamer, Minnie Wagner—Maria Monaghan, Tillie Hoffman — Mrs. Edmond Monaghan—Neighbors.

ALBANY

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Bell, Cape Traverse, spent last week end in Victoria, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Avard Bell.

Mrs. Charles Connolly, Wyoming, Mass., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Green.

Mrs. Alexander Deegan, Cape Traverse, spent last week end pleasantly in Springfield and Emerald.

Mr. Ewen Cameron and son, Waldron, Albany, spent last Sunday in Wilmot with Mr. and Mrs. Sabey.

Miss Jean MacDonald, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacDonald of Crapaud is a patient in the Prince County Hospital, quite seriously ill, but doing nicely. Mrs. MacDonald is staying in Summerside the guest of Mrs. Crilly Lea.

The sympathy of this community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Barwise of Rosses Corner in the death of their infant son who passed away on Saturday after a brief illness at the tender age of ten days. The funeral took place on Monday. The remains were laid to rest in the Church of Scotland Cemetery at Cape Traverse. Budded on earth to bloom in Heaven.

Mrs. Belle MacDonald and son Roland of Rose Valley were Sunday visitors to Tryon, they were accompanied home by Miss Katy MacDonald who had been visiting there.

John Gilbert's Comeback

"PHANTOM OF PARIS" GILBERT'S MASTERPIECE

A fast-moving melodrama, "The Phantom of Paris," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle starring John Gilbert and now playing at the Prince Edward Theatre, has a distinctly continental flavor. The film is adapted from the story, "Cheri-Bibi," by Gaston Leroux, noted French mystery author, and is replete with love and intrigue closely interwoven.

There is intrigue from start to finish, intrigue with new and startling turns. But it is intrigue with finesse. The background is colorful, gay ball rooms, a glittering theatre, a vast French prison.

An excellent cast includes Leila Hyams, for the third time in as many pictures acting as Gilbert's leading woman, Lewis Stone, Jean Hersholt, C. Aubrey Smith, Natalie Moorhead, Ian Keith and Alfred Hickman.

Secrets of a Secretary At Capitol

A team that has shared the honors of plaudits from film audiences everywhere for their combined activities in "Manslaughter," "performs on the screen however. She is tary,' at the Capitol Theatre.

Only one of the team actually performs on the screen however. She is Claudet Colbert, the charming French-American girl who graduated to films from the stage. The other member of the duet is George Abbott, who so capably directed Miss Colbert and Fredric March in "Manslaughter."

"Secrets of a Secretary" is the story of a wealthy New York society girl who marries an Argentine fortune-hunter—and loses him when her father's death leaves her penniless. She is obliged to take a position as a social secretary. When the young daughter of her employer falls in love with her ex-husband, who has now turned out to be a member of a gang of jewel-thieves, the secretary is in a "tough-spot." But it all comes out pleasantly, with a happy, romantic ending.

Miss Colbert plays the role of the secretary. George Metaxa, newcomer to the talkies, plays the villainous husband. Others in the cast are Betty Lawford, Herbert Marshall, Mary Boland, Hugh O'Connell and Berton Churchill.

Carleton spent last week end in North Tryon, the guests of Mrs. Howatt's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Chisholm.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Murphy of Campbellton, Lot 4, left on March 14 for St. John, N. B., where they have purchased a farm eight miles from the city. They were accompanied by Mrs. Murphy's nephew Mr. Harry Stewart, West Point who will remain for a month's visit.

Building Boom Still In Progress In Summerside

The recent official report of the census of Prince Edward Island shows that the population of the Island has decreased from 88,615 to 88,038 in the last decade. This decrease is mostly from the rural districts. Almost all the towns show an increase.

Summerside, the go ahead capital of Prince County, increased its population to the extent of 531 during the last ten years.

It is interesting to note how Summerside has forged ahead. Building activities following the years of the World War went on apace in spite of the high price of building materials. In 1921 the evaluation, according to the Assessors roll of real estate is shown in the financial statement of the Town at $1,468,225.00. In 1929 it had increased to $1,713,500.00. The latest statistics show a valuation on real estate at $1,838,300.00.

Sixty years ago Summerside was called Green's Shore. It was more or less a swamp with a few houses belonging to the Green family. Last summer an old well came to light on Summer Street which had been used by one of the Green family. Now after almost sixty years of progress it is still going ahead. It is interesting to notice how many houses have been erected since 1929. There are a few handsome residences but many are of the bungalow type and built for the average family. Over fifty residences have been put up, besides the handsome Dalton block on Water Street. This block adds much to the appearance of the business section, and was built on the site of the old Gourlies building which was destroyed in the fire of 1916. The Clifton Hotel has also been reconstructed.

On Central Street Mr. Melville Bradshaw put up a beautiful house and beside it the bank of Nova Scotia built a lovely house for their manager. Mr. G. R. MacQuarrie and Miss Agnes Ramsay put up fine residences on Green Street, their houses with two more, on part of the Anglican Rectory grounds, one for Mr. Muttart from Carleton and the other for Mr. O'Holloran from the West of the Province, have built that section up. On Summer Street William Smallman built a charming house. Several residences on that street were enlarged.

In the east end several pretty cottages have been built and one would hardly recognize that part of the town today. The new up-to-date building of the Perfection Creamery was built in 1930. Heber McQuarrie's new creamery has just been completed, just a mile from Summerside, to replace the old one burnt down last fall.

On Harvard Street is the beautiful home of Mr. Charles Ramsay and on Granville Street Mr. Arthur Bell has built a bungalow which is entirely new in design and structure.

Milton Avenue has two new houses and several reconstructed. Some pretty bungalows have been built, one on Belmont Street for Mr. Ralph Williams was completed last fall.

In the west end many houses of the cottage and bungalow style have been erected within the last three years. But the north end of the town has been built up the most, particularly on Myrtle Street, Poplar Avenue and other streets in that direction. Near the rink have been built some very artistic bungalows.

Several new business premises have been erected on Water Street and some renovated.

Another building was Dr. Smith's bungalow at the Experimental Fox Farm. It is scarcely conceivable that over fifty houses have gone up in Summerside since 1929 and there are others in the course of erection at the present time. It would take too much space to give an account of all of them but it is encouraging to notice the increase and particularly in the residences of an average type suitable for families with moderate means. ST. PETER'S LAKE INSTITUTE

The March meeting of St. Peter's Lake Women's Istitute met at the home of Mrs. Frank Anderson on March 9th, 1932. There were eleven members present, and the president presided. The meeting opened with the singing of "Come Back to Erin" by all the members. Roll Call was answered with riddles. The sick committee reported having called on two sick ladies. The entertainment committee handed in their programs for the next three months.

It was decided at this meeting to send $1.00 to the Sanatorium. The ladies of the Institute offered to help the district to put up outbuildings at the school. The sick committee was re-appointed, and the school committee consisting of Mrs. Lloyd MacEwen, Miss Lily MacDonald and Miss Matilda MacDonald. were appointed.

Miss Lily MacDonald kindly invited the members to her home for the April meeting. The opening exercises for April—Creed, Its a Good Time to Get Acquainted. Roll Call to be answered with names of farmer premiers and governors of P. E. I.—Pay 10 cents.

Program, opening song, O Canada. Paper, Ideal Member by L. Rossiter. Contest, words ending in 'ing." Mandolin solo, by Miss Matilda MacDonald. Paper, Local Parliament by Miss Lily MacDonald. Closing song, Island Hymn.
